What I remember best about my Ward-Belmont days...

Because of mid-year high school graduation I entered Ward-Belmont in January 1936. My alumnae mother was determined I would attend her beloved school. She was afraid I would follow my desire to enroll in a university with a journalism school and miss out on Ward-Belmont. I don't know if anyone before or after me ever entered mid-year. There were definite disadvantages. I moved into a two bedroom suite in Pembroke with three girls who
