

American Composers at the Kennedy Center, Washington D.C., during America's Bicentennial. He (Powell) was also honored, a few years ago, with a Lawrence Powell day at the University of Arkansas which paid all of his expenses to travel back there. Powell has given all of his manuscripts to that university. He and Mrs. Powell lived in Santa Fe for some years, but are now in Victoria, Texas, near the Gulf, where they have two other daughters, married, and with families. Mr. Powell is in declining health, — both he and Mrs. Powell are in their 80s.

I do hope this ^{isn't} all too boring and that a little I'm going to tell you about my grandchildren won't also be.

Deborah (Debbie) the oldest, honor ^{State} student all the way through public school; 4.0, University of New Mexico (Las Cruces) ^{student} all the way through now having nearly completed her masters in