IT SEEMS TO ME . . . A Personal Message from Rabbi Brooks I like coins. But not as money. Just coins, ancient and modern. Coins that tell stories. When I was in Israel recently I acquired three remarkable coins that tell not only their own individual stories, but I seem to hear them talking to each other with a remarkable tale that is a lesson in Jewish History. The coins represent a sequence in time. The earliest is a coin from the time of the Maccabean Revolt, in the second century B.C.E. The coin bears the name of Simon, a brother of Judah. Simon sat upon the throne of an independent Judea. The coin tells of that brief period of the independence of Judea and it is the reminder that Judea was finally made a tributary to Rome because the State was weakened as much, if not more, by internal dissension as it was by external assault. (Continued on Page 2)	Friday Evening, May 1 8:15 p.m. SABBATH EVENING SERVICES RABBI SIDNEY H. BROOKS will preach on "Should We Observe Two Days for our Festivals?" Sabbath Coffee Hour

SIDNEY H. BROOKS, M.H.L. Rabbi Manfred F. Kuttner, Cantor
	Saturday Morning, May 9 11:00 a.m. SABBATH MORNING SERVICES Bar Mitzvah of BRUCE RIPS, Son of Mr. and Mrs. N. Julian Rips

IT SEEMS TO ME . . .

My second coin is a Roman coin, beautifully made of silver, typical of a powerful, wealthy and self-confident empire. And Rome, for all its power and influence is long gone.

My third coin is a striking gold coin from the State of Israel bearing the word "Shalom," commemorating the memory of those who lost their lives in defense of the State of Israel. It bears a Biblical verse referring to the death of Moses: "And no man knoweth of his burial place." Indeed it is not the place but the loss of life and the dedication of that life that we memorialize.

Three coins! To remind us that the Maccabean State did perish. To remind us that, with all its power, Rome perished; and to remind us that the State of Israel today lives and that it must continue to live with Peace as its goal. Above all, the lessons of history must tell each of us that no dissension on our part can be allowed to shatter the dreams and goals of the State of Israel. For we are one People — "Am Yisrael" — The People of Israel, here and in the State of Israel bound together by common history and common purpose.

That is why we will observe the anniversary of the Independence of the State of Israel on May 8th with prayer and rededication of ourselves to a way of life at the same time ancient and modern, a way of life that ensures peace for men everywhere. I like my coins. But I like the last one best. It is the coin of a living free people. We want to keep it that way. I don't want another coin from a State of Israel that has perished.

RARE ITEMS IN TEMPLE ISRAEL'S MUSEUM — VIII

Since 1948 digging in Israel has been carried out by the Department of Antiquities, the Hebrew University of Jerusalem, the Israel Exploration Society and some foreign expeditions. Young and old amateurs also are discovering secrets of years long gone by. Our picture shows a delicate CAESAREAN FLASK made of very thin glass in patina color dating from the year 100 C.E. It was purchased from donations given to the Museum Fund.

RABBI JAY GOLDBURG
GUEST PREACHER, MAY 8

Guest preacher at our Sabbath and Israel Independence Day Services Friday Evening, May 8 will be Rabbi Jay Goldberg, Rabbi of Temple B'nai Jeshurun, Des Moines, Iowa.

There will be a special liturgy and Rabbi Goldberg will preach on "FROM MY HEART TO ISRAEL'S HEART."

Rabbi Goldberg was born in Sacramento, California. He received his B.A. degree in English from the University of North Carolina. While attending the University of North Carolina, he received an Outstanding Academic Award in his third year and the Outstanding Leadership Award from the Naval ROTC. He was a member of The University Soccer Team and the NROTC Rifle Team.

Upon graduation from the University, he received a Commission as 2nd Lt. in the U.S. Marine Corps and served for two years as an Officer in the European Theatre. He remained in the Marine Corps Reserve, attaining the rank of Captain. After completing his two year tour of duty, he entered The Hebrew Union College — Jewish Institute of Religion to study for the rabbinate, there receiving the degrees of Bachelor of Hebrew Letters and Master of Arts.

While attending the seminary, he was the recipient of The Folkman

Scholarship in Pastoral Psychology, which enabled him to spend two months of research at the Massachusetts Mental Health Center. In his senior year he was the recipient of the Leipziger prize essay about American Judaism.

Rabbi Goldberg served as Assistant Rabbi of Temple Israel in Minneapolis, Minnesota, from 1963 to 1965 and as Assistant Rabbi of Temple Emanu-El in Montreal, Canada, from 1965 to 1967.

For four years, he served as a Chaplain in the United States Naval Reserve. He has also pursued post-graduate studies at the University of Minnesota and McGill University in Montreal, leading to a Ph.D. degree in the Philosophy of Religion.

Rabbi Goldberg is married to the former Erika Schick of Budapest, Hungary, and they have a son, David Jonathan, and a daughter named Devorah Beth.

For the past 3 years, he has been the Rabbi at Temple B'nai Jeshurun, Des Moines, Iowa.

RESTORING THE SENSE OF JUDAISM

Each year hundreds of young people visit the Cincinnati campus of Hebrew Union College-Jewish Institute of Religion on pilgrimages from Reform congregations throughout the country. The following letter was written by a high school girl to the rabbinic student who served as host for her group.

"This weekend I was like a child with congenital deafness who, having miraculously been given his hearing, was bombarded simultaneously with Bach, Brahms, Bartok, Stravinsky, and Schoenberg. Of course I am not deaf, but I was spiritually blind. When you lack one of your senses you learn to live without it by sundry compensatory methods. Since I was spiritually sightless I felt I had no spiritual needs — to heck with religion. I never felt Jewish. Coming to HUC-JIR and being able to see, hear, smell, taste, and touch real Judaism, living Judaism was a surgical miracle. I am a Jew and my religion lives within me. I want to thank you for all you did, the part you took in this masterful operation."
