"To Gather--To Pray--To Hope"

—A MESSAGE FOR THE HOLIDAYS FROM RABBI BROOKS

Dear Members:

You and I know that our Temple will be filled to capacity on our forthcoming High Holidays. I am not concerned that the Temple will not be filled with people, but that our sanctuary may not be peopled with worshipers. Like everything else, it isn't easy to be reverent, to think spiritually, to be receptive to the religious message of Judaism or to pray when you're out of practice. It takes just as much (should I say "more"?) practice to get a high score spiritually as it does to get a low score at golf. But, as least, we must try.

My purpose, my most consuming desire, on the Holidays, and at every sacred service throughout the year, is not to pray for you, but to worship with you, not to make the service a dramatic exercise at which you are the detached spectator, but to convince you to join with me and the congregation in a mood of mutual searching for God and the proper way to live. We have, in every service, the opportunity to gather together as the faithful of Israel, to pray in the words of our fathers and in the unique expressions of our hearts and then to hope for a better life for ourselves and a higher level of experience with our fellowmen. This is my purpose and goal as your Rabbi.

And, if this be my purpose, my plea is that you make this same purpose yours. Help me to close the distance between us. To put it directly: don't leave your Rabbi and Cantor alone on the pulpit. Join your voices with ours in prayer and song. And let us join you, even in the eloquence of silence when the smallest intruding sound shatters the fragile magic of religious feeling.

Let us gather and pray and hope together. Be with me in spirit as I would be with you. Together let us make our High Holidays — "Yomim Noraim" — awesome, unforgettably wondrous days that shall touch our minds and hearts with renewed courage and new goodness.

Sisterhood to Present "Holiday Song"

Temple Israel Sisterhood will present Rena and Stanley Waxman as featured artists in "Holiday Song", a contemporary play by Patty Chayefsky at the Omaha Community Play House October 28 at 8:30.

The Waxmans, a well known Hollywood dramatic duo, have appeared with such well known artists as Walter Hampton, Helen Hayes, Orson Wells and Katherine Cornell.

This is the single money-raising project of Temple Israel Sisterhood and needs the support of every member. Last year the Sisterhood contributed $1500 to the Religious School, $500 to NFTY, and $1600 for the maintenance and upkeep of the kitchen. Your $10 contribution will not only be a ticket of admission for a very delightful evening for you, and either your husband or a non-member friend, but also will help Sisterhood to continue important work for Temple Israel.

Mrs. Howard Vann and Mrs. Howard Milder are general chairmen of this event. They are assisted by the Mmes. E. E. Makiesky and David M.
