300 people. 10,000 People Saw Picture at Richmond, Va.

DRAWS BIG CROWDS

In a message to the Parthenon theatre the success in Richmond of the Sam-Davis moving pictures, taken in Nashville recently, is described, the message being from the manager of the Regent theatre of that city. These same pictures will be shown at the Parthenon in this city June 10, 11 and 12. The following is the message from the Richmond theatre:

"Parthenon Theatre, Nashville, Tenn.: In spite of pouring rain, thousands have thronged the Regent theatre during the exhibition of Sam Davis. Hundreds turned away. We highly recommend this picture as a thrilling photoplay, and are sure you will do a record-breaking business. Picture has received endorsement of organization of United Confederate Veterans. Congratulations on your booking."
—REGENT THEATRE.
"F. J. THOMAS, Manager."

chairman of the Eighth district committee, also resigned.

The committee was in session all afternoon and the advisability of dissolving the progressive party in the state, by a vote of the committee, was discussed. Toner proposed a resolution that the party disband, urging that the progressive movement could be carried forward in the Republican party. The resolution was rejected, however.

BY CHURCHES

By Associated Press.
Atlantic City, N. J., June 5.—Concerted action by federated Christian organizations of the United States to promote the cause of religion was assured here last night through the adoption of resolutions by the conference of denominational and interdenominational bodies called by the Federal council of churches in America, providing for the appointment of a commission on federated movements.

The commission will be named by the council. Its functions will not be administrative as regards the council, but to counsel with the various religious agencies represented within it on matters of mutual interest, that each may
