What I remember best about my Ward-Belmont days...I remember sleeping with a pillow over my head and the person who did bed check thought I had stuffed my bed. So, I decided one night to really stuff my bed and I snuck out. I remember having a date with a Vanderbilt boy and we had to have a chaperone. I remember Miss Jones, my ballet teacher; the dances we had at school; my roommates Bess Hoover Owens, Betsy____, and Carolyn Hewett from Georgia. I remember Minni Pearl and even one of the jokes she told! It was a memorable two years.

Where my life has taken me...

I have studied ballet in Paris, London, Buenos Aires, Rio de Janeiro, Havana, Cannes, France, New York and San Francisco. I have traveled in many countries including four Caribbean Cruises, Russia, Poland, Germany, and Turkey. I received an award from the Dallas Dance Council for a lifetime service to Dance and award from the Fort Worth Chamber of Commerce for Outstanding Woman 2001. I was recognized by the Fort Worth/Dallas Ballet as being its founder 40 years ago. I have the oldest ballet school in Fort Worth where I have been teaching ballet for 50 years. I am artistic director of Ballet Concerto in Fort Worth. I have been married to attorney Beale Dean for 52 years. I have 2 children. My daughter, Giselle Miller, is an events director for Court TV in New York. I have 2 grandchildren, Margo and Liseanne, 10 and 13. They also live in New York. My son-in-law, Peter Miller, is a literary agent in New York. My son, Webster Dean, after having had a professional career as a dancer (Ballet West, Royal New Zealand Ballet, and Milwaukee Ballet) now lives in Fort Worth and is principal teacher and administrator with my ballet school.

Where my life has taken me...

I married George Poulos in 1948, completed a BBA degree in three years from University of Miami, and had three children – two boys and a girl. Active in church work all those years serving as first female president of the Board of Trustees of Coral Gables First United Methodist Church where I also taught an adult Sunday school class for 30 years. Divorced in 1975, subsequently married George K. Haas and had a wonderful 22 years before his death in 1987. I could not attend my 50 year class reunion in 1998, and must miss this one on October 2nd. My daughter and I will be cruising in the Greek Isles!

What I remember best about my Ward-Belmont days...Early in the fall of 1947 all freshmen students were invited to the Mansion for a reception to meet the administration. We were to come in acceptable garb for proceeding through a formal receiving line at Ward-Belmont. In my dormitory room I had been referring to the Dean of Students Chiles Van Antwerp as "Twerpy." It was the day, I was proceeding through the line, and I heard: "Miss McBride, this is Dean Chiles Van Antwerp." I extended
