

- I, Gertrude "Show Me The Way to Go Home" Sharp, leave to register in Vandy's Pre-Med School.
- I, Mandy "Cadets Prefer Blonds" Simpson, leave, trying to sell our commencement speaker an ad for the annual.
- I, Peggy "I Wanna Be Loved" Smith, leave my reducing diet to Fran Keltner hoping she finds it easier to count calories than I did.
- I, Sandy "I've Got My Love to Keep Me Warm" Sutherland, leave hoping someday to become an "English" major.
- I, Mary Faith "Full Moon and Empty Arms" Templeton, leave singing my theme song "Phi Delta Theta for I."
- I, Ellen "I Wanta Go On a Lovin' Spree" Wills, leave to entertain the Sewanee Delts with a rousing game of Smackey-Lips.
- I, Kay "My Old Kentucky Home" Woodard, leave my wardrobe to Mamie Eisenhower, hoping she will win the title again next year.

In parting, we, the exhausted but exulting Seniors exit, leaving behind these individual idiosyncrasies. We trust you will preserve and observe these, our sacred requests; however, to insure the safety of this precious document we request that it be filed away deep in the confines of Miss Keykendall's cabinet which we are confident will remain standing long after we are gone.
