NEW ADDITION DEDICATION FRIDAY

Dedicatory Program to be Part of Sabbath Services

The addition to the Religious School of Temple Israel will be dedicated at Sabbath Services Friday night.

All members of the Congregation are urged to participate in this significant event, marking the expansion of the Temple's educational facilities.

Rabbi Julius J. Nodel of St. Louis, an outstanding orator, will deliver the dedicatory address. He is senior rabbi of Shaare Emeth in St. Louis, a former Navy chaplain, and a lecturer and author of note.

Rabbi Nodel's topic will be "One Touch of Eternity."

Rabbi Sidney H. Brooks will officiate at the services.

A reception will be held in the Temple social hall following services and the new addition will be open for inspection.

The two-story structure contains eight new class rooms, six on the upper floor and two on the ground floor. It supplements the Temple's educational facilities to accommodate classes for a Religious School enrollment of about 400 students.

Engaged . . .

The engagement of Martin Greene, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Levinson, to Beth Weisberg, of Bayonne, N. J., was announced recently. The wedding date has been set for June 24.

Congratulations . . .

To Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Peebler, Jr., on the birth of a son, David Jacobs, and to the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Morris E. Jacobs and Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Peebler, Sr.

SECOND GRADERS' LETTERS ON NEW SCHOOL ADDITION

Students in Mrs. Norman Whitman's Second Grade Class have written letters of appreciation for the new school addition to Lazar Kaplan, president of the Congregation.

Excerpts from some of the letters:
"Thank you for the room. Thank you for the big bulletin boards.
"Your friend, Spencer Brookstein."

"Thank you for the new room. I like it very much. We have one of the new rooms. Thank you. The best is the rooms.

"Jan Liberman, your friend."

"Thank you for the room I have. I like it very much. I will try to keep it clean. And thank you for the bulletin board.

"Your friend, Marcia Gerelick."

"We got a new room in Sunday School. Thank you. I like the big bulletin board best of all. All the new section is pretty.

"Sincerely yours, Marla Weinhoff."

"We enjoy the new room so very much. It is very pretty. It was very nice of you to build the new section for us.

"Yours truly, Margo Frohman."

NFTY CAMP

Temple Israel Youth Group plans a weekend of camping, worship and study at Camp Brewster April 13, 14 and 15.

Andrea Raskin and Richard Spiegelman are co-chairmen of the event. Plans are being made for participation of 100 teenagers from Omaha and neighboring communities.

PURIM BULLETIN BOARDS

Thanks to Paula Klein, Susan Levine and Joan Garfield for the beautiful Purim Bulletin Boards in the Temple.

Rabbi Brooks Honored For Outstanding Sermon

Rabbi Brooks

For the second time in five years, Rabbi Sidney H. Brooks has won an annual Freedom Foundations award for contributions to a better understanding of the American way of life.

Rabbi Brooks was announced on February 21 as a 1961 Freedom Award winner, one of five Nebraska individuals and institutions to be honored. He received the George Washington Honor Medal Award for his sermon "Dear Mr. President."

A similar award was received by Rabbi Brooks for a sermon in 1957.

The top national award went to J. Edgar Hoover, director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, who was honored at special ceremonies at Valley Forge, Pa., on the 230th anniversary of the birth of George Washington.

Freedoms Foundation is a non-profit, non-sectarian, non-political group created to build "an understanding of the spirit and philosophy of the Constitution and Bill of Rights." Awards go to individuals, organizations, schools and businesses contributing toward advancing "the American Way of Life."

SISTERHOOD

Temple Israel Sisterhood will hold its next luncheon meeting Tuesday, March 13, at 1 p.m., at the Temple.

Circle No. 7 is in charge of the luncheon meeting and will be assisted by Circle No. 1. Circle chairmen are Mmes. Harry Wise, Earl Wigodsky, Max Wolfson and Harold Kasin. Luncheon chairman is Mrs. Julia Jacobs.

An Art Fair will be featured at the meeting. Mrs. Isabella Threlkeld of Joslyn Museum will speak on the prints in the traveling show. The items in the show will be for sale.

Reservations may be made with Mrs. Jacob Hess, 551-7581, or Mrs. Lester E. Simon, 391-1439.

Baby sitter service will be available.

Purim Festival

Traditional Purim services and Megillah reading will be held Monday, March 19, at 7:15 p.m. The Religious School choir will sing.

Temple Israel's Purim Carnival Sunday, March 25, from 3:00 to 6:00 p.m., will be a gala affair. Holiday features include a puppet show, Shushan cotton candy, movies, fishing pond, and Purim booths.

Mrs. Ted Sanford, general chairman for the Carnival, will be assisted by the Religious School room mothers and their committee.

Hot sandwiches and other refreshments will be served at this family-style affair.

Religious School sessions will not be held Sunday, March 25, but Saturday division classes will meet as usual March 24.

OUR SYMPATHY

The Congregation records with sorrow the deaths of

Ben Jacobs

Ben Taxman

and extends sympathy to their bereaved families.

PURIM OBSERVANCE IN NURSERY SCHOOL

Children in the Nursery School are learning about Purim through stories and songs. A "Purim Parade" will feature masks and crowns decorated by the boys and girls. Both the three- and four-year-old classes will bake Haman-tashen to eat after their own reading of the Megillah. Ring chains and balloons will decorate the room for a carnival atmosphere.

NFTY CULTURAL

The next NFTY Cultural-Dinner will be held Sunday afternoon, March 11 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Brodkey, 456 No. 61st St.

Hostesses will be Mrs. Robert Gerelick and Mrs. Bernard Raskin.

M. L. Schwartz will lead the group in a discussion on "An Era of Hope."

VOLUNTEER CHOIR

In response to requests from members of the congregation, Cantor Manfred F. Kuttner invites all men and women interested in forming a choir to contact him.

If you can carry a tune,—you are eligible to apply. Quality of voice is not of too much importance, Cantor Kuttner says.

The purpose of this group is to learn and eventually perform the great choral works of the masters.

The choir would not be obligated to sing at Friday Sabbath services unless they so desire.
