Old school traditions, mingled with the change brought by a new year . . . traditional honors, activities, and duties updated by young ideas, creative suggestions, and different perspectives . . . the security of the established code and the spirit of rebellious youth . . . keeping pace with the times—they are a' changin'.

Changing seasons . . . a flickering flame brings new friends together . . . a new wish with an old coin—SPLASH! . . . the personality of freedom with the wisdom of discipline . . . new ideas, new thoughts . . . familiar faces frame a colorful outlook on the future.

Every bit of energy, enthusiasm, and interest into one dynamic effort . . . fighting to win, cheering to spur them on, trying to comprehend . . . games played before, now take on new meaning and carry wild new excitement . . . "two bits, four bits, six bits a dollar," though shouted before, still expresses the emotion felt by all . . . the routine of hard work gains in spirit through the fresh interest of a new student.

Faculty and Classes

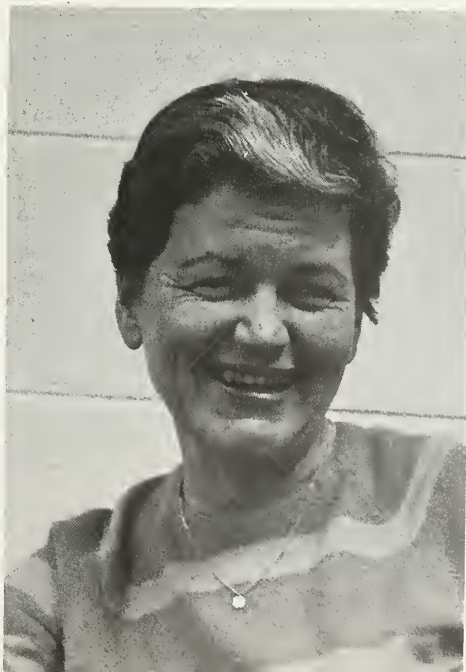

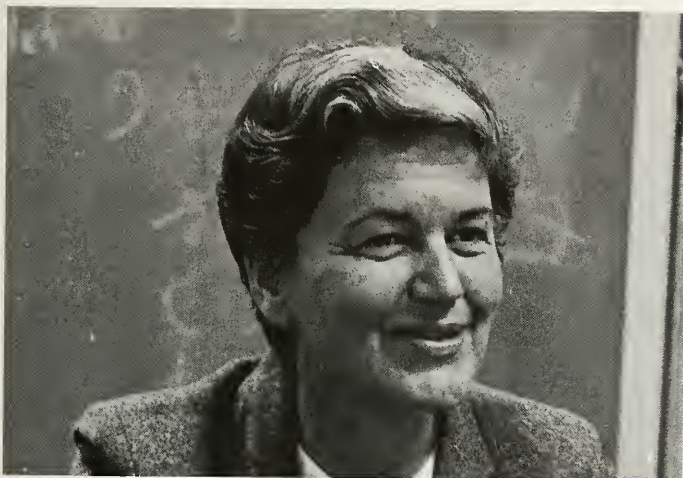

DEDICATION

Have you ever known one of those "tuned in," "turned on," and "alive" people? The Seniors this year have had the privilege of learning from such a person—Mrs. Overholser. Mrs. Overholser is tuned in to what is happening and how it affects her students. She is turned on by the great works in literature, and, in mingling the ideas of outstanding world authors with some inspirational thoughts of her own, she transmits to her students the value of studying world literature. Moreover, Mrs. Overholser is thoroughly alive with the enthusiasm and youthful energy which springs from her love for and dedication to her work. It is to this tuned in, turned on, and alive personality that we dedicate MILESTONES 1969.

HEADMISTRESS

When a Harpeth Hall girl thinks of Miss McMurry, she thinks of a concerned advisor, a wise organizer, and a gracious hostess. Miss McMurry acts as a mediator between the students and the Board of Trustees, as well as working with student leaders through her sponsorship of the Presidents' Council. Because Miss McMurry is truly dedicated to bettering Harpeth Hall, her years here have been ones of fresh ideas and favorable changes.

DIRECTOR OF MIDDLE SCHOOL

MISS FESSEY

One of the most obvious changes that has taken place in the last few years is the founding of the new Middle School, and who else but Miss Fessey could have been chosen Director? If you are looking for someone who is always willing to help and organize, who is known for her sense of humor, and who fully understands girls, a natural choice is Polly Fessey. With her unusual abilities, Miss Fessey has brought vitality and enthusiasm to the Middle School.

COUNSELOR

MISS MOUNTFORT

How many people can claim that they know both sides of Miss Penny? If you look beyond her exterior of responsibility, dignity, and cool awareness, you will find a witty, eccentric, definitely undignified free spirit. We greatly appreciate her as college counselor, sponsor for the Student Council and Milestones, and as friend-at-large.

SENIORS

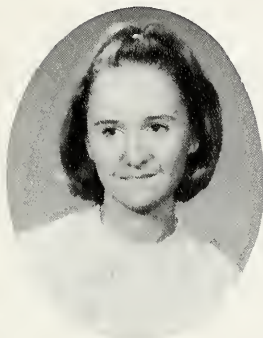

KAREN KYLENE ALBRIGHT
There is no wealth but life.

CANDACE LORAYN BALL
Heaven is always around us when we're in the presence of love; without it we live in perpetual Hell.

JENNIE GRAVES BOWMAN
Keep your face to the sunshine and you cannot see the shadow.

LINDA JEAN ANDERSON
If you can keep your head in all this confusion, you just don't understand the situation.

DOROTHY CORNELIA BREEDLOVE
Love is like fire. Wounds of fire are hard to bear, harder still are those of love.

RACHEL JANE BUCHANAN
Strange how much you've got to know,
Before you know how little you know.

PEGGY ANN CAMPBELL
Society is commonly too cheap.

ANNE FORT GILMORE CARLISLE
The sorrows we imagine are more profound and inconsolable than real life leaves us time for.

SENIORS

LISA WARD CLAIBORNE

It is literally true that this world is everything to us; if only we choose to make it so, if only "we live in the present" because it is eternity.

SUSAN CORNELIUS

Laughter, says the classic, is a sunbeam of the soul.

MARGARET CAMILLE CORE

Love makes the world go 'round.

POLLY NELSON CRAIG

You like someone because, you love someone although.

VIRGINIA HOUSE DALE

Whose yesterdays look backward with a smile.

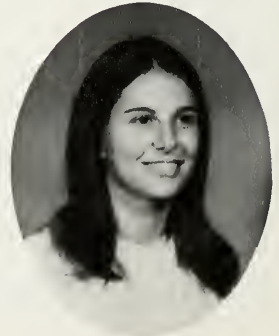

TINA LYNN CUMMINGS

Blessed are those who have the gift of making friends, for it is one of God's best gifts.

FRANCES RILEY DELONY

Live for today because yesterday you were born and tomorrow you may die.

ANN MILSTEAD DENSON

Though nothing can bring back the hour of glory in the flower; we still grieve not, rather find strength in what remains behind.

SENIORS

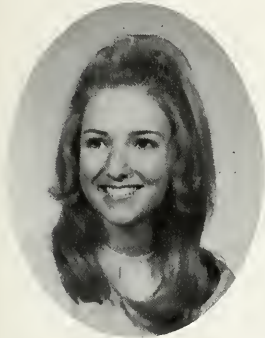

IDA THOMPSON DICKINSON
Perhaps someday it will be pleasant to remember these things.

JEAN HUSKE DODD
A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches . . .

VIRGINIA LYNN DIVELEY
A little consideration, a little thought for others makes all the difference.

SARAH LOUISE DORRIS
To be loved, be lovable.

ANN CANDACE FARRAR
Come, mothers and fathers throughout the land,
Don't criticize what you can't understand.
Your sons and daughters are beyond your command.
Your old road is rapidly aging.

MARGARET ANN DUNCAN
If you have built castles in the air
Your work need not be lost;
That is where they should be.
Now put the foundation under them.

MARGARET MCDANIEL FILLEBROWN
It is not the perfect, but the imperfect who have need of love.

MARY ELLEN FINKS
Open your heart and you'll discover you will see things you did not know.

SENIORS

AMY CARLTON FLANAGAN
Each mind has its own method.

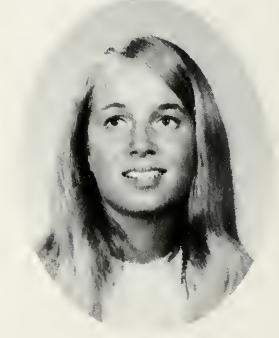

PAULA GAY GOODROE
I am two fools, I know,
For loving, and for saying so.

MARY COBLE FOLLIN
What sunshine is to flowers, smiles are to humanity. They are but trifles, to be sure; but, scattered along life's pathway, the good they do is inconceivable.

REBECCA ANN GRIFFITH
You'll find that life is still worthwhile, if you'll just smile.

JANE HARVEY GWINN
Happiness is walking barefoot in the grass.

MARY MCLEES GROVES
Liberty of thought is the life of the soul.

MARY CAMILLE HARLIN
If you shed tears when you miss the sun,
you also miss the stars.

LEE MURRAY HARRIS
Trust thyself; every heart vibrates to that iron string.

SENIORS

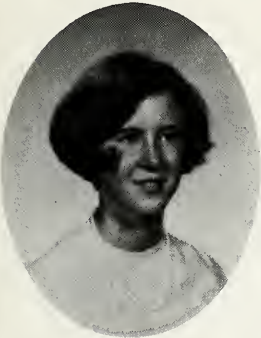

JULIA ANN HICKS
I listened motionless and still;
And, as I mounted up the hill
The music in my heart I bore,
Long after it was heard no more.

LUCIA ELIZABETH HOWARD
I look forward and see myself looking back.

BEVERLY ALLENE HOWARD
So little girl . . . make wishes or prayers, be careful, be careless, be what you want to be.

PATRICIA MCCOLLUM ISENHOUR
Good humor makes all things tolerable.

MARGARET CRENSHAW LAUDERDALE
We are no other than a moving row of Magic Shadow-shapes that come and go . . . with Lantern held . . . by the Master of the Show.

SUSAN COSSETTE KENNARD
If you want to get the plain truth,
Be not concerned with right and wrong.
The conflict between right and wrong
Is the sickness of the mind.

MARY LOUISE LINN
To see the world in a grain of sand,
And a heaven in a wild flower.

ELIZABETH CHESTER MCCARLEY
If I have freedom in my love
And in my soul am free . . .

Let us be of good cheer, remembering that the misfortunes hardest to bear are those

He only lives who, living, enjoys life.

happiness of another.

DEBORAH SUZANNE RODGERS

I did not hear the words you said, I only heard the love.

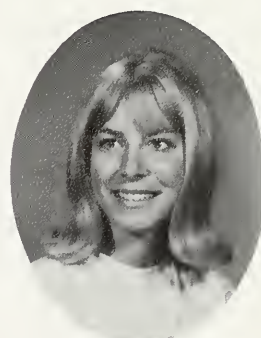

JUDITH DIANNE QUINN

. . . I took the one less traveled by and that has made all the difference.

MARTHA LEE SCHULL

The secret of happiness and prosperity in this world, as in the world to come, lies in thinking of the welfare of others first, and not taking one's self too seriously.

MARY MARJORIE SHAFFER

Love conquers all.

SENIORS

KATHERINE REEVES SHERIDAN
The heart that is soonest awake to the flowers
Is always the first to be touched by the thorns.

But it's nicer to lie in bed.

ELIZABETH VAN VOLKENBURGH
I've looked at life from both sides now,
From up and down, and still somehow,
It's life's illusions I recall:
I really don't know life at all.

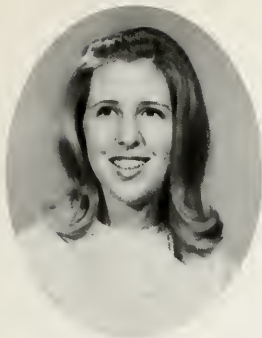

MARGARET ALLISON THOMPSON
No matter if you're born to play the king or pawn,
For the line is thinly drawn 'tween joy and sorrow.
So my fantasy becomes reality,
And I must be what I must be and face tomorrow.

ANN GAY WATSON
You are not likely to find the flowers of

That life will never end
And flowers never bend with the rainfall.

Great Spirit, help me never to judge another until I have walked in his moccasins for two weeks.

PAULA CLAY WHITSON
There's too much on my mind
I'm thinking all the time
It seems there's more to life than just to live it.

ELEANOR DOYNE WHITWORTH
Eat, drink and be merry, for tomorrow ye may die.

STUDENT COUNCIL

This year the Student Council performed its usual duties in planning the Tea Dance, the All-Club Picnic, and executing the Honor Code. But also, this year, the responsible group of student representatives was besieged with innumerable "suggestions." These suggestions ranged from requests for new pencil sharpeners to additions to the school's curriculum. The Student Council handled these very well, making changes where possible and appropriate. The Student Council has certainly played a changing role in its effort to represent an increasingly concerned student body.

What goes on behind the mysterious door at the top of the stairs is one of the biggest and most curiosity-provoking secrets in the school . . . would you believe one of the smallest? By looking through the keyhole you can see that the annual combines hobby with duty in its effort to produce a lasting and enjoyable yearbook.

Mrs. Ottarson, Mary Louise Linn.

HONOR SOCIETY

The Honor Society made its customary contribution to the school this year in arranging our weekly chapel programs. In addition to setting an example for upper school students, the Honor Society members carried a little of their idealism into the Middle School by speaking at their chapel programs.

PENSTAFF

One of the few special interest clubs at Harpeth Hall, Penstaff strives to stimulate an interest in creative writing, not only among the members themselves, but throughout the entire school. To achieve this goal, the club presents an annual fall assembly, this year featuring the "Penstaff Coffee House," as well as publishing Hallmarks, the school literary magazine. Because entry into Penstaff is competitive and based on talent in creative writing, the members are always enthusiastic about their projects and eager to share their original ideas with others.

Honors

KATIE WRAY AWARD

Mary Louise Linn

The Katie Wray Award is given to the girl who has maintained the highest four-year scholastic average. Everyone agrees that there could be no better person than Mary Louise Linn to receive this honor. But Mary Louise is more than the typical valedictorian. Her sincerity and concern for others have gained her many friends who are proud to see Mary Louise earn this award.

CITIZENSHIP BRACELET

Barbara Meacham

The Citizenship Bracelet is awarded annually to the girl who has achieved the highest number of citizenship points in her four years at Harpeth Hall. Barbara Meacham is truly deserving of this award, not only because of her excellent leadership but also because of her kindness and sincerity—all of which have made her contribution to Harpeth Hall very great.

Lee Lee Bright, Herald; Sue Sadler; Susan Shoulders; Lucia Howard; Grace Paine; Blair Scoville, Herald.

LADY OF THE HALL AND HER COURT

The Lady of the Hall and her Attendants are selected by their classmates as those girls who best represent the ideals of Harpeth Hall. Barbara Meacham was elected Lady of the Hall, and her Court was composed of Lucia Howard, Grace Paine, Sue Sadler, and Susan Shoulders. From the Middle School, Blair Scoville and Lee Lee Bright were Heralds. The fine qualities of these seven girls have won them respect and admiration at Harpeth Hall, and they will serve as excellent representatives of the school wherever they may be.

Left: Kathryn Sophronia Carpenter, Flower Girl; Barbara Meacham, Lady of the Hall; Patricia Hunter Eggleston, Flower Girl.

NATIONAL MERIT SCHOLARSHIP FINALISTS AND COMMENDEES

One of the very special honors given to a few girls in the Senior Class is that of National Merit Scholarship Finalist. The results of the examination taken last year were announced this fall, and we learned that two Seniors had placed among the top one percent of the nation's participants. The eight students who placed in the top two percent of those who took part in the program were honored as Commendees. These competent girls should be congratulated.

A. Thompson, L. Howard.

Sitting: Schull, Duncan, Campbell, Polly Craig. Standing: Peeler, Van Volkenburgh, Whitson, B. White.

George Washington

Under the direction of Miss Patty, and with the assistance of Mrs. Galgano, the freshman class presented its annual George Washington pageant to the school and its guests. Parkesey Casselbury and Florence Gifford as Martha and George were this year's distinguished honorees. The occasion was livened by the soldiers' drill, the sailors' hornpipe, and the minuet.

SOPHOMORE PLAY

The Sophomore Play, presented by Mrs. Williams' Sophomore Speech Class, is undoubtedly one of the most exciting events of graduation weekend. This year's presentation of Alice in Wonderland helped end the school year on a lively and amusing note.

SENIOR BANQUET

STEP SINGING

The Senior Banquet gave the Seniors one last chance to laugh and talk together with poems and toasts before leaving Harpeth Hall. A few days after the banquet the Senior Class handed over both the responsibilities and the privileges of being the leaders of the school to the Class of 1970 at the Step Singing ceremonies. Following this last obligation, the Class of 1969 had only to prepare for graduation the next day.

GRADUATION

Graduation. The cycle of change has brought us, still a little baffled at its swiftness, to that final point where childhood can no longer be our excuse. Tomorrow we must rise to face the new responsibilities of this change, leaving behind only a soft rose petal to mingle with the grasses that we wore down with our footsteps.

Miss Ewing

FAREWELL

All changes are not welcome. This year we are losing four of the teachers who have contributed much to the character of Harpeth Hall. Will we ever forget the good-humored discipline of Ro's study halls, gracious Mrs. Eggleston's stories of Ancient History, Miss Ewing's calm explanations of Euclid, or Mrs. Frazer's Caesar and inspiring side advice? We see them go with a sense of loss, but with gratitude for their contribution to the spirit of Harpeth Hall.
