September 9, 1958

The first fall meeting of the Angkor Club was held September 9th in the gym for the purpose of initiating the freshmen. After the freshmen had repeated the pledge, the president of the club, Anne Carter, introduced the officers and each spoke briefly on a given topic. Club spirit, attitude, participation in sports, scholarship, and outside projects were stressed. Anne then read the constitution and introduced the Angkor sponsor, Madame Fountain. She also announced that there were to be no books brought into club meeting. The remaining time was spent singing the Angkor song with which the meeting was adjourned.

The last meeting of the Angkor Club was held on September 30th. The meeting was called to order by the president. Betty Jane Guffee had each member of the club write down the name of the girl she considered the most outstanding. The girl who receives the most votes will be written up in the paper. Argie announced that all Athletic Association dues must be paid immediately. The roll was then called and the minutes read and approved. A sheet was passed around for the members to write down their names and addresses. Julia Fort announced that the Angkors were doing fine in hockey and took down the names of those girls who wish to participate in the ping-pong tournament. It was announced to the sophomores that their class would have a call meeting to sign up for annual pictures. Anne then talked about the qualities necessary for Best Angkor. The $1.00 dues are to be paid to Louise Fort by the next meeting. There will be a 5¢ fine for each additional day. The club was also told about the 75¢ assessment for the Thanksgiving Project. The freshmen were asked to present their skit to the club on October 28th in meeting. Betty Jane then emphasized the importance of being quieter in the halls and study rooms during lunch. She warned that the Student Council will have to become stricter in enforcing the rules. Mrs. Souby then introduced Mrs. Gardner who announced that student tickets for the Symphony Concerts may be obtained for $4.00. Mrs. Souby reminded the club that the Glee Club was scheduled to meet on the following Wednesday. She then announced the names of the Merit Scholarship semi-finalists. The club cheerleaders were elected. They are Pam Murrey, Margaret Norvell, Louise Gracey, Nancy Jones, Mary Becca Thompson, and Dee Evans. The alternates are Donna Ross, Mary Reith Parrish, and Karen Dettwiller. As there was no further time, the meeting was adjourned with the singing of the Angkor Song.
