

How much pleasure you must have from your children! I have only one child, a son Reese, a pilot living in Santa Fe, and four grandchildren.

I brought Reese to Taos with ^{me when} he was six, after we lived in Denver, where I had gotten my divorce. Had married a Sigma Chi from Colorado College days. Reese and I spent the fall-winter 1932-33 back in Dalhart, Texas, before coming to Taos in June 1933.

My daughter-in-law, the former Winifred Powell, is the daughter of Lawrence Powell, who was dean of music at the University of Arkansas after he and Mrs. Powell came to the U. S. from England. Mr. Powell is a composer. Some of his "Santa Fe Trail Symphony" (which had earlier premiered with the Rio Grande Symphony in Santa Fe) was presented with music by other
