PREPARATORY SCHOOL COMMENCEMENT

Two marshalls will enter doors of rostrum and when they get to the back center door, Mr. Henkel will "break into" Pomp and Circumstance, then you and Dr. McLain, Dr. Pugh and Mrs. Souby (you arrange them) enter by the south door of the rostrum.

When last girl is in, signal Mr. Henkel to stop playing.

Girls will remain standing until after Invocation. If, because of late comers, it seems advisable to delay the Invocation, signal the girls to be seated.

The Preparatory Glee Club will come to the stage and sing, then return to their places.

After the conferring of the diplomas, you invite the guests to Acklen Hall to greet the graduates immediately after the ceremony. Then comes your talk, and you introduce Mrs. Souby. When she is through, you ask the audience to rise for the benediction.
