Annual Meeting and Congregational Dinner

Temple Israel annual meeting and congregational dinner will be held at 6:30 p.m., Wednesday evening, May 23, in the Temple Social Hall. Officers will be elected. Details inside.

Milton Livingston To Get Brotherhood Award

Milton S. Livingston

Milton S. Livingston has been named the recipient of the annual brotherhood award of the National Conference of Christians and Jews for civic leadership in the field of human relations.

The presentation will be made May 28 at Indian Hills Inn.

Also named for a brotherhood award is Ralph E. Svoboda, prominent attorney, who has served as the Catholic co-chairman of the Omaha N.C.C.J. Chapter for 20 years.

Mr. Livingston became the Jewish co-chairman of the chapter in 1947, succeeding the late Henry Monsky.

Mr. Livingston, for many years active in Omaha civic affairs, is a former president of Temple Israel which he has served in various other capacities.

He has served as president of the board of Childrens Memorial Hospital, and on the boards of the Omaha Public Library and Community Chest. He has worked closely with the Jewish Federation. He is a member of the Omaha Planning Board.

Election of officers.

Special program honoring Rabbi Sidney H. Brooks who has served as Rabbi of Temple Israel for ten years.

Payment to accompany reservations. (Reservations limited to our 300 capacity.)

Committee: Messrs. and Mmes. Ajon Farber, Hy Shrier, Robert Cohn, Lazar Kaplan, Stanley Fisk, and Mr. Jim. Farber.

YOUTH GROUP ACTIVITIES

Temple Youth Group members recently served on the Cancer and Cerebral Palsy Drives.

Members of the group attended a farewell brunch for Irving Levitas, Regional Director in Kansas City, Missouri. Those who attended were Neena Beber, Karen Brodkey, Andi Raskin, and John Spitzer.

On May 20, NFTY will hold its annual election of officers, with the installation planned for May 27.

Congratulations . . .

The engagement of Miss Sandra Bassman, daughter of Mrs. Harry H. Bassman, and Richard H. Speier, son of Mr. and Mrs. Millard R. Speier, was recently announced.

A feature of this year's Brotherhood Dinner will be a presentation to members of the "National Honor Corps," former recipients of the N.C.C.J. brotherhood awards. These include former Mayor John Rosenblatt, Morris E. Jacobs, W. O. Swanson, and Archbishop Gerald T. Bergan of Omaha, Samuel I. Berek of Fremont and Henry K. Peterson of Council Bluffs.

DEVELOPMENT FUND

To clear the way for the further ascension of the Jewish faith in American society and for the essential redemption of the many who can be encompassed in this tabernacle, the Union of American Hebrew Congregations and the Hebrew Union College - Jewish Institute of Religion offer a plan that requires the attainment of $15,000,000 over a three-year period.

The Union and the College-Institute have designated the program for the raising of this sum as "Development Fund for American Judaism."

The name is entirely apt. Having fostered, charged, directed and given new strength to the growth and deepening of the Jewish faith, these pioneer institutions require but the open-hearted support and endorsement of every person of good will to assure the uninterrupted development of a truly God-given way of life.

THANKS

The Board of Trustees wish to express gratitude to Mr. Jack E. Cohen, for his gift of draperies for the office of the Temple's Executive Secretary, and those recently hung in new classrooms No. 107, 108, and 109, the three rooms which are more commonly known as our "multi-purpose" room.

FROM THE CANTOR'S STUDY

In recent weeks Cantor Manfred Kuttner has spoken to several groups—members of Christ the King Lutheran Church, the First Covenant Church, and Cathedral High School. He discussed Jewish customs and music.

He presented a recital of Jewish music at the First Unitarian Church where he also played a viola solo during Easter services.

Cantor Kuttner announces that the newly formed Temple Israel Choral Society is holding weekly rehearsals. "Judging by the enthusiasm of the singers, we can look forward to a fine cultural addition in our congregational life," he said.

Those interested in joining should contact Cantor Kuttner or just come to the rehearsals Monday evenings, from 8:00 to 9:00 p.m. in the Social Hall of Temple Israel.
