Last Will and Testament of the Senior Class of 1954

We, the Senior Class of 1954, being of feeble minds and run-down physical conditions, do hereby leave our last will and testament.

Article I

To the Freshman class we leave a pat on the head.

Article II

To the Sophomore class we leave our unused dignity and our mastery of the game of bridge.

Article III

To the Junior class we leave our best wishes for a smash hit on Broadway. We know you can do it!

Having made the above bequests of a rather general nature, certain members of our departing class find it necessary to make the following individual bequests:

- I, Jane "Hart of My Heart" Blackwelder, leave my last name to Harriet Husband.
- I, Betty "Frosty the Snowman" Brothers, leave my theme song "Never Been Kissed" to Lou Cowan.
- I, Catharine "You're Driving Me Crazy" Browder, leave my jet pilot's license to Suzy Johnson.
