

ter Jamison (Mrs. W. C.), '20, Sullivan, Indiana; Polly Jordan, daughter of Mary Lipscomb Jordan (Mrs. H. R.), '24 and sister of Sally Jordan, '52, Nashville; Katherine Lowe, daughter of Katherine Estes Rice Lowe (Mrs. H. G.), Nashville; Kathryn Macey, daughter of Margaret Witherspoon Tupper (Mrs. James), '28, Brentwood, Tennessee; Susan Joy Moore, daughter of Ruth Joy Moore (Mrs. B. P.), '24, Nashville; Mary Ready Parrent, daughter of Mary W. Williamson Parrent (Mrs. H. C.), '31, Nashville; Betty Pirtle, daughter of Elizabeth Hutchison Pirtle (Mrs. R. H.), '32, Nashville; Tina Provine, sister of Harriet Provine, '51, Nashville; Betsy Riddle, daughter of Rebecca Boyer Riddle (Mrs. J. T.), '29, Nashville; Jean Schmausser, sister of Mary Lou Schmausser, '47, Denver, Colorado; Amelia Spickard, granddaughter of Amelia Dudley Creighton, (Mrs. W. F., Sr.), Ward, '03, and daughter of Elizabeth Creighton Spickard (Mrs. Anderson), '25, Nashville; Grace Ward, granddaughter of Irene Watkins Moulton (Mrs. W. H.), Nashville; and Mary Sue Yeiser, daughter of Mary Esther Young Yeiser (Mrs. Joel), '25, Olive Hill, Tennessee.

(Continued from page 5)

Belmont graduate of 1939. Alice Mary has a B.S. degree from Marquette University and taught in the physical education department of Ward-Belmont from 1941 to 1944.

Another Ward-Belmont graduate, Louise Lasseter LeQuire (Mrs. Virgil), '43, is teaching art in the college. Both her B.A. and M.A. degrees are from Peabody College.

Miss Lily Dale, who received a B.S. degree at Peabody College, an M.A. at the Teachers' College of Columbia University, and did graduate work at the University of California, is chairman of the home economics department. Also in that department is Mrs. Kathleen Warnock.

Teaching mathematics in the college department is Mrs. E. Baylis Shanks.

The new teachers in the preparatory school are Miss Mary Jane Chappell and Mrs. O. C. Peery.

Two teachers, Mrs. E. G. Rasmussen and

Mrs. Sam Turner, have returned from leaves of absence.

Twila Comer Stars on Radio Show

Twila Comer, '45, was named star soloist on a new radio show called Hospitality House originating from station WRNL in Richmond, Virginia. The show, which is broadcast four nights a week, is sent over a special twenty-eight station network in the South. Besides the Richmond show, Twila is on a CBS television show with Barry Wood in New York and is kept busy commuting back and forth between the two cities.

Upon completion of her work at Ward-Belmont, Twila attended Sarah Lawrence College and received a B.A. degree in 1947. For three months she was with Mary Martin in the musical show, "Annie Get Your Gun." Later Twila played the part of Barbara Croft in the radio serial "Jimmie Allen," and that of Ann Baxter in "Roger Gale." She was also "Dari Ann, the Daricraft Girl," which was transcribed over seventy-five radio stations.

Simplicity Magazine Features Alumna

An article in the current issue of Simplicity magazine features Lenice Ingram Bacon (Mrs. Frederick S.), who attended Belmont College from 1911 to 1913. Mrs. Bacon, a resident of Newton, Massachusetts, is widely known throughout New England and the South as an authoress and lecturer on negro folk lore and patchwork quilts.

Mrs. Bacon's hobby of collecting patchwork quilts started some years ago when a relative presented her with two family heirlooms. Since then, Mrs. Bacon has done a great deal of research into the background of quilts and has become an authority on the subject.

Five years ago Mrs. Bacon returned to Ward-Belmont to lecture on negro folk lore. The Lenice Ingram Bacon Speech Award, which is presented at the All Club Banquet to the student excelling in speech work, was established at that time.

CAMPUS CAPERS

1949-1950

Servants Entertain at Christmas Party

CHRISTMAS AT WARD-BELMONT

The Yuletide season opened at Ward-Belmont with an all-club banquet Wednesday, December 7. Members of the ten social clubs were seated at festive tables in the dining room where they enjoyed such holiday fare as turkey and plum pudding. After dinner each club had its own party complete with Santa Claus and a Christmas tree.

On Sunday, December 11, members of the Tri K club entertained the faculty with a breakfast. That afternoon the senior-mids received guests in Acklen Hall at the annual senior-mid coffee. Several senior-mids took part in the traditional singing of carols on the steps in the main parlor. Shortly afterwards, the faculty strolled down to Club Village for tea with the Anti-Pans.

The annual vesper service, sponsored by the speech department, took place in the auditorium Sunday evening. The play, which was taken from the Nativity and Adoration Cycle of the Chester and Coventry Mysteries, was under the direction of Miss Catharine Winnia and Miss Carrolyn Kelton. The choir, led by Mrs. Joseph Van Sickle, furnished the music.

A new event on the busy December calendar was the YWCA tree lighting service on the porch of North Front Monday evening, December 12. The program consisted of a reading about the first Christmas tree, the lighting of a large tree at the north entrance of the campus, and the singing of carols. Afterwards, everyone was invited to the annual Holiday Inn party in the AK club house.

Another candlelight vesper service, given by members of the YWCA in the main parlor of Acklen Hall Tuesday evening, consisted of special music and group singing.

The Ward-Belmont Conservatory of Music presented a program of Christmas music in the auditorium the following evening. Those taking part included the college choir and the high school glee club. The Reverend John L. Ferguson of the Belmont Methodist Church, Mr. F. Arthur Henkel, and Miss Frances Van Deren also participated in the program.