Ward-Belmont Alumnae To Have Reunion March

By VIRGINIA KEATHLEY
Woman's Editor

BELLES of Ward-Belmont will be singing "Bells of Ward-Belmont" here on Thursday, March 21.

"Howdee" will also ring out at the first all alumnae reunion as Minnie Pearl, of Grand Ole Opry fame, program chairman and Sug Bryan (Mrs. Andrew Benedict Jr.), chairman of the event, greet alumnae from far and near.

There will be a happy hour and dinner at Belle Meade Country Club at 6:30 p.m. Minnie Pearl, former Sarah Ophelia Colley, now Mrs. Henry Cannon, will be hostess

Mary Elizabeth Casey, although she was not present, were to assist her.

Others joining us at the meeting were Pat Herbert (Mrs. Robert Walker), Louise Hardison (Mrs. Frank McCoy), Virginia Love Graves (Mrs. Dunklin Bowman), Patty Chadwell, Jane Chadwell, (Mrs. Chase Delony); Queenye Sloan (Mrs. Bill Abernathy) and Jane Hall (Mrs. John Craig).

Headquarters for Alums At Ramada Inn

THE Ramada Inn on James Robertson Parkway will be headquarters for out-of-towners with all alumnae making their sisted by Pat Herbert (Mrs. Robert Walker).

Faculty chairman is Blanch Henry Clark (Mrs. Herbert Weaver), who will see that each faculty member and staff member knows about the reunion because every alumna wants to see them there.

Publicity is being handled by Mary Elizabeth Keith (Mrs. James King) assisted by Opie Craig (Mrs. Joseph Handly).

Jane Craig is assisting Minnie Pearl in program and food, which for lunch of course will be Minnie Pearl's Country-fied Chicken.

Other chairmen: Grace Cavert (Mrs. Paul Stumb), chairman of class recognition; gym class chair, Queenye Sloan

Guests will include all alumnae who have reservations for the dinner.

School for Young Ladies Established in 1913

WARD-BELMONT, a school for young ladies, was established in 1913, as a boarding and day school for high school and junior college. In 1951 it was purchased by the Tennessee Baptist Convention.

Minnie Pearl and Rose Toney (Mrs. J. A. Hill) of Morristown, Tenn., have been working on plans for the reunion for several months. It began as a reunion of classes of 1931, '32 and '33 but started snowballing so fast they decided to just say, "Come one, come all."

School records have been destroyed and Rose and Minnie Pearl called a meeting several days ago with some of the alumnae at the Holiday Inn on James Robertson Parkway to make plans.

First plan was to railroad Sug Benedict into the chairmanship. Virginia Brown, (Mrs. Morris Moughon) and
