

She wanted to see places en route. - Phoenix, Palm Springs, Los Angeles, San Francisco and wanted to take pictures as she traveled.

business management, is versatile, has many interests. She has just now moved to Portland Oregon for a position. She drove all the way there alone (with her Afghan dog), from Las Cruces. We were worried, thought she shouldn't drive solo, but she came out safely. Deborah is a pretty, small girl, was first runner-up in the Junior Miss contest, (when a high school senior) in Santa Fe.

My grandson, Alan, not a good student, but creative, loves backpacking, skiing, rock climbing, takes fine landscape photos. Attended N. M. State University. Stephen, honor student all the way.

Entered Utah State University at Logan, ^{last fall,} to continue in forestry after two years of pre-forestry at N. M. State. Will work in Tahoe National Forest, Northern California, as a hydrologist, this summer, and return to Utah State, in the fall.

Scott, the youngest will be a freshman at Santa Fe High School
