

W-B 'G

THE NASHVILLE TENNESSEAN was host at a cocktail supper last night at Belle Meade Country Club, the first in a series of parties during the Ward-Belmont reunion. Greeting Miss Catherine Morrison of Seewanee, former physical director at the school, are, from left, Virginia Keathley, Woman's Editor of THE NASHVILLE TENNESSEAN, Miss Idanelle McMurry, head mistress of Harpeth Hall School and Mrs. Andrew Benedict, chairman of the reunion.

B 'Girls' Get Together

Having a good gab-fest are, from left, Mrs. Homer Blitch, Mrs. Jack Braden, Mrs. Robert Lancaster of Franklin, Mrs. Syd Adger and Mrs. John Sibley, both of Houston, and Mrs. W. B. Dunlap of Clarksville.

—Staff photos by Joe Rudis and Jimmy Ellis

Minnie Pearl (Mrs. Henry Cannon) leads a group in singing old songs around the piano as she did during her school days.

Minnie Pearl welcomes Mrs. Goodman to the party. The Nadine Singers entertained during the get-together and the Ward-Belmont 'girls' joined in the singing.

left Mrs.

Mr. Lawrence Goodman, the only man at the party, a former piano teacher at the school, is greeted by Mrs. Morris Moughon and Mrs. Richard Wright.

Arthur Ketterer, head chef at Belle Meade Club, serves some of his delicacies to, from left, Mrs. S. C. Makafski of Schenectady, N.Y., Mrs. Claiborne Young of Burlington, N.C., Mrs. T. Robert Kinnebrew of Memphis and Mrs. Henry Cannon.