SISTERHOOD

Temple Israel Sisterhood will hold a 1 p.m. luncheon meeting at the Temple Tuesday, October 16.

The program, presented by the Urban League of Omaha, will be a panel discussion. The topic, "It Ain't Necessarily So," or "Do We as Americans Share the Same God-given and Constitutional Rights?"

The moderator will be Mrs. Margaret St. Clair. Other panel members are Mrs. Clement W. Zandler, Mrs. William H. Johnson, and Mrs. Carl A. Peterson.

A question and answer period will conclude the program.

Temple Program Co-Chairmen of the event are Mrs. Martin Lehr and Mrs. Jack Levin. The Luncheon Chairman is Mrs. Warner Frohman.

THIS IS YOUR LIBRARY

The Temple Library has been reorganized with all books catalogued according to subjects.

A simple procedure has been set up for borrowing books.

To take out a book all a member need do is sign the register; remove the card from the back of the borrowed book; and place in the envelope provided for that purpose. When the book is returned, the member must then sign the register again.

Members are invited to visit their library and use it.

Temple members who have not yet returned books taken from the library in previous years are urged to return them so the volumes will be available for others.

Thanks From:

The members of the 1962 Confirmation Class for the many Uniongrams received in honor of their confirmation.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Richard Wise for the Uniongrams received at the time of their wedding.

Diane Nepomnick and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Al Nepomnick, for the Uniongrams received in honor of her Bas Mitzvah.

CHOIRS

The Junior Choir (Grades 2-4) meets each Sunday at 9 a.m.

The Religious School Choir (Grades 5-10) meets each Saturday at 8:45 a.m.

The Temple Choir meets each Wednesday at 8 p.m.

The Temple Israel Choral Society will resume rehearsals after the High Holidays. Those interested in joining this group are invited to contact Cantor Manfred F. Kuttner. No special knowledge of music is required.

CHAPLAIN ELLENBOGEN HONORED

Lieut. Col. Edward Ellenbogen, deputy staff chaplain of the Strategic Air Command, was awarded an honorary degree of doctor of Divinity from the Hebrew Union College-Jewish Institute of Religion at ceremonies in New York recently. Mrs. Ellenbogen accompanied her husband on the trip.

They also attended a reception in Baltimore in honor of the Chief of Staff of the Israel Air Force, Izra Weitzman, currently on a visit of the United States.

Morris J. Lipp is chairman of the Temple Israel Membership Committee, with Mrs. Edward (Naomi) Levinson vice chairman. Other members are Ted Sanford, Robert Levine and Marty Lehr.

VISITING CHURCHES

"Dear Rabbi Brooks—

"Your Cantor Kuttner did indeed charm our Bible School youngsters from St. Paul Methodist Church (Omaha) last Friday. He not only evoked many intelligent questions, but also sparked a conversation among the teachers at our picnic afterwards. We discussed how grateful we should be—but always aren't—to

UNITED COMMUNITY SERVICE

The 1963 United Red Feather-Red Cross Campaign aims to raise $2,100,000 in operating expense funds for the 58 United Community Service agencies, and $2,000,000 for capital funds for new buildings and improvements of existing facilities.

Many of the UCS services depend on this annual drive for nearly all of their annual operating budgets, and most receive more than half of their budgets from this drive.

Two million dollars for UCS building fund projects is badly needed. Included in the 14 services slated to receive portions of the capital fund, is the Jewish Community Center, scheduled to get $100,000 to assist in completing essential facilities at Camp Esther K. Newman and for the anticipated new Center Building.

Everybody is urged to give.

In Remembrance

Kaddish will be recited for the following departed loved ones whose names are inscribed for perpetual tribute on the Memorial Tablets of our Congregation:
