BAR/BAT
MITZVAH SCROLL

Give the Bar/Bat Mitzvah Celebrant the gift which will become a lifetime remembrance.

The personalized parchment scroll with Haftorah portion in Hebrew and English is enclosed in a carved hardwood case, and comes with a blue cloth bag and lucite stand.

Stop in to see the sample on display in the Sisterhood Gift Shop.

UAHC

The UAHC is the largest publisher of Jewish textbooks in North America. As the publishing arm of the Commission of Jewish Education, curricular material for synagogue schools, as well as audio-visual materials and teaching aids are regularly issued by the Union. The publication of high quality educational materials is the core of the publishing program of the UAHC.

In addition, the UAHC regularly publishes trade books of special interest to adults and young people outside the rubrics of the classroom.

The UAHC has been a pioneer in audio-visual education over the years. Its film strips, films, filmloops and other materials are widely used in Jewish schools of all denominations here and abroad.

Each UAHC regional office maintains a complete library of all publications and other educational materials. Books and other materials may be ordered by UAHC affiliated congregations from the Department of Publications, 838 Fifth Avenue, New York, 10021. Book and audio-visual catalogues are available without charge.

THE OVER-VIEW!
DID YOU KNOW:

Rabbi Leonard Schoolman, the Director of Programming of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations, spoke at Temple.

Rabbi Joel Wittstein and Ms. Ailene Avner conducted an in-depth training session for our Religious School teachers. Rabbi Wittstein and Ms. Avner are from the Isaac M. Wise Temple in Cincinnati, Ohio where Rabbi Wittstein serves as Educational Director.

Our own member, Dr. Marilyn Kapel, conducted a seminar in classroom techniques for our teachers.

Walk-in — Drop-in activities and programs with speakers, for older adults were held monthly in our Temple.

“Our Gang”, a new and highly successful Singles Group has had a wide variety of events and will welcome interested participants.

Dr. Sylvan Schwartzman, H.U.C. Professor of Education, addressed the 39th Annual Charles Rosenstock Memorial Institute on Judaism. A record 300 Protestant and Catholic Clergy from our area attended.

A Congregational seder was held the 2nd night of Passover for our members with more than 200 attending.

A demonstration “Seder” was held for the students of the Sunday Division of our Religious School.

Exciting speakers spoke to the Men’s Club and friends one Sunday every month.

To date this season seven converts have been welcomed into the Jewish faith after regular classes with our Rabbis and personal counselling sessions.

Our Temple Youth Group presented a Purim carnival for our younger children.

Each Confirmand was given the opportunity to meet individually with Rabbi Brooks for at least an initial one hour visit. Some scheduled further appointments. The purpose was to educate the young people that a Rabbi is a lifetime resource for confidential help and counsel.

Sisterhood had a successful book sale. This project is in the working stages all year.

Temple activities and services continue as always throughout the summer. The office personnel and rabbinical staff are on duty and available at all times.

Temple music students performed several times throughout the year. Some students are in one of the choirs, others perform Jewish melodies on musical instruments following our services.

Much attention in the way of maintenance and new planting was done at the Temple Cemetery.

A new memorial tablet is now available in the foyer, for members to purchase perpetual memorial plaques for loved ones.

Our two Rabbis are eager to help you in any way they may at any time.
