1966 MILESTONES

HARPETH HALL SCHOOL
NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE

PATTERNS

These patterns of our lives . . .

The anxious look before a test,

The planning time of committee work,

The voice that joins to cheer a team,

A young mind straining to grasp

The blinding, golden gleam.

HEADMISTRESS

MISS IDANELLE McMURRY

As students at Harpeth Hall, we have all felt the governing influence of Miss McMurry in our actions, in our thoughts, and in our studies. Entering as young girls, we mature under her supervision and leave as young women. Therefore, to Miss McMurry we express our gratitude by attempting to reflect that guiding pattern which she has shown us.

Ground-breaking ceremony for Annie C. Allison Library.

Speaking in assembly.

DEDICATION

MRS. DOROTHEA GRIFFIN

During her years at Harpeth Hall, Mrs. Griffin has been not only a teacher of history and mathematics, but, more importantly, a personal friend to her students. Through her, girls have seen the procession of past events become vividly alive and the principles of geometry and algebra become clearly comprehensible. In addition to her classroom hours, Mrs. Griffin has spent much of her own time in giving further help to many girls. For these acts she has endeared herself to her students in such a way that we feel her presence to be part of the vital and basic pattern of Harpeth Hall; therefore, we are proud to dedicate the 1966 edition of MILESTONES to Mrs. Dorothea Griffin.

Explaining a problem on the board.

Asking her students questions.

ORGANIZATIONS

STUDENT COUNCIL

Bransford, Procter, Miss Mountfort, Hughey.

The Student Council, a group of eleven girls who govern our student body, includes three senior officers as well as two representatives of each class who serve one semester. Under the supervision of Miss Mountfort, the Student Council formulates and enforces school regulations, sponsors the Christmas Tea Dance and the All-Club Picnic, and serves the school in many other ways.

FEATURES

THE LADY OF THE HALL AND HER COURT

The Lady of the Hall is the senior who seems to embody the spirit and ideals of the school. She and her court, which includes two senior heralds, a representative from each class, and two flower girls, are presented at a traditional ceremony followed by the sophomore play given in their honor. The Lady of the Hall for 1966 is Carol Procter.

GEORGE WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY

Each February the Freshman Class honors two juniors by electing them George and Martha Washington. This year Lil Dobson was chosen to be George and Melissa Burrus, Martha. Under the guidance of Miss Chadwell, freshman girls practiced a horn-pipe dance, a soldiers' march, a minuet, and a waltz, which they performed on George Washington's birthday for the entertainment of the faculty, the parents, and the student body.

FAREWELL, MRS. RASMUSSEN

After fifteen years of dedicated and outstanding service to Harpeth Hall and after a number of years of previous service to the Ward-Belmont School, Mrs. E. G. Rasmussen retired from our English department at the end of this school year. Mrs. Rasmussen's contributions to the life of the school and her influence upon her students throughout the school's history are countless. Each girl who has graduated from Harpeth Hall has left with an insight into American literature and an understanding of organization in writing that have been firmly imprinted in her through classroom experience with Mrs. Rasmussen. Because of these invaluable contributions to Harpeth Hall, we regretfully bid farewell to Mrs. E. G. Rasmussen.
