HARPETH HALL SCHOOL

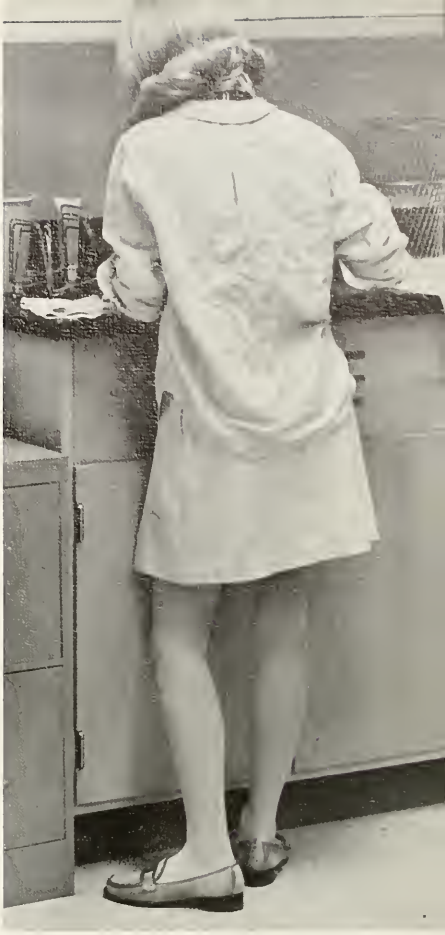

NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE

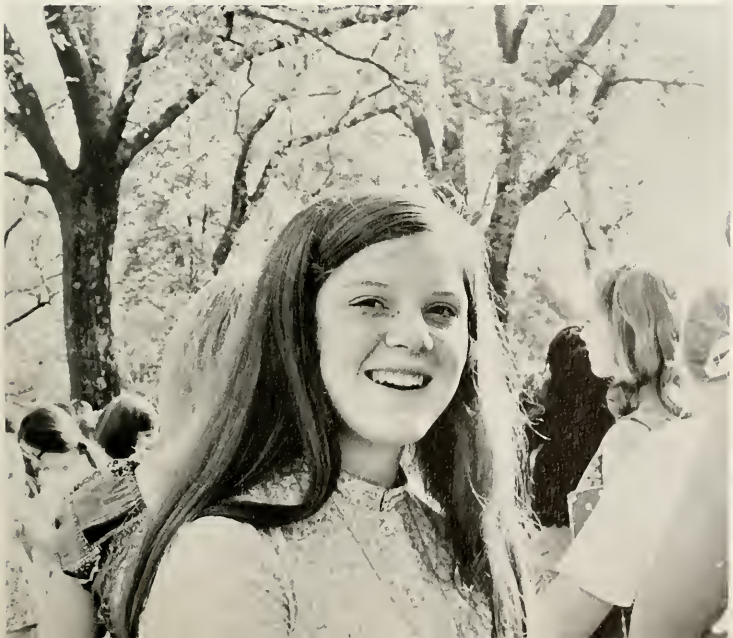

The time has slipped away.
We're leaving once again.

When we return tomorrow,
We will all still be friends.

Tomorrow brings a new chance. . .

. . .to strengthen our bonds.

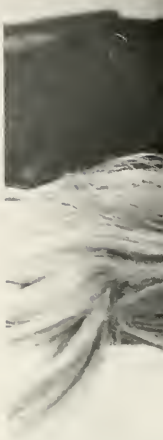

When we return tomorrow,
We will all be as one.

We've stood the pain and sorrow.
We have nothing left to fear.

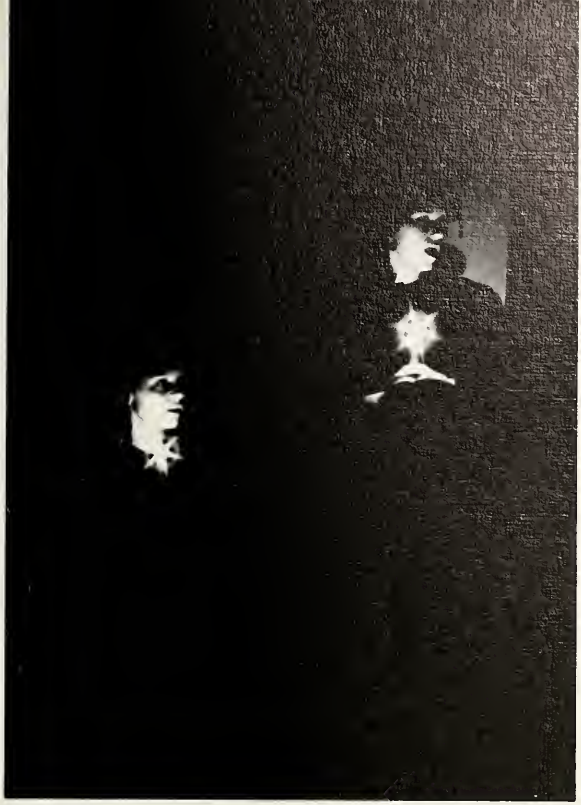

We can face it all tomorrow
With a smile and a tear.

We are as one as we stand here.
We can keep the feeling high. . .

With a deeper sense of caring. . .

As one we can reach the sky.

This road ends . . . another will begin . . .

DEDICATION

"Attention . . . dress right!" This may seem like a military command, but it is really Miss Patty keeping us in order. Throughout her years at Harpeth Hall, Miss Patty Chadwell has devoted much time and effort to a job that we seldom realize is a very difficult one. We rarely recognize the fact that it is necessary to be physically as well as mentally active. Because of her concern, Miss Patty sees that the standards of our athletic program are comparable to those of our academic program. As director of all athletics on the Harpeth Hall campus and sponsor of the Athletic Association, Miss Patty comes in contact with every student at Harpeth Hall at one time or another. Because everyone knows of Miss Patty's never-ending interest in the well-being of each girl, we proudly dedicate the 1971 Milestones to MISS PATTY.

MISS McMURRY

HEADMISTRESS

Miss McMurry is many things. She is a charming lady, a gracious hostess, a smart dresser, and the Headmistress of Harpeth Hall School. This may sound like a remarkable combination, but it has proved very effective and has earned Miss McMurry the respect and admiration of the entire student body. "Sam's" personal interest in each student begins before the student enters Harpeth Hall and continues beyond graduation. She has recognized the desires of the students with the formation of new courses such as Sociology and new organizations such as the Service Clubs. Her understanding of students and faculty has led to the formation of the Student-Faculty Committee. The longer one knows Miss McMurry, the more one realizes that our Headmistress has a many-faceted personality.

MISS FESSEY
DIRECTOR OF THE MIDDLE SCHOOL

Since the founding of the Middle School in 1968, we have all seen a familiar figure walking up and down the halls, checking on classes, and cheerfully leaning over the Dutch doors. This person is the Middle School's outstanding Director, Miss Polly Fessey. She has been a wonderful example of kindness, understanding, and leadership to everyone at Harpeth Hall. We hope she will continue with us at our Middle School for many years to come.

MISS MOUNTFORT COUNSELOR

One person that everyone gets to know is Miss Penelope Mountfort or "Miss Penny." As one of the most versatile figures of the school, Miss Penny is a biology teacher, sponsor of the Milestones, and college counselor. In her spare time, she also tutors! One can almost always see her flitting through the halls with a camera in hand or filling out transcripts in her office. Miss Penny plays a vital part in every student's life, and we are all indebted to her.

IN MEMORIAM

Janet Lynn Evans

Once I had a friend who had time to laugh
Though life's burdens might be pressing on her mind.
A gentle laugh that could pervade a room
And seek the happiness you had well hidden.
A friend who could talk wistfully of things to be
And know they could never be for her.
Once I had a friend who had time to laugh
Though life's burdens might be pressing on her mind.

—Michael Head

MANELY RAMIREZ-ABELLA

There are many characteristics essential to a good foreign exchange student: intelligence, courage, determination, and a good sense of humor. Manely Ramirez-Abella, Harpeth Hall's new American Field Service student, possesses all of these qualities. But Manely does not only participate in projects at Harpeth Hall, she is also involved in many other Nashville activities. She is in Junior Achievement, she works as a volunteer at General Hospital, and she speaks to many schools about her country, Argentina. Manely's visit has not only broadened her experience but has also widened the horizons of many Harpeth Hall students.

STUDENT COUNCIL

One of the most difficult positions that any girl can hold is that of representing the students fairly and justly. Members of the Harpeth Hall Student Council hold such a position. In addition to enforcing the rules and regulations, these girls are responsive to the desires of the students. Two innovations this year were the Christmas Dance in which the Seniors were presented and the revision of the Honor Code. The Student Council also sponsors the Orientation for new students and Personality of the Month. Harpeth Hall can be proud of its efficient school government.

MIDDLE SCHOOL COUNCIL

Energetic girls of the Middle School Council, which is sponsored by Miss Fessey, are constantly working to provide us with information on rules and regulations concerning the school. This year the Middle School was privileged to hav ea Grandmothers' Tea, which was made possible by the Council. We are very grateful that these girls were chosen to represent the high ideals of the Harpeth Hall Middle School.

STUDENT-FACULTY COMMITTEE

The Student-Faculty Committee, one of the new organizations this year, stemmed from a desire of the school to establish a liaison between the students and the administration. So far, it has been very effective in recognizing the needs of individuals in that students can personally present their idea for the betterment of Harpeth Hall. One of the major changes this year was in the dress code; students were allowed to wear pantsuits to school for the first time. We all hope that the Student-Faculty Committee will continue to be as effective as it was this year.

HONOR SOCIETY

One of the most prestigious organizations at Harpeth Hall is the Honor Society. This group is composed of Juniors and Seniors who have maintained at least a B average in all of their academic subjects. One of the main responsibilities of the Honor Society is to plan the Wednesday morning chapel services. This year the students were able to participate in many of the chapels, and several were devoted mainly to music. The Honor Society has contributed a great deal to Harpeth Hall this year.

MILESTONES 1971

The MILESTONES Staff has the sole responsibility of creating the annual. Although the job is somewhat difficult, the editors and the staff still manage to have a good time doing it. Known for her idiosyncrasies, each member adds to the general hilarity and confusion of the Friday afternoon meetings. With the help of Miss Penny and the hindrance of the "ghost," the staff has once again succeeded in producing a memento of the school year. The members of the annual staff hope that it enables you to relive the experiences of the past year.

SERVICE CLUBS

RED CROSS

A new service club that was started just this year is the Red Cross. Its members are interested in helping the American Red Cross in any way that they can. Thus, they are involved in many community service projects such as making tray favors for hospitals, sponsoring a drive to write letters to Hanoi asking for the release of American prisoners, and participating in the Nashville School Blood Drive. The Red Cross certainly contributes much to both Harpeth Hall and the community.

PEACE CORPS

One of the service clubs that is concerned primarily with raising money is the Peace Corps. Under the leadership of Rose Marie Pinder, this organization is striving to raise money which may be used to build a school in a South American country. The Peace Corps does this by having bake sales, car washes, contests, and selling various items. The goal is one thousand dollars. The members of the Peace Corps have certainly worked hard and will soon obtain their goal.

AMERICAN FIELD SERVICE

The American Field Service, a club that was started by the present Senior Class last year under the direction of Mrs. Nelson, has quickly obtained its aim: to raise enough money to bring a foreign student, such as Manely Ramirez-Abella, to Harpeth Hall as a member of the Senior Class. The AFS does this through selling raffle tickets and sponsoring the "AFS Christmas Around the World." We are looking forward to next year's AFS student.

DRAMA CLUB

This year the Drama Club worked with the M.B.A. students to produce "Our Town," a play presented at Harpeth Hall in March. Under the direction of Terry Holcomb and Elizabeth Williams, the performance drew crowds to the auditorium both nights. With such a productive beginning, the Drama Club should prove to be an important part of the life at Harpeth Hall.

PENSTAFF

Penstaff, the literary club of Harpeth Hall, has taken on a new job this year. Besides publishing Hallmarks, it has contributed to the production of Milestones. Examples of the members' creativity can be found throughout this year's edition of the annual. In their yearly publication, Hallmarks, the original works of the other students are combined with those of the members of Penstaff. Penstaff offers the opportunity for students to express themselves.

One of the many new groups that was formed this year is the newspaper staff. It has been received with great enthusiasm by the entire student body because the newspaper is another means of enabling the student to express her own opinion. Four editions have been turned out with great success, each containing many features concerned with both school and community activities. The newspaper was such a success this year and has raised such interest that, as a result, a journalism class is a prospect for the future. Thus, the newspaper staff has become a very important part of Harpeth Hall School.

honors

Who would ever have thought she was a brain? . . . Who's who at Harpeth Hall . . . four years of devotion honored with a bracelet . . . she's the living embodiment of our spirit . . .

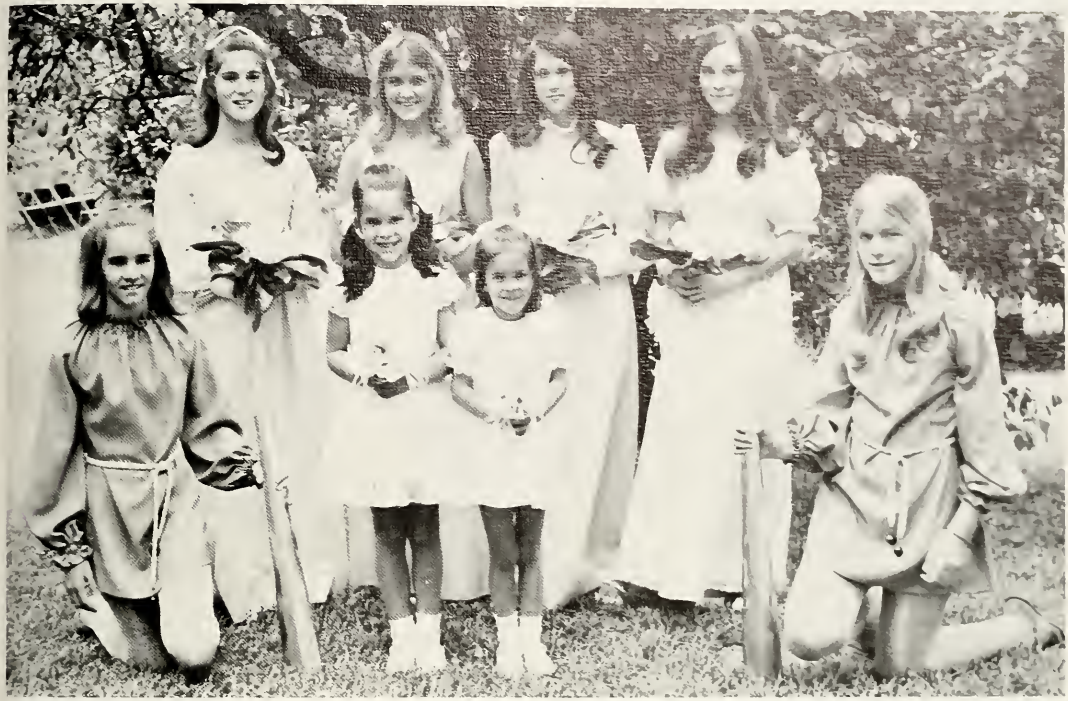

THE LADY OF THE HALL AND HER COURT

Each one of us has standards by which we live. Often we can see in others what we believe to be representative of these standards and ideals. The Lady of the Hall and her Court are elected by their classmates as being girls who truly live up to all expectations. This year the Lady of the Hall was Beth Lewis, a girl who has demonstrated in many ways that she is worthy of this honor. The class representatives were Sallie King, Senior Maid; Cindy Hunt, Junior Maid; Susan Duvier, Sophomore Maid; and Helen Harlin, Freshman Maid. For the Eighth Grade, Emily Perkins served as Herald; Karen Duvier was the Herald for the Seventh Grade. The Flower Girls, Robin Bigelow Ingram and Eileen Bowen Nebhut, added a sweet touch.

KATIE WRAY AWARD

The Katie Wray Award is given to the senior with the highest grade point average for her four years. This year, Lisa Morrissey won the award. Besides her devotion to learning, she has been a leader in many aspects of Harpeth Hall and has remained loyal to its ideals and standards. Lisa has earned the respect of every student at Harpeth Hall and is well deserving of this award.

CITIZENSHIP BRACELET

The senior who has earned the greatest number of citizenship points in her four years at Harpeth Hall receives the Citizenship Bracelet. Sue Sadler has been awarded the bracelet this year. Sue has been outstanding in scholastics, athletics, and other areas of Harpeth Hall life. For what she has given to this school and to its students, we are proud to see her win this award.

NATIONAL MERIT AWARDS

This year, when the results of the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Tests were announced, three members of the Senior Class were named National Merit Finalists. This means that they are in the top one percent of the nation's students. Four other Seniors qualified as Commendees, placing them in the top two percent of the nation's students. We are pleased to have these girls at Harpeth Hall School with us.

special events

Martha's having trouble with her costume! . . . All the little soldiers lined up in a row . . . The mob, germ infestation . . . Do I have to get a date? . . . Well, who can I take? . . . Devils become angels in their white gowns . . . Glee Club sings us through the years. . .

REGISTRATION

JUNIOR-SENIOR DAY

This year, Junior-Senior Day brought to an end a year of spirited and close competition. The Juniors, dressed as mischievous little boys armed with waterguns and pails, played games against the Seniors, dressed as angelic little girls with curls and teddy bears. In the afternoon a picnic was enjoyed by both classes, and the day was brought to a climax when Miss McMurry awarded the cup to the victorious Juniors.

SENIOR PLAY

Seniorosis? . . . Here we come rolling out of a jar . . . Look, germy . . . I've been prepared for a situation like this since the Ward-Belmont days . . . QUARANTINED . . . Give me a G-E-R-M . . . Well, it's 1, 2, 3, what are we biting for? . . . Give them blue spots on their faces, on their knees, and other places . . . Check the action! . . . Bebe and Susan go-go . . . It's rise and shine at 6:18 each morning . . . According to my calculations . . . If Miss Watkins looks for that bird one more time . . . Can you believe the tears? . . . We tried, but we couldn't do it . . . We're gonna make 'em see the difference in the Class of 1971 . . . Gotta feeling that we've found the unity we're searching for . . .

JUNIOR PLAY

We've got to get that money, some way or another . . . Let me take your money . . . Open up, the Mob's here! . . . Place your bets . . . Who's the leader of the Mob that's made for you and me? K-I-L-L-E-R H-U-N-T . . . What have you Juniors been doing with my Viking? . . . They don't pay us much here anyway . . . Mrs. Hall, you doll . . . Big Bertha's my idol . . . Big Mouth's here! . . . We're going to kidnap Heidi . . . I vonder vhat dey had for lunch? . . . Cathy buying those kisses . . . I'd do anything for one kiss . . . We're in the money! . . . I wonder why all the Juniors aren't at the dance? . . . RAID! . . . Attention! Dress right! . . . What now, you thugs? It's really over . . . And the Junior Class was sentenced to two more years of hard labor . . . Tell us how long must we keep wanting things? . . .

GEORGE WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY

SABELE FOSTER

SUZY PEEPLES
George Washington

Traditionally the George Washington Celebration has been the event which has brought the Freshmen together in a unified effort. With the help of Miss Patty, a group of "new recruits" becomes transformed into a drill team, lively sailors, and the graceful men and women of the minuet. The same format is followed every year, yet each class adds its own special style and touch which makes each one unique. This year the Freshmen displayed their talent in music by singing a war ballad and providing their own accompaniment for the minuet. We thank the Freshmen Class for contributing their part to the school year.

MIDDLE SCHOOL HONORS DAY

Although the girls in the Middle School spend only two years there, they feel a great sense of pride and accomplishment when they are finally ready for the Upper School. On the Middle School Honors Day, the eighth grade girls receive their certificates and other awards, and start thinking ahead to the next four years.

ALL CLUB PICNIC

THE SOPHOMORE PLAY

One of the most entertaining events during the graduation weekend is the Sophomore Play. This year, in honor of the Lady of the Hall and her Court, Mrs. Williams and the Sophomore Speech Class took everyone down the yellow brick road in a delightful version of The Wizard of Oz. With song and light humor, Dorothy and her friends gave to all an enchanting and enjoyable performance.

SENIOR BANQUET AND STEP SINGING

Two events of the graduation weekend are the Senior Banquet and Step Singing. At the banquet, the Seniors are together as one and can relax for the last time before they start into the hectic schedule of the next few days. On Sunday the Seniors and Juniors sing their special songs, and the Senior Class passes on all responsibilities and privileges to the upcoming Senior Class.

GRADUATION

We're one year older, stronger, wiser. We now face new names and places. But goodbyes are hard, especially when we are leaving everything and everyone we have known for four wonderful years. Although the pain of separation is great, this sadness also proves something. We were one, unified, a whole. And anything that was once a whole can never be completely apart again.
