SABBATH DISCUSSIONS TO START IN NOVEMBER

Rabbi Sidney H. Brooks will open Temple Israel's Sabbath Discussion Series after Friday night worship services about mid-November and be followed as scheduled by prominent members of the congregation, all experts in their fields.

The series, originally scheduled to start November 1, will open later in the month when Rabbi Brooks is expected to resume his Temple duties.

Leo Eisenstatt, president of the Omaha Bar Association, will be the first of the lay speakers, and will discuss civil rights December 6. Miss Ida Gitlin, public school principal, will talk about the changing patterns in education January 3.

On February 7, Mrs. Jane Brooks, wife of Rabbi Brooks, will lead a discussion on mental health. Mrs. Brooks is president of Eastern Nebraska Mental Health Association.

Jack W. Marer, prominent attorney, will talk on Inter-Faith relations on March 6, and Mrs. Helen Makiesky, social worker on the staff of the Omaha Family and Child Service, will discuss the changing patterns in family life on April 3.

On May 1, Rabbi Brooks will summarize and evaluate the various talks and the discussions.

RECORDS OF MRS. KRIPKE'S BOOKS AVAILABLE

"Let's Talk About God," and "Let's Talk About Right and Wrong", two well-known books by Omaha's Dorothy L. Kripke, will be available on records, and will be on sale at the Temple Israel Judaica Shop.

The books are narrated by Mrs. Kripke's husband, Rabbi Myer S. Kripke, with vocal and musical accompaniment. The jacket cover features all the verses so they may be followed by the child as he or she listens to the record.

Reservations may be made by calling the Temple Israel office or by calling Mrs. Philip Malkin, 553-3286.

The luncheon, which will be held at the Temple, will cost $1.25.

CLOTHES DRYER WANTED

Does any one have an old clothes dryer to donate to the Temple Nursery School? If so call 556-6536 and tell Mrs. Wilma Reeves at the Temple Israel office.

Wet mittens and soggy, snowy, snow pants are now being inadequately dried in the ovens. A clothes dryer would be the perfect solution.

Temple Israel would also accept a new dryer as a donation.
