LETTER FROM THE RABBI

Dear Friends:

Our High Holidays are always more meaningful when we are surrounded by our loved ones and friends. For all of the many expressions of affection and good wishes which we received, Jane and I express our deep and lasting gratitude. The giant Uniongram bearing so many names as well as the multitude of cards and the remembrances of so many made the High Holidays tremendously happy ones for us.

We sincerely reciprocate every good wish you have sent to us and we are grateful to you and to God for your friendship.

Faithfully yours,
Sidney H. Brooks.

FACULTY MEET

Mr. Marion Dodderer, supervisor of Omaha Public Schools Arts and Crafts program, will address the faculty Wednesday, October 26, on "Creative thinking through Arts and Crafts."

SCHOOL DISCUSSED

Mr. Maury L. Schwartz, director of education at Temple Israel, recently met with the faculty of B'nai Israel Synagogue in Council Bluffs. He discussed, "Lesson Planning, Class Procedure and Curriculum."

NURSERY SCHOOL PARENTS

The first meeting of Nursery School Parents will be held Tuesday, October 18, at Temple Israel.

Parents will discuss the Nursery program and activities.

Mrs. Maury Schwartz, Chairman of the Sisterhood Nursery School Committee, announces the following committee appointments:

Mrs. Marlon Somberg—Publicity.
Mrs. Larry Alberts—Car Pool.

Mrs. Leonard Friedel—Special Activities.

The Nursery School celebrated the High Holidays by visiting with Rabbi Brooks in the Sanctuary.

A visit to the Zoo is planned for the future.

"TROUBLE IN MODIN-CITY"

There's "Trouble in Modin-City"—heaps of it with gun-slingin' and Indian war dancing!

And this calls for help from Saturday School cowboys and cowgirls.

Saturday, October 22, is the date to remember.

On that date Saturday School students can try out for a part in the Chanukah play to be presented by the Junior Theatre of Temple Israel—a Western style play.

Bring your lunch and stay to try out for a part in the big show of the year.

The play, a two act musical comedy, "Trouble in Modin-City", is an original script written especially for the Temple Players by Mrs. Robert Rosen, dramatic consultant and director.

The play will be presented city-wide in three performances December 17 and 18.

Any student in the Saturday School division is eligible to try out for a part. The cast will consist of 17 girls and 13 boys.

For further information communicate with Mr. Maury Schwartz or Mrs. Rosen.

NFTY HOLDS CULTURAL

The Temple Israel Youth Group held its first Cultural of the year at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Silverman Sunday, October 9.

Rabbi Sidney H. Brooks led a discussion on "The Living Bible."

All high school students are welcome to NFTY Culturals. Students may phone the Temple Office to make reservations. Dinner follows each of the meetings.

THANKS

The Temple thanks the Pine Tree Hardware for use of the staple gun for construction of the Succah
