WE WELCOME ANYONE DRIVING
UNDERSTAND THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN
MANAGEMENT AND LEADERSHIP
MANAGEMENT IS THE ART OF MAKING

MAKING PEOPLE WANT TO WORK.

LEADERSHIP IS THE ART OF MAKING
PEOPLE WANT TO WORK. MANAGEMENT
IS THE ART OF MAKING THINGS WORK.
LEADERSHIP IS THE ART OF MAKING

MR. ANDREW B. BENEDICT
Vice President

DR. JOHN WYNNE BARTON
President

MISS EMMA I. SISSON
Dean of Residence

We extend to each member of the Ward-Belmont family our heartiest greetings.

To the staff of the MILESTONES which has labored so diligently, we wish to extend congratulations.

Now that another school year has gone by we can but wish the best for the Seniors who leave us. To the others in the student body we pledge our utmost endeavors to continue in the great cooperative work of continuing at Ward-Belmont those ideals which are the permanent foundations of worth-while advancement.

JOHN W. BARTON.

DR. JOSEPH E. BURK
Dean of Faculty

MISS ANNIE C. ALLISON
Principal of High School

It should be a source of much gratification to every owner of a MILESTONES to know that her college ranks scholastically with the best; to know that nine of every ten graduates who enter senior institutions make either satisfactory or excellent records; to know that year by year the scholastic average of her college is rising.

SENIOR SONG

I

We pledge now our love for our old W.-B.,
We vow to be ever true;
We pledge, too, our love for our dear Senior Class—
God bless them, the old and the new.
We'll hold high those colors, the Gold and the Blue;
Our banners shall kiss the sky.
Our faith all resisting, our goal for life's best,
Our motto, "To do or die."

II

The joys we have here will not fly as the leaves;
They'll last us life's journey through;
And the love we have now for the friendships we've made
Will live in our memories, too;
And though we must part from each other some day,
As Seniors have departed before,
The glorious spirit of old '34
Will linger for evermore.

SENIOR CLASS ENTERTAINS WITH COFFEE

The Senior class was hostess to the school at coffee after dinner Sunday, September 24, in Rec. Hall. The tables were placed at the ends of the room with two Seniors presiding at each. Jane Carroll, Ruth Nehls, Helene Loeb, and Anna Shaw poured. Ann Loftin, Dorothy Jones, Beverly Stone, Mary Elizabeth Polk, Marjorie Jacobson, Viva Lee Davis, Nell Betty Anderson, Helen Larimer, Elizabeth Glasgow, and Victoria Keidel served.

The room was decorated with flowers, large vases of which were on every available table. The Seniors all wore afternoon dresses and made charming hostesses. The event served well to bring together again in an informal way the members of the Senior class.

As chapel explained the situation. She made at all times. chapel is the best of all.

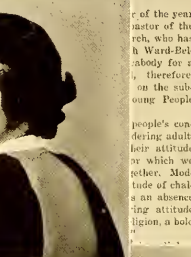

WELCOME TO NEW STUDENTS

Students were called to the study hall Tuesday, September 25, at the regular club meeting. The purpose of the meeting was to explain some of the rules and regulations required by the student body of Ward-Belmont. She made short announcements for the week.

DR. STOVES, CHAPEL SPEAKER

Dr. Stoves, pastor of the First Baptist Church, who has been a Ward-Belmont speaker for a number of years, spoke on the subject of "The Good in Life." He pointed out that the good in life is not what we are, but what we do. He urged students to strive for the good in life by being one's best in all things. He also pointed out that the good in life is not a goal, but a way of living. He urged students to live their lives for the good of others.

STUDENT PUBLICATIONS' EDITORS GREET STUDENTS

Friday, September 22, the sponsor and editors of the Ward-Belmont publications had charge of the chapel program. Miss Jane Pulver, sponsor of publications and Alumnae secretary, initiated the program by giving a short talk on the history, plan, and significance of both HYPHEN and Middleton. To the new girls she introduced Marjorie Jacobson, editor of Middleton, and Helene Loeb, editor of the HYPHEN, who talked on their own publication, urging students to cooperate in helping both staffs to make this a splendid year for the newspaper and the yearbook.

Dolores Smith closed the program with the playing and singing of songs.

SOCIAL CLUBS

At the south end of the campus lies Club Village, a group of ten clubhouses clustered around the Old Tower. Of one of these every boarding student is a member. The meeting rooms of the four day-student clubs are found across the street in a large house. In these fourteen clubs is found the competitive life on the campus. They vie for high scholastic honors as well as for victory in the various athletic tournaments. Here, too, one finds the social life centered in the club teas, dances, and open houses. The high spot of the year for each is the annual dance which calls for all the ingenuity and imagination of the members and which brings forth charming results.

ALL-AROUND ATHLETE, 1933

HENRIETTA CHERRINGTON, A.K.

Henrietta Cherrington was chosen as last year's all-around athlete. To qualify for this title, a girl must have a good citizenship and academic, as well as athletic, standing. She must enter a sport every season and, at the end of the year, must have the highest number of points in athletics. "Cherry" had a total of 110 points. With her natural aptitude for athletics she was most known for her ability at tennis, swimming, and basketball.

Grace Bosserman

Hockey practice began the first quarter of the year. The new girls who did not know the game had to think quickly in order to compete with the old girls who had had experience. However, when the teams were finally organized, they consisted of both old and new players. Each club worked out its teamwork at early morning practices. The games were popular and caused much excitement. Scores did not run high but each goal was well won. The T. C.'s and Tri K's managed to win all three of their games. Those two teams fought the finals on Thanksgiving Day. As the score was tied, 2 to 2, each one will have the cup for one semester.

At the end of the season the hockey varsity was announced: Grace Bosserman, Catherine Brown, Carolyn Eskridge, Dorothy Funk, Elizabeth Glasgow, Becky Hall, Mary Marjorie Lincoln, Martha Pyeatt, Mary Soper, Beverly Stone, and Toska Ann von Borries.

BASKETBALL VARSITY, 1934

Basketball practice which started shortly before Christmas brought to view much valuable material. The inter-club tournament began in January with the Ariston-Eccowasin game in which the former was defeated with a score of 21 to 32. As the games progressed certain players were outstanding, although on the whole the teams were well matched. The tournament brought forth a large number of high scorers and a great deal of excitement. The semifinal game was played by the A. K.'s and X. L.'s after which the X. L.'s, victorious 44 to 32, were entitled to meet the Tri K's in the final game. This game, the climax of the season, gave the championship to the Tri K's by a score of 33 to 21.

Following the close of the tournament the Basketball Varsity was named with Dorothy Glander, Gilbertine Moore, and Ann Shaw at forward, and Beverly Stone, Isobel Coulter, and Grace Bosserman at guard.

The water polo season, although it had the fewest participants, furnished many thrills. Those who went out for the sport worked hard perfecting the passes, signals, and correct "ducking" technique.

The opening of the tournament found the Tri K, X. L., and A. K. clubs with teams. The Tri K's won the trophy by defeating the other two teams. The following girls were chosen for the water polo varsity: Nell Betty Anderson, Grace Bosserman, Jane Carroll, Victoria Keidel, and "Sunny" Taylor.

The outstanding thing of this day is a feeling that things are going to keep up so rapidly that it is manifesting itself in all the countries in all the continents and in America. This is found in the air.

We have heard only a bit of the many unusual attractions to be offered. That the first half of the program will be given by children from five years to about twelve years of age is a promise of charm. But members of "Little Women" and a "Schubert Waltz" raise expectations even higher.

FISHOLOGY

Fish is health-food,
Pure and simple—
Feeds the mind,
Brings out your dimple;

Should you angle after
School is out—
There's good fish yet
As e'er caught out.

Some of these are
Seashore fresh,
So fish for them
With larger mesh.
