Letter of Thanks from

Rabbi and Mrs. Brooks

Words simply cannot do justice to our feelings of gratitude and appreciation to every member of the congregation for the wonderful tribute paid to us at the Congregational Dinner in our honor to mark our tenth year of association with you.

The magnificent coffee service will long beautify and grace our home and will be the constant reminder of our enduring gratitude for the privilege of living and working among you. It will also recall to us the wonderful evening you provided for us. We can only say that we will try, as always, to match your excessive generousities and kindnesses to us with our own increasing devotion to our congregation and to its members and to the high purposes for which it stands.

We hope that each of you will personally accept this expression of sincere gratitude for your magnificent gift, for the lovely anniversary dinner in our honor, and most significantly, your friendship.

Faithfully yours,
Jane and Sidney H. Brooks

SUMMER RELIGIOUS SERVICES

Beginning June 15, regular Sabbath Services will be held in the air conditioned Temple Chapel every Friday evening at 7:30 p.m. These brief and intimate worship services have proven increasingly popular with the congregation over the years.

At each service Rabbi Brooks and Cantor Kuttner will officiate.

During the summer months either Rabbi Brooks or Cantor Kuttner will be in the city at all times to serve the spiritual needs of congregants. Rabbi Brooks or Cantor Kuttner may be reached through the Temple Office at all times. They are most eager to be of service whenever need arises. You need only let the office know you would appreciate their personal visit or counsel.

NEXT TEMPLE TIDINGS IN FALL

With this issue the Temple Tidings discontinues publication for the summer months. The next issue will appear in advance of the High Holidays in the fall.

It has been our privilege to record for readers of the Tidings an eventful year for Temple Israel, including addition of the new wing to the Religious School, addition of a cantor-Hebrew instructor to the dedicated Temple Staff, a new high in Temple membership and many other significant events.

To all, best wishes for a pleasant and joyful summer—and a reminder that you will be richly rewarded by attending the brief but inspirational summer workshop services to be held in the chapel Friday nights, starting Friday, June 15, with Rabbi Brooks and Cantor Kuttner officiating.

—The Tidings Staff
