MAURY SCHWARTZ RESIGNS

Maury L. Schwartz, director of education of Temple Israel, has submitted his resignation which has been received with regret by Rabbi Sidney H. Brooks, the Congregation and the Board of Trustees.

The Board accepted the resignation at its monthly meeting April 17 and is now in the process of choosing his successor.

Mr. Schwartz has accepted the position of director of education at Temple B'nai Jehudah, Kansas City, Missouri.

He will remain at Temple Israel until July 1.

The Congregation extends its heartiest good wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Schwartz and their family and happiness and professional success in their new home. We shall always regard the six years which Mr. Schwartz has spent among us as director of education as a significant period in the advancement and growth of our Religious School.

CHORAL SOCIETY

The newly-formed Temple Israel Choral Society is meeting for rehearsals from 8 to 9 p.m. on Monday nights. The first rehearsal was held April 23.

The time was agreed on at a meeting of Choral Society members with Cantor Manfred F. Kuttner.

Cantor Kuttner urged those interested to join the enthusiastic group that now comprises the Choral Society.

"Music, as we well know," Cantor Kuttner said in a recent letter to members, "is an important social integrator. It is a welcome adjunct to the Sisterhood and Men's Club programs. Jews have been a music-loving people for centuries. Where, indeed, is the Jewish home without a child studying music? Yet, upon reaching adulthood much of this

REGISTER TO VOTE

Help tear down the Wall of Indifference by registering to vote and getting others to register. Help get 55,000 people in Douglas County to register by May 4. Get the fence-sitters off the wall and to the polls on May 15. The Election Commissioner's Office has set up nearly 50 convenient locations in the city for registration this week.

FROM THE RABBI'S MAIL

Rev. Samuel W. Hofer, pastor, First United Presbyterian Church, Nebraska City, Neb.—“The University of Life program in our city came to an end with the last meeting held on Sunday evening . . . Please let me convey to you my sincere gratitude for your part in making this class so profitable. You were most helpful in giving us a presentation of your faith and then answering questions. The many comments to me later indicate that there is better understanding and more appreciation among those who heard you speak.”

Rev. Robert F. Naylor, pastor, First Methodist Church, Omaha “. . . I am at last writing to let you know how much I appreciated your speaking to our Methodist Men. It was most stimulating and inspirational. I never hear you speak that I am not thankful to God for your consecrated brilliance and your devotion to God's work. It is a pleasure to be a partner with you in many endeavors.”

DEVELOPMENT FUND

Many new facilities have come into being for the benefit of Reform Congregations everywhere through the Development Fund for American Judaism. The Development Fund has a goal of $15,000,000 for expansion and improvement of programs of service to Reform Judaism's 630 congregations and the training of the Reform movement's rabbis, cantors, and religious school educators. In the last two years the House of Living Judaism and the Union of American Hebrew Congregations, the UAHC's system of Camp Institutes, and the Cincinnati school of Hebrew Union College-Jewish Institute of Religion have been tremendously improved and expanded.
