RABBI BROOKS AND PAUL BLOTCKY TO LEAD COMBINED CAMPAIGN

Rabbi Sidney H. Brooks and Paul Blotcky have accepted posts in the top leadership of the national Combined Campaign for American Reform Judaism.

Rabbi Brooks will serve as national Rabbinical state chairman, and Mr. Blotcky as state chairman.

For 1963-64, the fund-raising effort in behalf of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations and the Hebrew Union College-Jewish Institute of Religion has set a national goal of $4,416,632. The two religious bodies are the chief institutions of Reform Judaism.

Founded in 1873, the Union of American Hebrew Congregations is America's oldest national synagogue federation. It embraces all Reform temples in the United States and Canada, with a current record of 647 affiliated congregations representing more than 1,000,000 men, women and children.

The Hebrew Union College-Jewish Institute of Religion, founded in 1875, trains college-educated men for service as Reform rabbis. It has schools in New York, Cincinnati, and Los Angeles, and a Graduate School of Biblical Study and Archeological Research in Jerusalem, Israel.

Campaign proceeds are divided equally between the two institutions.

SISTERHOOD

Sisterhood Will Take Off on "Funny Thing Happened"

Curtain Time! Curtain Time! Lights, camera, action. Live theater will be on stage Tuesday afternoon, December 10, at the Temple Israel Sisterhood 1 o'clock luncheon meeting.

For, at the Temple, the original musical take-off entitled "A Funny Thing Happened to Me When I Went to a Sisterhood Meeting in a Carriage, on a Streetcar, on a Bus, and in My Thunderbird," will be presented.

The musical skit, depicting Temple Sisterhood life, will set the clock back to 1912 and then travel forward to the present—1963. This program also will help commemorate the 50th anniversary of National Federation of Temple Sisterhoods being celebrated this year, 1963.

"A Funny Thing Happened to Me," was written by Mrs. Hy Shrier, Mrs. Jack Levin, and Mrs. Russell Blumenthal. Mrs. Shrier will direct the musical, Mrs. Levin will narrate, and Mrs. Blumenthal will be the accompanist.

The cast in the original production is: Mrs. Bernhardt Wolf, Mrs. Horace Rosenblum, Mrs. Marlon Somberg, Mrs. Sidney Osten, Mrs. Donald Sturm, Mrs. Robert Levine, Mrs. Nathan Novak, Mrs. Hy Shrier, Mrs. Ted Sanford, Mrs. Robert Cohn, and Mrs. Millard Rosenberg.

Part of the afternoon will be set aside to welcome Temple Sisterhood's new members and also to honor Mrs. Hattie Mantel on her 80th birthday.

New members are Mrs. Seymour Cohen, Mrs. Avrum Greenberg, Mrs. William Wasserkrug, Mrs. Irving Brooks, Mrs. Warren Zweiback, Mrs. Stanley Levin, Mrs. Richard Rosinsky, Mrs. Donald Sturm, Mrs. Jeremy Zoole, and Mrs. Elmer Novak.

Mrs. I. M. Liberman, Mrs. David E. Beber, and Mrs. Millard Krasne will report on the National Federation of Temple Sisterhoods Golden Jubilee Biennial Assembly in Chicago.

Luncheon co-chairmen for the December event are Mrs. Lloyd Bank and Mrs. Herbert Rapoport.

Decorations co-chairmen are Mrs. Harvey Ferer and Mrs. Sidney Taren.

Reservations may be made by calling the Temple Israel office—556-6536, or by calling Mrs. Philip Malkin, 553-3286.

Baby-sitting service will be available for the afternoon.

HANUKAH STARTS DEC. 10

The first light of Hanukah will be lit Tuesday evening, December 10.

And on December 13, in connection with Sabbath Services, all Temple Choirs (including the augmented Adult Choir) will present excerpts of the Oratorio 'Judas Maccabeus' by Handel.

This will be the first time in Temple history that such a monumental work will be presented.

Details will be announced in the next Tidings.

COFFEE WITH THE RABBI

The second brunch to be conducted by the Men's Club is scheduled for Sunday, December 10, with coffee at 10 a.m. and discussion to start at 10:30 a.m.

The "Coffee With the Rabbi" session will be held in the Chapel of the Temple. All men of the congregation are invited to attend this popular Sunday morning discussion group.

Arthur Spiegel, new director of the A. D. L. office, will address the group. His topic will be "Anti-Semitism on the Current Scene."

Congratulations . . .

Wedding congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Robert I. Kully, who were married November 9. Mrs. Kully is the former Constance Mary Bangh.

ANYONE FOR BRIDGE?

Duplicate bridge games co-sponsored by Temple Israel and Beth El Sisterhoods will be held every Monday at 7:45 p.m. at Beth El.

Cost is $1.00 for each Monday, or $5.00 for six Mondays. Refreshments will be served.

Mrs. John Winsten of Temple Israel and Mrs. David Bernstein of Beth El are in charge.

WANTED

Volunteers for Library work.

Library need to be completely re-catalogued.

Need volunteers to type reference cards for the Library files.

Volunteers may call Cantor Kuttner, or the Temple Office, 556-6536.

JEWISH BOOK MONTH

Jewish Book Month is being observed from November 8 to December 8.

During this time the accent in Religious School is on the Book of Books and the People of the Book. The importance of the study of Bible will receive special emphasis.

Special decorations will be displayed in the classrooms in the form of pictures and appropriate quotations.

Morris Hoffman was in charge of a special assembly for Book Month November 23 for the Saturday Division, and Mrs. Ethelind Garetz was in charge of a similar assembly November 24 for the Sunday Division. Filmstrips on books were shown and there was a Book Quiz.

A display of books borrowed from the Jewish Community Center is available for browsing or to be taken out for home reading.

Students of the Sunday Division have designed original posters to be displayed in the social hall.

Students of the Saturday Division have done special book report work.

Temple Israel is proud of the new books acquired for its Library, and it is to be noted that the new acquisitions are listed in this edition of the Tidings.
