Classic At Two Rivers

Two Rivers Park, probably the most difficult running course in the state, will be the site of this year's first annual Tennessee Cross Country Classic.

Defending state champion Harpeth Hall, winner of last week's Bridges run, is a heavy pick to take the girls' crown again this Saturday. Hillsboro and Father Ryan will be the main challengers.

THE HONEYBEARS

had five runners in the top 10 last week including Sloan Burton, Jeanie Bass, Kathy McPherson, Katie Groos, Kristen Glasgow. Hillsboro is led by Elizabeth Jenkins and Ryan by Lisa Sharp.

Harpeth Hall Cops Regional Cross Country

Harpeth Hall won another TSSAA Regional cross country championship yesterday, rolling to the girls title with just 29 Points at the Percy Warner Park Steeplechase.

The Honeybears had two of the first three individual places as Sloan Burton finished second, just ahead of Jeanie Bass. Harpeth Hall also had Katie Groos and Kathy McPherson sixth and seventh, respectively.

TULLAHOMA'S Phyllis Hines won individual honors with a time of 8:06 in the mile and one-half run. Her team finished third with 76 points, just behind Hillsboro (60) which was led by fourth-place finisher Elizabeth Jenkins.

Brentwood's Van Wadlington and Clarksville Northwest swept the boys' honors. Wadlington took the individual award with a winning time of 14:55 for three miles.

Northwest finished first in the team race with 54 points. Murfreesboro Oakland and Lipscomb tied for second with 86 apiece.

BGA'S MARK Webb was runnerup to Wadlington, followed by Lipscomb sophomore Jack Burton, Carey Waldrip of Manchester, and Sander Williams of Northwest.

The top three teams and top three finishers on non-qualifying teams earned spots in next week's TSSAA state meet at Percy. Father Ryan's Tari Stejskal and Vicki Kohl and McGavock's Vicki Wells were among the in-

News-Sentinel Sports Writer

The Atlanta Falcons are earning a reputation and shedding another . . . and Leeman Bennett likes that.

Around the National Football League the Falcon defense is being called "The Peachtree Possee," the "Dixie Defense" and the "Grits Blitz."

"Yes, we are for real," said Bennett, the youngest head coach in the NFL in his first year with the Falcons, no longer an also-ran club, no longer a sure win in opponents' eyes. "It's safe to say we're respectable."

Bennett is being modest. His team is 4-2, could easily be 6-0. They share the National Conference Western Division

"If it's a pass, it's look for a screen and then go for the quarterback. We play a gap-type defense. Our defensive linemen slant quite a bit."

Jerry Glanville, who calls the defensive signals for the Falcons and coaches the secondary, got in on the discussion. "We always have a man head-on with the center. We always have an odd-man front," he added. "It's a tough defense to run on."

Before taking the Falcon Bennett was an assistant for Ch Knox at Los Angeles . . . and Bennett will always remember his first coaching victory — over the Rams.

Atlanta's lack of turnovers, Bennett pointed out, is another reason for most successful start in Falcon history.

"I actually have had to teach running backs how to carry the ball," he said. "There are some great ba

Catholic, Harding Win

Catholic's girls and Harding Academy's boys claimed the team titles and Westwood's Darrell Clemmons and Melrose's Tania Wells raced to individual honors in the West Tennessee regional cross country meet at State Technical Institute at Memphis yesterday.

Harding, powered by a fourth-place finish by Bryan Woods and a sixth-place finish by Tim Isbell, was a 37-point winner over runnerups Memphis University School and Westwood, 57-94. Memphis Interscholastic Athletic Association champion Northside was fourth.

Catholic nipped Germantown, 55-56, for the girls' title. MIAA champion Northside claimed the No. 3 spot.

Clemmons clocked 15:23 en route to finishing ahead of runnerup Ronnie Pearson of Briarcrest. Kingsbury's Marcus Burton was third. Miss Wells and Catholic's Glenda Valley finished 1-2 with the Melrose junior clocking 8:21.

Shelby County will be represented by Catholic, Germantown and Northside in the girls' division and Harding, MUS and Westwood in the boys' division in next weekend's state meet at Nashville. Webb, Fulton's Shipley Regional C-C Titles Webb School's girls and Chattanooga East Ridge's boys won team championships in the East Tennessee High School Regional Cross-Country meet over the Cherokee Blvd. course Saturday.

The top three teams in each division and top three individual finishers qualified for the State meet Saturday in Nashville.

"We had 200 boys to finish the three-mile race and 135 girls to complete the 1½-mile course," said meet director Don Graham of West High.

Qualifying for the state:
GIRLS: Webb, Bearden and Tennessee High of Bristol teams, plus Susan Shipley, Fulton; Robbie Wright, Greeneville, and Sandy Gettlefinger, Catholic.

BOYS: Chattanooga East Ridge, Oak Ridge and Tennessee High teams, plus Bobby Glenn, Central; Marty Bryan, McMinn Central, and Bobby Loy, South-Young.

Fulton's Susan Shipley won the girls' division in 9:11. Ellen McCallister of Tennessee High took second and Kaki Frincke of Bearden was third.

Ronnie Gross of Tennessee High was the individual champion in the three-mile boys' run in 15:41.

Oak Ridge's Barry Houchin was second and Newton Lacey of East Ridge was third.

Oak Ridge won second in the boys' division on a tie-breaker against Tennessee High. (The fifth man was eliminated from both teams and the sixth tallied among the top four finishers to determine the winner).

Harpeth Hall's Sloan Burton and Barry Lee Houchin of Oak Ridge hold their championship trophies won in the first annual Tennessean Cross Country Classic at Two Rivers. They also led their respective teams to championships.

Classic Run Records Fall

By TOM SQUIRES

Harpeth Hall's girls set their sights on a possible third consecutive state championship yesterday as the Honeybears captured the first annual Tennessean Cross Country Classic at Two Rivers Park.

Led by freshman star Sloan Burton, Harpeth Hall managed to just slip by improving Hillsboro 38-44 to take the girls' division crown while Oak Ridge walked off with the boys' title by totaling just 42 points.

BURTON ran the rugged 2,500 meters in a record 9:55 while senior Barry Lee Houchin of the winning Oak Ridge team posted a record 13:25 clocking for the boys' 5,000 meter course.

Young Burton, who said the Two Rivers layout was even tougher than some San Francisco courses she ran on this past summer, was followed in the top 25 by teammates Jeanie Bass (fourth), Katie Groos (10th), Kathy McPherson (11th), Evelyn Storey (12th), and Nancy Graves (22nd).

Hillsboro's Elizabeth Jenkins finished second to Burton for individual honors in the girls' division and the Burroette crew might have even upset the Honeybears had veteran Wendy Harris not fallen during her run. Harris wound up 21st behind four teammates who all finished in the top 10—Jenkins, Jean Baird (fifth), Fran Hudson (seventh), and Windy Weathers (ninth).

FATHER RYAN'S girls won the third-place trophy as Tari Stejskal finished third individually. McGavock's Vickie Wells was sixth and Brenda Schultz of Memphis Raleigh-Egypt was eighth.

Houchin beat McGavock's John Irick for the boys' individual crown. David Ross and Sander Williams were a close third and fourth, respectively, pacing their Clarksville Northwest club to a runnerup finish in the team race with 60 points.

Former state champion McGavock, coached by meet director Fred Rigsby, finished third while rounding out the top 10 individual run were Stratford's Terry Coker, Oak Ridge's Ram Uppulari, Northwest's Rodney Christoffer, Eric O'Benshain of Oak Ridge, Leon Knight of White House, and Bishop Byrne's Gene Wiersonski.

The Reserve Meets were won by Hillsboro's Patti Parkison and Nashville Christian's Terry Edmondson.

3:30 - Van leaves

3:45 - Stretching

4:10 - Running

In case the rain continues; check after 6th period. We will not practice if the rain continues

Evelyn } Tydiard fartleks for 5 or 6 miles at between 7:30 and 8:30 (pace to be determined w/ Mr. Kramer)
Katie }

Nancy } overdistance 7 miles
Kristen } steeplechase to the front entrance w/o
Hathy } going to stables and then returning
Jamie } to steeplechase by way of $\frac{3}{4}$ mile hill;
this should be run at an easy pace;
you should try to run a steady pace

Melanie has a choice of running overdistance today and skipping tomorrow or skipping today and running quarters tomorrow.

5:15 - Van leaves

Remember that tomorrow's practice will be longer than usual. Have your ride be here about 5:45

See Mr. Kramer to order
NIL T-shirts

No practice
today
Nancy & Melanie
Mr. Kramer

- Are these supposed to be fast or something?
- On! are we supposed to jog?
- whose idea was this anyway?
- Don't get your panties in a wad!
- Body Cramp!
- Who brought the toilet paper?
- Who's the little boy on the team?
- Nancy plays the field... no, the field plays Nancy - yut, yut!"
- I love your cycle!
- Uh-on, I forgot to tell mom when (where) to pick me up!
- Uh, well... we, uh - Had to make a pit stop!
- Remember Homer? He was a real fartuck?
- Kramer, how many of these #@!?!? things do we have to run?
- Gils, get out of the road — The car will have to go around us
- Gils, do you want to go to this meet?
Do they give trophies?
- You gils talk like sailors.
- National Association of "W" lovers
- Gils, just run your best - That's all I ask - just run your best.
- Hey, let's hijack that horse.
- who do you gils run for?
what's it ~~up~~ to ya!
what are you - writin' a book?
- Kramer, go play in the traffic
- Gils - when do you want to run on Saturday?
9:30! 3:30! 4:00! 12:00! 8:30! never! 7:00! 5:00
- Gils, I can't spend my whole day running.
- She loves you!
- STRETCH, gils
- Janie, the reason they tease you so much is because you're such a good sport.
