Confiderate Veterans magazin

BELMONT COLLEGE, NASHVILLE, * TENN.

Regent, Rev R. A. Young, D.D. Principals, Miss Hood, Miss Heron.

THE IDEAL COLLEGE HOME OF THE SOUTH.

"BEAUTIFUL FOR SITUATION."

Attractions of the Park induces to much outdoor exercise. Well equipped Gymnasium and Bowling Alley. Magnificent conservatories. Students enjoy free range among flowers and shrubbery. Suburban and city life combined. Electric cars to door.

SUPERIOR EDUCATIONAL ADVANTAGES.

Eight schools, and every one in the hands of a skilled specialist. Diplomas conferred by schools. Thorough teaching and high stundard for graduation. A select patronage, accuring refined and refining influences. Music, Art. Elecution, exceptionally fine.

STRICTLY NON-SECTARIAN.

Students attend church of choice in city. Ministers of different denominations visit and instruct students of their churge.

CITY OPPORTUNITIES.

The best lectures, concerts, etc., liberally patronized. Students of Schrol of Science make practical investigation of public works in study of their principles. Literary students have access to city libraries.

GENERAL CULTURE.

Carefully selected lecture courses. Annual trip to Mammoth Cave for those desiring it.

Next Session Opens Sept. 6. Send for handsomely illustrated catalogue to

MISS HERON.

Digitized by GOUYIE