

Harpeth Hall
Chamber
Choir
Sings!

The Harpeth Hall Upper School Chamber Choir is the premiere choral ensemble on the Harpeth Hall campus. Through a competitive audition process, 12 students are selected to perform in the Chamber Choir.

Repertoire includes:

- Classical
- Jazz
- Pop
- Modern Music

The Chamber Choir performs at on-campus events and in the community. In recent years, the Chamber Choir has performed at the Grand Ole Opry, at the Governor's Christmas Tree lighting ceremony, as part of the Festival of the Arts at Nashville's downtown library, at Cheekwood Botanical Gardens, at the Belle Meade Country Club, and at regional sporting events.

Alcant the Students:

These talented young women are scholars, athletes, community servants, dancers, actresses and musicians. They are also stellar singers who work hard to come together as an exceptional ensemble. After graduation many of these young women major in the performing arts at universities all over the country.

Alcant the Conductor:

The ensemble is conducted by Nancy Turner, Director of Choral Music at The Harpeth Hall School. Mrs. Turner received a bachelor's degree in Organ Performance and a double master's degree in Organ Performance and Choral Conducting from the University of Alabama, and studied for two years at the Conservatoire de Musique in Geneva, Switzerland. She has directed choirs in both England and America.

12 Voices One Sound

Harpeth Hall is an independent college preparatory school for young women where each student realizes her highest intellectual ability, becomes fluent in the sciences, the humanities, and the arts, and discovers her creative and athletic talents. Harpeth Hall develops responsible citizens who have global perspectives and make meaningful contributions to their communities and the world. With a tradition of excellence and a commitment to life-long learning, Harpeth Hall educates young women to think critically, to lead confidently, and to live honorably.
