Ward Belmont presents

MILESTONES of 1947

VOLUME XXIII
PUBLISHED BY THE STUDENTS OF
WARD-BELMONT SCHOOL
NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE

Presenting . . .

MILESTONES, our annual of 1947. Each page relives an unforgettable hour, day, month of an unforgettable year. It is not easy to highlight one year, one group of girls, one group of teachers on a campus that has witnessed three generations come and go; for the past so enriches the present. We have a word ever alive on our lips at Ward-Belmont that speaks intangibly. It is expressed through the stately white-columned Acklen Hall, the silent marble statues, the rust-worn chimes that hang in the tower, the grandeur of the minuet, the dropping of May Baskets, the beauty of May Day. It is not a new word, though it speaks today in all we do. The word is Tradition. If in these pages we have captured the richness and beauty of Ward-Belmont's noble heritage, we have in part fulfilled our purpose.

CAMPUS LIFE

To a Southern Gentleman . . .

Ward-Belmont as a whole has, during the past two years, been particularly aware of the helpful influence of one man, Dr. Robert Calhoun Provine: one whose quiet, unostentatious wisdom has had its effect on even the smallest of campus organizations; on members of the staff and faculty; and especially on those of the student body, each of whom will carry her own recollection of him through the years of the future.

He has endeared himself to every Ward-Belmont girl through the little things we will always remember about him: his detached way of telling jokes in chapel, the way he looks into space and plays with his car keys while he makes a decision, the fun he gets out of playing a tennis game or watching basketball, his special horse show hat whose brim is perpetually at the mercy of the wind, the informal parties in his home made even more memorable by his artistry at the piano, the way he tries to keep from laughing at pointed jokes in chapel, and more than anything else, his sympathetic understanding . . . the strength behind his leadership.

In years to come our appreciation of him will grow as we recall his medium of bringing out the intangible good in each of us: his abstractions which brought order out of chaotic minds, his belief in the inherent good latent in every individual. It is this good in us we dedicate to him.

In Remembrance

DR. JOSEPH E. BURK

Few of today's Ward-Belmont students knew Dr. Joseph E. Burk, who held the presidency of the school from 1939 through 1945. Even so, personal acquaintance was not necessary for an appreciation of him and his contributions to the Ward-Belmont ideal of living. His patient efforts to instill tolerance, industry, and loyalty in each of "his girls" were among the cornerstones in our present strivings toward these ideals. It is in this way that we remember Dr. Burk; it is for this reason that he will continue to exert a contributive influence on the Ward-Belmont of the future.

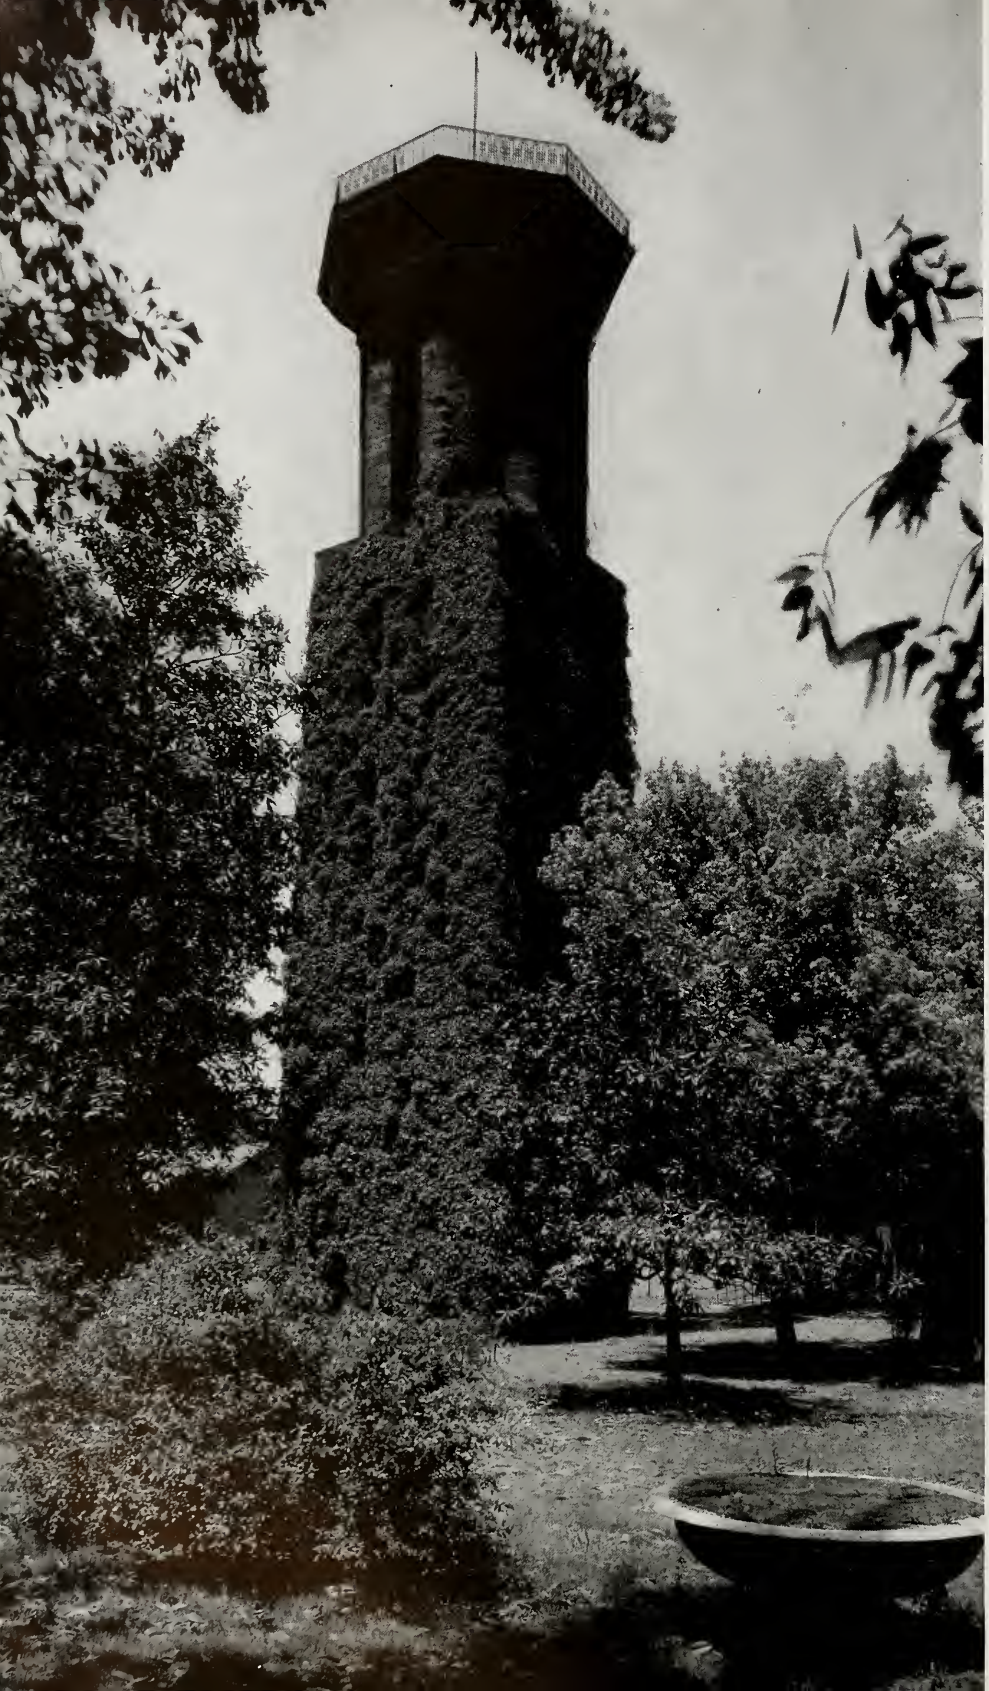

We Remember

MISS GERTRUDE CASEBIER

Miss Gertrude Casebier held the position of Dean of Students of Ward-Belmont from the fall of 1943 through the spring of 1946. All those girls who worked and played during their college days under her recall her willingness to aid them in all problems, personal or academic. It was with a sense of loss that they learned of her resignation from this post; her executive capabilities and personal magnetism had formed an integral part of their conception of Ward-Belmont. Miss Casebier's interest in the school was firm and lasting. This interest is one of those things about Miss Casebier that we appreciate and remember.

JOHN DIELL BLANTON
ACADEMIC BUILDING

DR. ROBERT CALHOUN PROVINE

President

As the central figure in W.-B. life, Dr. Provine has bent unswervingly toward the upbuilding of our school. He not only executes the duties of chief executive, but also takes a real part in all campus activities. Besides acting as "master of ceremonies" at the Christmas Servants Party, cheering at the hockey and basketball games, and attending all social activities on campus, he is continuously ready to offer advice or encouragement to any girl. His geniality and sympathetic understanding have made him a favorite campus figure.

MR. CHARLES P. HOGARTH

Dean of the College

Our efficient and kind adviser, Dean Hogarth, possesses outstanding ability in guiding diverse students in their courses of study. His personal concern for scholastic achievement is shown through his interest in Phi Theta Kappa and Hood and Gown.

MRS. SUSAN S. SOUBY

Principal of the Preparatory School

Mrs. Souby's second year at Ward-Belmont has proved to be as successful as her first. She has gained the respect and love of every student with whom she has come in contact. While fulfilling the department's position as an integral part of the school, she has shown much interest in campus life and affairs.

MR. ALAN IRWIN

Dean of Conservatory of Music

Understanding is the word describing Dean Irwin, plus a ready smile, keen wit, and excellent musical ability. His interest in music and his consciousness for the need of it has led to his direction of numerous activities directed toward the satisfying of this need.

MR. JOHN A. BITZER

Registrar

With interest and vitality Mr. Bitzer has efficiently executed the work of registrar. His organization of the Public Relations office has made possible the propagation of the news and views of W.-B.

MR. VERNON M. NELSON

Business Manager

In the capacity of Business Manager, Mr. Timothy G. Donavan was succeeded by Mr. Vernon M. Nelson, whose capability has enabled him to manage efficiently the intricate financial affairs of the school.

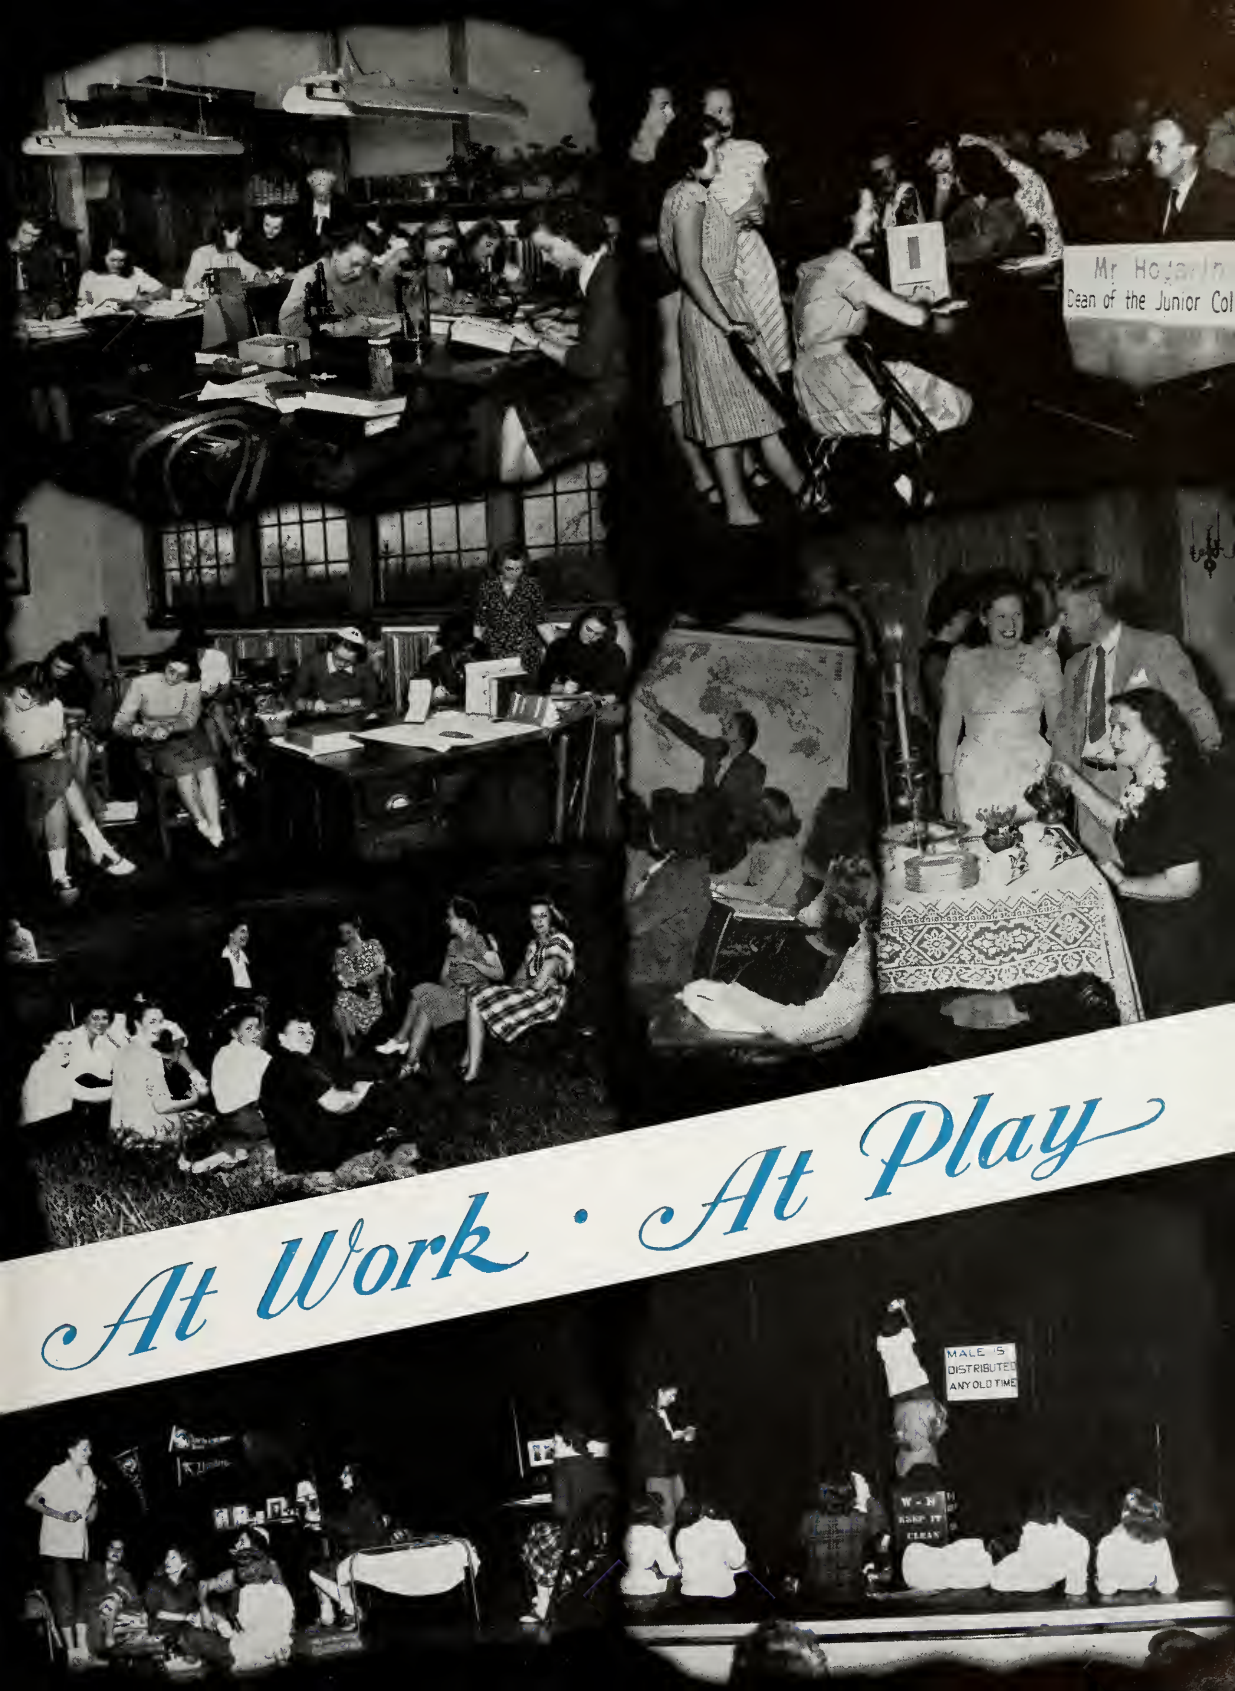

MISS MARTHA ORDWAY

Dean of Women

As the new Dean of Women this year, Miss Ordway has gained the respect of each girl through her understanding nature. She has shown an active interest in all campus affairs and has been particularly helpful in assisting the Student Council instigate Student Government.

MISS MARGARET NEWHALL

Farewell to the Seniors

who pledged their love to their old W.-B. and vowed to be ever true as they stood together on the steps that last memorable Sunday and looked deep into their hearts for echoes of the past — each with her own memories — memories of the first bewildering day on the newly found campus, the thrill of rush week, the solemn inspiration of formal initiation, the first night walking from the library wakening to the realization of belonging.

Farewell to the Seniors who walked through the quiet of Acklen Hall, hearing the swish of crinoline skirts and feeling the presence of former belles who left the tradition to them.

They see snow in club village and remember the cheery talk and hot coffee in the Open Hearth; the silver magnolia leaves in Acklen Hall, and the lighted Christmas trees; the midnight snacks and the typewriters in the night; the thrill of dressing in silks and lace to dance the minuet, dreaming of a pastel May-Day, and pressing the dying flowers of their bouquets.

Farewell to the Seniors who clasped hands as the lingering notes of the chimes faded into the "Bells of Ward-Belmont," knowing the love that they had attained would never fly as the leaves, but would live forever as the final refrain that floated over the campus.

Friendship

Lazybones

HERE'S TO THE MIDS who withstood the test of meeting hundreds of new girls in those trying days of Orientation, who were pushed here and there by seniors and filled full of a hundred do's and don'ts; who finally settled down to week ends on campus, excursions to the drug, trips to H. C., and nights in study hall.

HERE'S TO THE MIDS who listened to the caroling at Christmas time, who "had it" on Senior-Senior Middle Day, and made the school roar with laughter at their chapel program; who sent home for their best formals and danced around the pillars of the Corinthian Room, and with equal formality escorted their senior "dates" to the banquet. They watched the stately minuet and May Day with thoughts of the future in mind.

HERE'S TO THE MIDS who began to understand when they first heard the Senior Song, who could not grasp the whole meaning of step singing until they stood and heard their friends say good-by in song and a few tears, giving them the promise of a class of '48 — the promise of Ward-Belmont.

SENIOR PREP CLASS

Just posing

SALUTE TO THE SENIOR PREPS who amid paper streamers traversed to Percy Warner Park for a farewell-to-fall picnic and a lively opening of the class of 1947; who solemnly announced their aims in their formal chapel and strived to maintain them through the year.

They released their spirit on Junior-Senior Prep Day with victorious events. The "eager beavers" flocked into the dining room to ring out their songs of triumph. The time marched on with dances and campus fun, but with Spring, white dresses on May Day revealed that the days were growing short and the night of red roses and diplomas was fast approaching. There were tears and happiness smiling through their eyes.

We salute the Senior Preps of 1947, a class that will ever live.

CHOIR

The choir which furnished the reverent music for our Wednesday devotionals will be remembered for its Christmas and Spring programs. Not only did they give campus programs, but the group also made several tours during the year. Mr. Sydney Dalton directed this talented group, and Mr. F. Arthur Henkel was the accompanist.

WARD-BELMONT SINFONIETTA

Although the newly organized Ward-Belmont Sinfonietta presented its first program only this year, it obtained a rightful position as one of the outstanding musical groups on the campus. This all-girl ensemble, under the direction of Mr. Kenneth Rose, was heard with the choral group at the Christmas program and again at a concert given in the Spring.

CHAMBER MUSIC SOCIETY

For the past six years, the Chamber Music Society has given concerts of classical music. This group of advanced music students and gifted artists followed the tradition of Ward-Belmont this year by presenting its annual concert in the North Front Auditorium. Under the leadership of Mr. Kenneth Rose, Director of the Department of Violin at Ward-Belmont, the members of this organization have been given the opportunity of performing the great masterpieces in an appropriate setting.

First row—Patricia Sullivan, Mary McKinley, Judy Harris, June Rucker, Carol Butters, Attollee Boynton, Frances Richardson, Carolyn Mansfield, Virginia Berry, Ann Crockett Knox.

GLEE CLUB

For the second year the High School Glee Club, under the direction of Miss Marilyn Redinger, contributed to the success of the Christmas Program by its many varied and beautiful musical selections. The group also took part in the Musical Festival held for Nashville and surrounding cities.

OFFICERS

President . . . . . SUE SWINFORD
Secretary-Treasurer . . . . DONNA IRWIN

Martha Jo Furr, Jennie Parr, Molly Shanks, Nancy Broyles, Peggy Elliott, Ruth Marie Walls, Steve Ann Akin, Mary Elizabeth Hart, Nancy Pippin, Miss Redinger.

COLLEGE OCTET

Singing in the Thanksgiving and Christmas programs, accompanying the choir on its Spring trip, and directing the singing of grace in the dining room, were only a few of the many contributions by the College Octet to Ward-Belmont. This is a select group of singers chosen for their outstanding musical ability. They are directed by Miss Marilyn Redinger.

CAPTIVATORS

Monday or Thursday night . . . at these times Director Pat Rhine has called together her fellow swing and sweet artists in one of those long sessions which made Captivators this year one of the most popular and versatile musical organizations. By furnishing the music for several chapel programs, the Halloween banquet, the annual Valentine dinner, the Captivators made such a hit that they will be long remembered by every W.-B. girl who enjoyed both their hot and sweet varieties.

Leader: Pat Rhine.

Sponsor: Miss Ryder.

Vocalists: Peggy Elliott, Camille Hancock.

Members: Martha Jo Furr, Dot Frank, Judy Wheeler, Dorothy Hodgson, Audrey Dye, Marilyn Stark, Mintie Cantrell, Sara Horton, Joy Clay, Nancy Pippin, Virginia Satterfield, Mary Ann Burton, Pat Baker, Pat Tanton, Mary Frances Doolin.

Second row—Dot Hodgson, Dot Frank, Judy Wheeler.

Standing—Marilyn Stark, Audrey Dye, Mintie Cantrell, Sadie Horton, Joy Clay.

MUSIC CLUB

The Music Club is a new organization on the campus this year. It is composed of all conservatory students and serves as an organized group to further projects such as the selling of tickets for "The Mikado" and entertaining visiting performers. Congratulations to Dean Irwin and the music students for organizing an interestingly integrated club.

First row—Carolyn Moody, Nell Abberger, Kathy Barfield, Mary Jo Warren, Alice Black, Molly Shanks, Mary Ellen Captain, Mary McKinley, Vivian Boyson, Joan Powers.

PRESIDENT'S COUNCIL

The gala opening of the "Chatter Box"

BOARDING STUDENT COUNCIL

"Student Government" was a much heard word on the campus this year. With the new induction of the Merit System came a complete reorganization of the staff, work, and purpose of the Council, and this in turn brought about a more complete form of Student Government.

The Council tried to stress the "positive" rather than the "negative" this year by attempting to fulfill its purpose to the fullest degree — that of being the student's link with the administration — and it was successful in most of its attempts. Not only did this organization instigate the Saturday afternoon "Tea Dances" and Sunday afternoon "Open Houses," but it sponsored the night opening of the "Chatterbox."

Also, this year the Council worked hand in hand with all the various organizations on the campus, taking their problems before the Administration.

We may truly say that the Student Council accomplished a great deal for the students this year.

DOT HAILEY, President

Working with the Boarding Student Council this year, the Day Student Council has formed a connecting link between day students and boarders. This was particularly effective in the Orientation program staged last fall.

This organization has effectively discharged its duties this year and has helped much in striving for and maintaining school spirit.

THANKS TO THE Y. W. C. A.

BOBBY ALLEN, President

For those rip-roaring parties in the gym with cokes and doughnuts, jitterbugging and skits. "Night and day" they have added to the campus spirit with fun like the King and Queen of Hearts and a good feeling way down deep by having us give to drives like the W. S. S. F.

We aren't the only people who want to thank the "Y." Those at the Crippled Children's Home, the wonderful people at the Old Ladies' Home, the soldiers at Camp Campbell, and many others will be saying THANKS TO THE "Y" for a long time to come for the wonderful work they have done.

THANKS TO THE Y. W. C. A., who gave to you the memories of Sunday evening vespers that break the rush of W.-B. life for a few minutes to give a serene inspiration and realization of our many blessings. We thank you for those talks that have made our aims more clear and our happiness more sincere, and for showing us how to combine doing good and seeing the fun in life.

IT BRINGS BACK MEMORIES

To turn the pages of your college annual. You relive the brisk fall days, the feel of cold snow crashing against your face, and the glorious spring days when sports abound and days become too short.

There are those who made this possible, the ones who followed photographers to far corners of the campus, and ones who spent endless hours combining related thoughts.

A year of tea dances, club parties, and loads of campus fun along with the memorable ringing of the chimes, the sound of the organ at chapel, May Day, and streaming tears in June . . . these are the things they brought together in one small volume with hopes that in years to come there would be remaining a fond remembrance of those W.-B. days.

COME TUESDAY NIGHT

The publications office is a madhouse of inches, cokes, and funnies. The prevailing noises are jerking typewriters and hysterical giggles as the staff writes inches and pauses for a preview reading of "Mehitabel Says." Somehow through the bedlam Editor Newport knows exactly what is going on and guides the inches into our ever-beloved Hyphen.

Comes Tuesday night, the staff gets together and puts the Ward-Belmont week into words; the events, accomplishments, history, and the fun.

The Hyphen belongs to every girl on the campus, and every girl on the campus says—"Hats off to Hyphen!"

CHIMES MEETING

"Monday night; please be there!" And with this notice, the literary and art staffs of the campus magazine gathered in "the office" to read and re-read, make serious and humorous comments, reject and accept contributions, and bit by bit collect the writings which would become another issue of Chimes. They desperately and enthusiastically planned contests, gleefully enacted chapel programs, criticized back issues, and resolved to make the next "the BEST," and waited and watched anxiously for reactions to the completed product of their efforts.

But behind the laughing, smoking, and caustic comments of these literary geniuses lay the realization that they were, in their way, performing a service for Ward-Belmont and its students, both present and future. In the three annual issues of Chimes put out by the 1947 staff, they endeavored to preserve the awakening imagination, the youthful ideas which form an integral part of the life of every college student.

PHI THETA KAPPA

One of the most outstanding organizations on the campus is Phi Theta Kappa, an honorary scholastic society open to students in junior colleges. Initiations are held twice a year. Scholastic achievement and citizenship are the standards by which the students are chosen. This organization, which strives to promote scholarship, develop character, and cultivate fellowship, requires the maintenance of a B average from its members.

The Delta Xi chapter on the campus has, as an annual project, the compilation of "Who's Where," an address book of students, faculty, and staff. This year Judy Wheeler, the president, attended the Phi Theta Kappa Convention in Wichita Falls, Texas, as the Ward-Belmont delegate. This was the first year the school had been represented.

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The Athletic Association set out to promote their purpose of comradeship, good sportsmanship, and fair play by enhancing the love of sports on the campus. Comradeship grew with the fall bonfire and annual party; sportsmanship was highlighted by the active supervision of sports by their officers; and fair play was firmly established throughout the season by the leadership of Jane Harte, president, and by the guidance and understanding of Miss Catherine Morrison, sponsor.

Active members are those who make one varsity or who obtain three club letters. Members are taken in at the end of each sport season.

PENSTAFF CLUB

OFFICERS

President ..... ANN FREDERICK
Vice-President ..... ANN HAMILTON
Secretary-Treasurer ..... JANE ELLEN TYE

In order to promote interest in creative writing and to gain a deeper appreciation of literature, the Penstaff Club has been organized. The prospective members of this preparatory school club are chosen by the compositions they submit. Several highlights of the year are the Penstaff dinner in the Fall, at which the new members are selected, and a picnic held in the Spring.

ROUND TABLE CLUB

One of the most stimulating events of the month is the regular meeting of the Round Table Club. Thought-provoking speeches are made by the members of the panel, followed by interesting questions from the members of the club. This organization, in its third successful year, has done more than any other organization on the campus to interest the student body in civic and world affairs.

ART CLUB

OFFICERS

President ..... BETSY HORNER
Vice-President ..... GENEVIEVE WOLFE
Secretary ..... JOAN FERGUS
Treasurer ..... SUZANNE ZEEK
Sponsor ..... MISS MARY SHACKLEFORD

The art majors of Ward-Belmont have joined their interests in one of the most cultural clubs on the campus. Throughout the year this organization aspires to forward interest and understanding by bringing exhibits of paintings by well-known contemporary painters to Ward-Belmont as well as showing their own work in the spring.

GERMAN CLUB

First row—Mary Cooper, Marilyn Tilly, Thelma Back, Dr. Rochedieu, Patzie Simonsen.
Standing—Gloria Dandridge, Sadie Horton, Marjorie Quiring, Rosemary Wallace, Myra Maupin, Ruth Marie Walls, Diane Bellinger, Jean Ratliff.

The German Club is composed of second-year German students and has as its sponsor Dr. Rochedieu. This club meets to enlighten its members on everyday aspects of one of the world's most important languages. At the Christmas party, students read the Christmas story from a German Bible and sang carols in the German tongue. Through the e meetings students learned and came to understand more than ever before the customs, language, and traditions of old Germany.

SPANISH CLUB

Under the sponsorship of Mr. Thomas Donner and Dr. Mary Givens, the college Spanish Club has this year carried on its constructive activities with greater enthusiasm than ever. Its members have decidedly enjoyed the varied programs of Spanish music and lectures given by Spanish-American students enrolled here in Ward-Belmont, together with delicious dinners served at the different club houses. Founded for the advancement of interest in and knowledge of the Spanish language, peoples, and customs, this organization has fulfilled its aims and gives promise of continuing to do so.

Composed of those students of the Ward-Belmont Preparatory School who are interested in extra-curricular work on the Spanish language, the Spanish Club met once each month and enjoyed varied programs and skits. Their interesting meetings were often complemented by delicious picnics and dinners served in Spanish style and atmosphere. Among their projects for the year were the learning of Spanish songs and the propagation of interest in the club among the underclass members.

SPEECH

"Brief Music"

Christmas, '47

DEPARTMENT

The Speech Department brings to each student many pleasurable hours of artistic presentations, which make such seasons as Christmas and Easter more meaningful. The plays at these times are products of the two classes and are directed by Miss Catherine Winnia, head of the department, with Miss Sherry Hanbury as assistant. The Shakespearean creation at the close of the year is a final highlight of the year's work.

The Speech Club is an integral part of dramatics on the campus. In the fall they gave "Brief Music," a delightful play on college life. At monthly meetings many interesting speakers and programs were enjoyed.

SPORTS

ONE, TWO, THREE—STICKS

Ignoring the chilly afternoons and the pouring rain, the hockey enthusiasts played their games with friendly competition and keen skill. Club teams rose many mornings for extra practices, and after a brilliant showing by all the clubs Tri K and Osiron were left on the field to battle for the cup. Osiron at last broke the persistent playing of the Tri K Club and won the hockey cup for their club. The same afternoon the Angkors won the Day Club cup.

Bringing the hockey season to a close, the Seniors defeated the Senior-Mids, and the Senior Preps did equally as well by winning a victory over the Junior Preps. Class spirit and sportsmanship shone highly throughout the season.

balls were flying. Competition for the tennis singles cup began with the first fall class and continued with friendly rivalry throughout the season. With eager anticipation the clubs watched Penta Tau Nancy Moss and Tri K Marion Dopke "slice" and "slam" tennis balls for the championship title, which was finally taken by "Georgie" Moss.

Jean Ward, Angkor, overcame Cynthia Mizell, Ariston, in a beautifully played match, which brought to a close the prep tennis tournament.

With the arrival of Spring the courts became once more a lively place. Early mornings found sleepy-eyed partners adding up points for their game in the doubles tournament.

GUARD HER

"The score at the end of the game was . . ." The club songs and cheers stopped momentarily as another exciting basketball game ended. Skill and sportsmanship shone, with intense excitement gripping the spectators as the season of club competition came to a thrilling close.

In the tournament, the P. T.'s smashingly defeated the fighting D. V.'s to win the basketball trophy, taking away the cup which the Tri-K's had previously held for three years. The Triads came out on top in the day-student contest, but each club contributed to make this year a most exciting and superior year in basketball teamwork.

BOWLING

Bowling, an ever-popular sport on the campus, came to an official close when F. F. defeated Tri K, D. V., and Agora with the high score of 1,948.

Nettie Jean Blake had the highest individual score with such star bowlers as Patsie Hornbeck and Challie Thornton doing a fine job of backing up their teams. Each club team was comprised of four girls, who were chosen for their showmanship of ability and form.

This sport takes quite a favored spot on the campus. The alleys become a popular meeting-place on "free" nights throughout the year.

DANCING

The Dance Department of Ward-Belmont has on many occasions exhibited its powers of performance. It is quite an extensive department with Mrs. Jean Heddleston as dance director. Her grace and poise was reflected in her students in "Les Sylphides," presented for the Washington's Birthday celebration, and in the spectacular dances on May Day.

The three professionals — Barbara Bahr, Millicent Majure, and Margaret Ann Webster — originated and gave a most colorful major recital in March.

Relay races, form swimming, underwater plunge, and diving all resulted in favor of the A. K. Club, who gloriously won the swimming cup for the year. Second and third places went to Agora and P. T. Clubs. And to Barbara Nelson was proudly presented the gold medal for her outstanding ability in "the land of white tile and H_2O." Close competition was given by Joanne Sherman and Mary Lou Nelson.

The "Naiades," a newly instituted honorary swimming club, had its debut with their presentation of "Februaary Follies." Bright yellow suits flashed gaily as the thirty-three members performed the intricate water patterns in perfect rhythm to appropriate music.

GOLF

Active golfers on the W.-B. campus lived in a world of mashies and putters, "fore!" and "hole in one," practice periods and trips to Nashville courses for playing. Little by little they learned from experienced hands how to gauge their shots and perfect their aim until, at the time of graduation, they could hold their own with other country-wide enthusiasts of this old and honored sport.

ARCHERY

"Ping!" and the archery targets, which were at different times located in the bowling alleys, gym, and athletic fields, were struck again and again by such experts as Betty Steed, Mary Mull, and Betty Buckner.

Archery retained its ever-present popularity in enticing practically every girl to attempt to earn her club or W.-B. letter. The Del Vers Club was the final winner in the contest for the cup.

The graceful arc inscribed against the setting sun by flying arrows will long be remembered by each archer.

BASEBALL

The soft spring turf and the crack of ball on bat brought forth numerous enthusiasts from each club for the major spring sport. Encouraged by new teaching methods and a reorganization of club practices, such individual talents as those of Pat Tanton, Faith Chalmers, Beverly Berno, Sue Dell Brewer, and Alma Edmonds were in full evidence.

Emerging from the heated club games as the winners of the baseball cup, the P. T.'s showed, as did each team, an exceedingly good spirit of cooperation and interest.

TRACK

The excitement of a hundred-yard dash, the mastery of the shot put, the Grecian grace of a discus throw, the whiteness of the hurdle bars — all these things were part of the lives of those energetic athletes who came out for track. Stars such as Faith Chalmers, Jackie Wood, and Pat Tanton piled up points for their respective clubs in the final meets, the track trophy being won by P. T.'s.

Sponsored by the Turf and Tanbark Club, the fall riding show officially opened Ward-Belmont's riding season. Members of this honorary riding club capably managed the show. Acting as judges were Pat Tanton, Mary Jo Warren, and Carol Woodruff; serving as ringmaster was Virginia Englett; and as scorer, Kathy Lyter. At this show Dr. Provine awarded the riding cup to the P. T.'s, while the Agoras were equally as proud of their second place. Mary Jo Herrod won the title of high-point rider. A spectacular drill was presented by the second-year riding majors at this time, with Mrs. Newerf leading and carrying the T. and T. flag.

During the winter months enthusiasm for riding did not slacken. Classes on the theory of handling and caring for horses, early morning rides, a trip to the Chicago horse show, a week end at the Kentucky Derby, and a campus party given by the T. and T. retained interest for all.

The Spring Horse Show climaxed the season with jumping, gaited work, and exhibitions by advanced students. P. T. Club came out with the lead in points, and Mary Jo Herrod was recognized as champion rider.

TOPS

Hup, two, three, four is the marching cry of Tops, a seasoned organization on Ward-Belmont campus. Tops originated at the beginning of the school year of 1942 and was organized by the Physical Education Department.

This organization collects money for both national and local drives. Parading, raising the flag, and aiding of crippled children highlights their list of activities.

"Drum and Bugles" in the early morning added to the brilliance of the flag-raising ceremonies, and the thundering roll of the corps' drums provided a breath-taking background for the military drills on May Day, executed by the members and led by the drum majorettes — Lennie Lavigne, Jackie Wood, Mary Ann Burton, and Olive Thompson.

AGORA CLUB

Hats off to the Agoras, who have enjoyed a brilliant year under their charming president, Pat McGauly, and sponsor, Curly Neal. This vigorous club boasts many officers from the year '46 and '47, including Jackie Koon, Senior Class prexy, Martha Nel Blackburn, president of the High School Y. W. C. A., and Virginia Smith, who is vice-president of the same organization. Other campus leaders who carry the Agora lamp are Sheila Kennard, talented editor of Chimes, and Pat Wagoner, president of the Chemistry Club. Sheila, Pat, and Jackie were also members of Phi Theta Kappa.

Agora members will always remember nights in the club listening to Camille sing, that week end at Dunbar when the gang was all there, the day they won second place in the horse show, the "Carnival" dance with all the "cuts," and just sitting and listening to "Hoppy" play the piano.

It was a great year for the Agoras, and the Seniors can leave with the satisfying assurance that next year will be great, too. Hats off to a lamp that burns brightly!

A. K. CLUB

Under the serene queenliness of President Nell Smith, combined with the wit and leadership of Mrs. Shillinglaw, A. K. has soared among the top clubs on the campus this year. The whole campus thanked them for this year's fine "Holiday Inn" and envied them for the sparkling success of their Valentine Dance. The members remember the more intimate things about the club — that grand week end at Rawlings, Tessie's playing the piano and singing with her Spanish accent, Zeek and her corny jokes, Pippin with her Minnie Pearl act, and so many little things. They can boast, as well as remember, the day they won the swimming cup; the way Shearman and Nelson swam; the elections that made Sara Jane president of the Junior Class and Judy secretary of the Senior-Mid Class; Pippin's being chapel proctor and Hood and Gown; Nancy, Ruth Marie, Molly, and Pippin singing their way into the college octet; Sue's priceless Mademoiselle columns, and Bum's being vice-president of the Y. W. C. A.

It's been a great year for A. K. Theyr'e proud . . . they have a right to be.

ANGKOR CLUB

The Angkor Club, with its charming president, Julia Edwards, and enviable sponsor, Mrs. Camilla Newerf, have had a most successful year. Among other things, they have added three new cups to their mantel – hockey, tennis, and scholarship. Here are three sure signs of their versatility and teamwork.

Among the outstanding campus figures in Angkor were Beta Club members, Attollee Boynton, Julia Edwards, and Jean Ward; Dot Hailey, president of the Day Student Council; Myrtle Ann Meirs, treasurer of the Freshman Class; Rachel Gardner, president of the Freshman Class; and Dickie Wharton, president of the Round Table Club. The outstanding athletes who did so much to bring home the silver cups were Jean Ward, Julia Edwards, Lillian Dobson, and Barbara Berrien.

Talent, scholarship, and good sportsmanship go to make up the spirit of Angkor . . . a spirit of which they may be proud.

ANTI-PANDORA CLUB

The tantalizing smile of Anti-Pan's president, Jane Erwin, led her fellow club members through a year of happiness and success. It has been a year of dances, teas, parties for their sister club, the D. V.'s, and wonderful week ends. They have been guided along the straight and narrow path by their sponsor, Miss Maribel Benton.

This active club is "chucked full" of talent and spirit. The brains behind the throne are the president of Phi Theta Kappa, Judy Wheeler, and Bev Moore and Peggy Farrar, who are members of Hood and Gown. Libby Rensford, vice-president of the College Council, and Albertine Sutherland, president of the High School Council, make rules the news. Along the athletic line, Virginia "Snappy" Englett, a star rider, and Dot Frank brought their club to the height of success in sports. Joyce Armitage, associate editor of Hyphen, and Jane Erwin were the club's journalists. It is only fair to mention the talent of Carol Buttors, the Majures (Mike and Millicent), and Mamie Meriwether.

ARISTON CLUB

The Aristons began to make enthusiastic plans when Cynthia "T" Mizell and Mrs. Ruth Mann were chosen for their president and sponsor; for with such grand leadership a club is certain to be versatile and ever-progressing.

Among their members were Margaret Hays, president of the Sophomore Class; Jacqueline Anderson, vice-president of the Freshman Class; Ann Richardson, vice-president of the Beta Club; Donna Irvin, secretary and treasurer of the Glee Club; Louise Baird, secretary of the Sophomore Class; Jean Horner, secretary of the Beta Club; Martha Evers, secretary of the Sophomore Class; and Annabel Gayden, secretary of the Round Table Club.

Thanks to such members as Jean Horner, Ann Richardson, Eveline Gregory, and "T" Mizell, they proudly claimed the scholarship trophy. And due to the all-club interest in sports, the club ranked second highest in athletic points at the end of the fall season.

DEL VERS CLUB

Petite Audrey Horst, president of D. V., and their popular sponsor, Miss Barbara McCain, gave their fellow members fun-loving memories which they will never forget.

This club, which sits high on a knoll, was well represented in all school activities. Brains, beauties, athletes, talent of all kinds, was molded into one, making the D. V.'s a popular club. Among the intellectuals were Pat Rhine, June Michelson, Bobbye West, Betty Neil Shepperd, and "Trish" Simonsen, who were in Phi Theta Kappa. Pat Rhine, second in rank, was also president of the French Club. Pat Tanton and Alma Edmonds, acting president and honorary president of Turf and Tanbark, highlighted the sport participation in the club.

The Del Vers can be summed up as a swell bunch of girls with success as their main goal.

ECCOWASIN CLUB

Congratulations to the Eccowasin Club for contributing so highly to the activities on the campus! Their president, Judy Merrick and their sponsor, Miss Saunders, spurred this impressive group of girls on to more unified efforts. Every high school organization was fortunate in having several Eccowasin members. In the Beta Club were Mary Ann Sugg, president; Joanne Geny, Irene Potter, Martha Ann Gambill, and Elizabeth Nixon. Of the Penstaff Club were Ann Hamilton, vice-president; Jeanine Autret, Joanne Geny, Judy Merrick, and Thaniel Armistead. Lucy Anne Graves and Mary Catherine Woolwine, as high school representatives, were on the Day Student Council. And as class officers were Thaniel Armistead, treasurer of the Junior Class; Elizabeth Nixon, secretary of the Senior Class; and Sarah Camille Farris, treasurer of the Senior Class.

Those members excelling in sports were Mary Catherine Woolwine, Lucy Anne Graves, Joanne Geny, Mary Ann Sugg, and Elizabeth Nixon.

F. F. CLUB

The F. F.'s were almost as proud of their bowling cup as they were of their club and the girls who made it up during the year 1946 and 1947.

Beginning with their formal "Harvest Dance," they thereby obtained fun and cooperation early in their '46 campus career. Continuing to check off the weeks, the club added to its other activities of work and play with a weekend at Dunbar, several trips to Melrose, generous Christmas contributions, a Valentine party for the A. K. Club, a club shower, and a party for their sister club, P. T.

With such harmonious relations as existed between "Johnnie" Johnston, president, and Mrs. Tom Forde, sponsor, the club won a leading position in club village. Intellectual representatives of F. F. in Phi Theta Kappa were Mary Lou Martin, vice-president; Barbara Hanson, treasurer; Lena Mistretta, and Louise Boone. The club was also proud to boast of Mary Lou Martin as vice-president of the Home Economics Club and as president of Hail Hall; of Louise Boone on the Student Council; of Mary Jane Hooper, literary editor of the Hyphen; and of Joanne Powers as secretary of Spanish Club. Excelling in athletics were Martha Durham, Shirley Worthington, Jean Guttman, Nettie Jean Blake, Jan Teich, Ann Moursand, Anne Carpenter, Jane Gladden, and "Johnnie" Johnston.

OSIRON CLUB

If it's variety you want, the Osirons have it. Peppy Betty Joe Crews and understanding Polly Fessey made a name for the Osirons this year.

They had an assortment of outstanding gals. Jackie Wood, president of Student Council, and Jane Harte, president of the Athletic Association, held two of the highest offices on campus. Jackie Mebius was their "brain child." As for athletics, the whole club showed excellent team work. (Ask those who played against them in hockey.) The Osirons are well represented in all school activities, especially in the various musical clubs, such as the octet and choir with Peggy Elliott and Jennie Parr excelling. It is evident that the Osirons really believe in their club song, "On, Osirons! On, Osirons!"

PENTA TAU CLUB

"Hail, P. T., hail!" And so it is hail to the Penta Taus, winners of the fall riding cup, the tennis singles tournament, and the basketball cup. Led by their versatile president, Harriette Ashley, and their energetic sponsor, Mrs. Harber, the P. T.'s sent such athletes as Nancy Moss, Betty Rhea, Mary Frances Bivins, Peggy Pittman, Harriette Ashley, and Betty Campbell into the fields and courts to "fight for the rose and gray."

Outstanding in other ways than athletics, the P. T.'s were proud of the campus officers they could claim: "Bobbie" Allen, president of the "Y"; Peggy Johnson, president of the Home Economics Club; Barbara Phillips, president of the Choir; Frances Harris, president of the Spanish Club; Peggy Blowers, president of Founders and vice-president of the Spanish Club; Billie Vaughn, president of North Front; Betsy Horner, president of the Art Club; Mary Ann Jones, president of the Speech Club; Sophie Gounos, treasurer of the Senior-Middle Class; and Beverly Stevens, treasurer of the Y. W. C. A. Penta Taus who maintained the standards of scholarship were Betsy Horner, Harriette Ashley, Ann Greenlee, Mary Jo Harrod, Barbara Needs, Myra Maupin, and Nancy Moss, all members of Phi Theta Kappa. The publications staffs claimed P. T.'s Barbara Needs, Bess Benson, Nancy Moss, and Shirley Nichols.

A well-rounded club, with an unusually good spirit of cooperation, P. T. stands as one of the most unified, challenging clubs on the campus.

T. C. CLUB

The Twentieth Century Club, under the direction of gracious Ann Brumley for the first semester and charming Eileen Springstun for the second, assisted by Miss Newhall's ability, highlighted their year with such extra-curricular activities as their Christmas dance, a dance and week end at Rawlings, and the Comic Valentine Party given for their sister club, Osiron.

The T. C.'s turned out to cheer on such athletes as Juliet Ward, Ann Bell, Jane Hughes, and Margaret Frogge. They entered into campus activities with enthusiasm. T. C.'s on publications staffs included Eileen Springstun, exchange editor of Chimes; Marion Frederick, review editor of Chimes; Janice Lebenstein and Betsy Holton, Hyphen staff members. They were proud to claim Juan Stroube, sergeant at arms of the Senior-Mid Class, and honor students Eileen Springstun, Ruth McCoy, and Ann Bell.

The T. C.'s of '48 can look forward to a richer year because of the ideals given them by their sisters of '47.

TRIAD CLUB

With the leadership of vivacious "Maggie" Blair and competent Mrs. Hall, the Triad Club has enjoyed a memorable and successful year.

Included in the Triad roll are such outstanding day student officers as Ann Frederick, secretary of the Athletic Association and vice-president of the Senior Class, and Polly Nelson, day student proctor. The writing abilities of Carol Woolwine and Ann Frederick won them membership in Penstaff, the literary club; while Polly Nelson, member of the Beta Club, upheld the scholastic standards. Such athletes as Edna Gene Little and Betty Marshall were urged on by the eager cheers of their club sisters. They reached their athletic peak by winning the basketball and bowling cups.

Working and playing together, the Triads have, during 1946-1947, continued to be one of the most active and cooperative of the day student clubs.

TRI K CLUB

"Yea, black! yeah, white!" yelled the Tri K's as they supported their teams on the hockey field and basketball courts. Led by "T" Back with the beautiful eyes and ever-loyal Miss Morrison, this club shone with spirit and comradeship.

Challie Thornton, Jean Ratliff, and Charleen Pritchard received their white candles as Phi Theta Kappas, while Jane Faulk took the honored position of Senior-Mid president; Marion Tilley, the president of Prep Council; Kay VanNortwick, editor of MILESTONES; Jean Gill, treasurer of the Senior Class; Challie Thornton, second semester chapel proctor.

As always, Tri K was a leader in sports with Marilyn Flynn, Marion Dopke, Bunte Hart, and Dot Evans battling for the top.

Life at Tri K never stood a dull moment . . . dances, parties, and week-end jaunts; but the Christmas faculty breakfast, the formal Christmas dinner, and the spring rest at Montgomery Bell were milestones in their year.

X. L. CLUB

"That good ole X. L. pep and go" came forth in its full glory this year with "Ensemble" L. L. Jones as president and "fun-loving" Miss Chambers as sponsor.

The "pep" was best displayed by the X. L. sports' enthusiasts: Faith Chalmers, Betty Steed, Jean Jones, and Helen McGuire. The "go" was represented by those who went after the grades, such as Phi Theta Kappa's Marilyn Parnell, Ann Wilson, Betty Witt, and Hood and Gown member, Gayle Jennings.

But "brains and brawn" were not all the X. L.'s had. They could boast of campus officers, like the Senior Prep president, Janie Branson; the editor of Hyphen, Frances Newport; and the associate editor of MILESTONES, Carolyn Henderson.

Among the X. L.'s memories of the past year was their trip to Dunbar Cave with the Anti-Pans, their jaunt to Melrose, the "sister club" party they gave for the Tri K's, and that wonderful dance that climaxed it all.

CAMPUS LIFE

WELCOME TO WARD-BELMONT

It was a warm, rainy day in early September. Amidst the confusion of trains, planes, trunks, and happy greetings, forty-five seasoned W.-B. girls put on their best personalities to make the new girls feel at home and to help them through those first bewildering hours.

Under the leadership of Jackie Wood, president of College Student Council, the orientation program got under way with Libby Rensford, Judy Wheeler, Kay VanNortwick, Jackie Koon, Marian Tilley, and Martha Wilson heading the various subcommittees.

For ten days this group lectured, led tours, comforted homesick hearts, and endeavored to make the new girls a part of Ward-Belmont.

With the return of the old girls, orientation was officially closed, but the spirit that they engendered lasted throughout the year.

FAG DAY

The last Saturday night in September found a tired but happy student body in the midst of formal initiation. From early Friday morning until sunset the pledges were in the throes of Fag Day.

Odd forms began creeping around the campus at dawn — pandas, zebras, babies, Greek slaves, clowns, pirates, and grandfather clocks. The rising bell began to toll and voices were heard praising and lamenting their fate. The cherished Middle Walk became a channel of leaping frogs, crying babies, and egg pushers.

Breakfast revealed hungry birdlike mouths peering from under the table while big sisters gayly ate and fed at their discretion.

In the late afternoon the weary fags stumbled down to the clubhouses and performed the final medial tasks of Fag Day.

SENIOR WEEK

September 30, 1946, the Senior Class of 1947 was formally accepted by Dr. Provine as a unified class. The seniors solemnly marched into chapel and quietly listened to their president, Jackie Koon, announce the goals of the coming year — realization of opportunities, honor, loyalty, dependability, and cooperation.

The Monday chapel was only one memorable event in the traditional Senior Week. Sunday the Senior Class received the Senior-Middle Class with a coffee in Acklen Hall. Tuesday the Seniors climbed aboard buses and journeyed to Percy Warner Park for a delightful picnic of fried chicken, brownies, cokes, and silly chit-chat before a roaring fire. The devotional service for Wednesday was presided over by Jackie Koon with Judy Wheeler as speaker. The week's festivities came to a close Thursday when the class honored the faculty with a tea in club village.

CAMPUS CAPERS

Life on a college campus is quite the gay one, especially at W.-B. Not one week passes without an exciting party, dance, or program on foot for the belles.

Looking back on the year 1947, we recall with pleasure such happy times as the Saturday night club and gym parties, the athletic field picnics, the annual servants' party, and last, but not least, the club dances and sparkling class balls in Acklen and the Corinthian Room.

May you also be loyal . . . Think of the pounds . . . Swing your partner . . . A night of thanks . . . Queen of hearts . . . Castle Heights special . . . Missouri Mardi Gras . . . Your day will come . . . Let's have some boogie.

KING AND QUEEN OF HEARTS

Alma Edmonds and Bet McWilliams were secretly selected by the members of the Y. W. C. A. Cabinet to be presented at the annual Valentine Banquet in the dining room. The memorable reception given them by the assembled student body, faculty, and guests was in keeping with the festive mood of the evening, which was complemented by the musical program of the College Octet.

WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY

February 22 — a great occasion for the Seniors who had practiced long hours perfecting the steps of the eighteenth century minuet, for Ward-Belmont girls and their guests gathered to watch them in their colonial costumes and grandeur, and for the faculty and staff who remembered many similar occasions. In Acklen Hall, before the eyes of the spectators, the Senior couples and pages preceded George and Martha Washington down the historic hanging staircase. Chosen by the student body to portray these coveted roles, courtly Pat Tanton and charming Audrey Horst were followed by murmurs of approval as they made their way into the dining room for the traditional formal banquet.

In the concluding part of the evening, students of the Dance Department presented a ballet, and the Seniors once again danced the beautiful and impressive minuet.

JUNIOR-SENIOR PREP DAY

The preps came out in full festival array for a sparkling Junior-Senior Prep day April 18. It was a field day W.-B. will long remember, complete with parade, cheers, and competition in archery and baseball. The preps put their famous spirit on review and showed everyone just what they could do.

Under the big top

JUNIOR-SENIOR PREP DAY

It all began with a parade such as you have never seen before. The Senior Preps came around the circle as a circus that out-circused the real thing. They had a bandwagon, clowns, freaks, and all the trimmings. Not to be outdone, the Juniors followed up with characters from storybook land. Little Black Sambo, Raggedy Ann and Andy, Robin Hood, Mickey Mouse, and all the others came to life in bright, disguising costumes. There were heads popping out of every window in Academic to see what was going on.

From under the big top, the Senior Preps watched their baseball team score on to victory. At the archery tournament, the Senior Preps hit the circle that counts just a few times more than the Juniors. Everyone went wild cheering on their closely-matched, square-shooting teams.

Hooray for the Preps! It was a grand day all around.

SENIOR-SENIOR-MID DAY

April 20, Senior-Senior-Mid Day, found the Middie department store executives in an endeavor to outsell the upperclassmen of the "Lucky Senior Hit Parade." With their slogans, "Middies have it!" and "Lucky Seniors Means Fine Team," the two rival camps vied with each other for advantageous campus locales on which to display their decorations, concocted in dormitory halls for days before.

The "Mid Mardi Gras" contained such bargains as worn-out Senior jackets from the Founders first floor outfitting shop, latest hit records from the Fidelity music shop, and Mid hats from the de luxe skyline shop. The Seniors' trip around the circle featured vivid pictures of tunes of the day — "Girl of My Dreams," "Smoke Gets in Your Eyes," "Mademoiselle." Appropriately costumed Seniors made up their Hit Parade of nine top songs and several extras.

The athletic contests of the day included baseball, archery, and track. Here the spirit showed up to a greater extent than at any previous time, the Seniors winning all three events. The lucky Seniors had before won the tennis tournament.

The traditional picnic in Club Village was held at one o'clock, at which time the "Senior Song," number one on their Hit Parade, was announced. Following the lunch, Dr. Provine read off the totals in points for all three Senior-Senior-Mid Days. The Senior Class of 1947 had once again earned the cup — a triumph which they will never forget.

MAY

Music echoed across the green campus and bright colors dotted the lawn as the Seniors stood under the massive oak trees — a quilt of pastels and white with pink ribbons floating from the gay spring bouquets.

The Queen, Thelma Back, followed the procession of the dancers and her court of College and Prep Seniors with the preparatory school attendants, Mary Lindsey and Jean Ward, college attendants, Nell Smith and Beverly Stevens, and Honor Maid, Barbara Allen. The large crowd of spectators enthusiastically applauded them as they stepped from the horse-drawn, flower-bedecked carriages to take their places on the dais. Not until the bright May pole colors were woven into one did the unforgettable festival end.

STEP SINGING

Excitement lingers in each Ward-Belmont girl's heart, both Seniors and Mids, as she aligns herself with her classmates to march around the circle to the Ward-Belmont Hymn, played by the tower carillon. As she sings the songs of her class and listens to those of the others, she glances out over the faces of parents and friends gathered from over Nashville and the country and realizes, perhaps really for the first time, that this event is the end of something in her life. As she hears the Seniors sing their song for the last time, and hears the bells played in the W.-B. tower, she knows that, in her memories, "the glorious spirit of old '47 will linger forevermore."

GRADUATION

An end and a beginning, graduation, the ultimate and desired from the start of each Senior's Ward-Belmont career, becomes the summing up of her first years spent in college. Her diploma, the only visible gains of her work and advancement, is but a small part of the knowledge and experience she has acquired. The remainder, though not visible to those gathered for the ceremony, consists of a newer outlook on life, an increase in understanding and capability, all of which makes her worthy of being a Ward-Belmont graduate. It is this that goes through her mind as she, with her classmates, passes out of chapel for the last time to the strains of "The Bells."

PUT YOURSELF "IN THE PINK!"

To put yourself "in the pink," drink a bite to eat between meals at 10, 2 and 4 o'clock . . . the hours when your energy lags and you need a quick, reviving lift. Rich, heavy, solid food between meals may make you sleepy and dull, but lively, icy-cold, nippy-tart Dr. Pepper relieves hunger, thirst and fatigue and sends your spirits bounding upward. The Dr. Pepper flavor is unique . . . a taste thrill not borrowed from any single source . . . not a copy of any other drink . . . a zestful blend of many good things in one. Enjoy Dr. Pepper daily . . . make it your steady standby, three times a day. Still 5¢.
