Five Adult Study and Discussion Groups Planned for Temple Israel

"Where there is no knowledge, there is no understanding, and without understanding, there is no knowledge."

Five adult study and discussion groups will get under way soon at Temple Israel.

Four will be led by Rabbi Sidney H. Brooks and one will be conducted by Cantor Manfred Kuttner.

The program embraces a wide variety of study and discussion for adult members of the Congregation. The five groups are:

1. MEN'S SUNDAY BRUNCH:

This continues a popular tradition with Rabbi Brooks presenting a point of view on significant books, contemporary issues, Jewish values, and debatable questions. Sessions will be held the second Sunday of each month, beginning October 21.

2. SABBATH DISCUSSION SERIES:

The discussions, led by Rabbi Brooks and other prominent men in the community, will stress "The Modern Jew in Ethical Society." Sessions will be conducted after regular Sabbath worship services the first Friday of each month, starting November 2.

3. BIBLE STUDY: To be conducted by Rabbi Brooks, the fall series on "Our Torah Literature" will be held on Thursdays starting November 1, and the spring series on "Further Readings in Isaiah," will be held on five successive Thursdays, starting February 28. Advance registration is required.

4. HEBREW FOR ADULTS:

To be conducted by Cantor Kuttner, beginning Hebrew will be covered on Wednesdays at 1 p.m., starting November 7, to continue through January 30. Advance registration is required.

5. COFFEE AND CONVERSATION:

An hour with Rabbi Brooks, informal conversations about new reading, today's news, views on yesterday. The fall series will be held on alternate Tuesdays—November 6 and 20, and December 4 and 8. The spring series will be on

STARTS SUNDAY

REMINDER: The first of the adult study-discussion groups will start this Sunday—October 21—when Rabbi Brooks opens the Men's Sunday Brunch series.

Come for brunch at 10 a.m. Discussions start at 10:30 a.m.

Sessions are scheduled for the second Sunday of each month.

alternate Tuesdays in March and April.

The Sabbath Discussion Series will be opened by Rabbi Brooks after Sabbath worship Friday, November 2. His topic will be "The Ethics of Religion."

Subsequent discussions, to be led by business and professional men well-known in their respective fields, include:

Morris E. Jacobs on "The Ethics of Advertising," December 7.

Alan J. Blotcky on "The Ethics of Atomic Research," January 4.

Charles Monasee on "The Ethics of Military Power," February 1.

Maurice J. Aresty on "The Ethics of Business," March 1.

Dr. Milton G. Waldbaum on "The Ethics of Medicine," April 5.

For the final session Rabbi Brooks will present a summary and evaluation after Sabbath worship May 3.

TEMPLE ISRAEL TO BE HOST TO DELEGATES FROM 7 STATES FOR UAHC MIDWEST COUNCIL

Rabbi Arthur Lelyveld Will Address Banquet

Temple Members Invited

Delegates from seven states will convene in Omaha for the 8th biennial convention of the Midwest Council of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations October 26-28.

Temple Israel is host to the meeting which will attract leaders of Reform Judaism from Missouri, Kansas, Colorado, Iowa, Nebraska, North Dakota and South Dakota.

Rabbi Arthur Lelyveld, former spiritual leader of Temple Israel, will be the banquet speaker Saturday night, October 27. Rabbi Lelyveld now heads the Fairmount Avenue Temple in Cleveland, Ohio.

The convention, which will hold its sessions in the new Schimmel Inn, has as its theme "Spiritual Foundations of the Space Age."

Delegates will gather for an informal Shabbos dinner at 6 p.m. Friday, October 26, after which they will attend services in which visiting rabbis will participate. An Oneg Shabbat in honor of the delegates will follow in the Temple Social Hall.

After attendance at services Saturday, October 27, the delegates will be guests at a luncheon at the Temple, followed by a seminar on "Propulsion for Prayer in the Space Age." A 6 p.m. reception is planned at the Schimmel Inn.

The convention banquet is scheduled for 7:30 p.m., at the Schimmel Inn, with Rabbi Lelyveld as the principal speaker. UAHC membership certificates will be presented at the banquet to Temples in DuBuque and Burlington, Iowa.

Breakfast for congregational officers is on the program for Sunday morning, October 28. This will be followed by workshops on "The Need to Know in the Space Age," and "The Need to Act in the Space Age."

The Saturday night banquet will give members of Temple Israel an opportunity to hear their former spiritual leader, Rabbi Lelyveld. He was rabbi at Temple Israel from 1941 to 1944, and during that time was active in interfaith and civic life of Omaha. He served as a board member of Family Service, Omaha Urban League and Red Cross. He was chairman of the Omaha Fair Employment Practices and president of the Omaha Zionist Organization. Rabbi Lelyveld became executive director of the committee for Unity of Palestine after leaving Temple Israel and later served as national director of the B'nai B'rith Hillel Foundation. He is one of the founders of the National Federation of Temple Youth.

CONGRATULATIONS NATIONAL MERIT SEMIFINALISTS

Congratulations to Betty Brody, Suzie Makiesky, Neil Miller and Alex Orkow on their selection as semifinalists in the National Merit Scholarship Program. They were among the 43 Omaha high school seniors named semifinalists on the basis of their scores in the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test. All will take the December Board Aptitude Tests from which finalists will be chosen in national competition.

SUCCOS DINNER OCT. 19

A Succos congregational family dinner will be held at Temple Israel October 19 at 6 p.m.

Services will be held at 7:30 in the sanctuary immediately following the dinner.

Adult dinner tickets are $2.00, and children $1.00.

Reservations can be made by calling Temple Office, 556-6536.

Mrs. David Meyers and Mrs. Fredrick Cassman are the Succos dinner co-chairmen.

TEMPLE MEMBERS INVITED

Temple members are invited to all activities of the biennial convention of the Midwest Council of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations.

All are urged to attend the Friday night services (October 26) in which visiting rabbis will participate, and to come to the Oneg Shabbot in honor of the delegates.

Reservations for the Saturday luncheon at 1 p.m., at the Temple Social Hall, and the convention banquet at the Schimmel Inn at 7:30 p.m. Saturday, may be made by calling the Temple office. Elizabeth Hart is reservations chairman for the convention.

RABBI BROOKS LECTURES AT HASTINGS

Rabbi Sidney H. Brooks represented the Jewish Chautauqua Society as lecturer at Hastings College, Hastings, Nebraska. He spoke at chapel at 10:00 a.m., October 11, on "The Faith of the Jew—Where We Differ and Where We Agree With Others."

Rabbi Brooks lectures on college campuses under the auspices of the Jewish Chautauqua Society which strives to create better understanding of Jews and Judaism through education.

Mrs. Brooks Named to NFTS Committee

Mrs. Sidney H. Brooks has been appointed a member of the Biennial Assembly program committee, National Federation of Temple Sisterhoods.

*From Rabbi
and Mrs. Brooks:*

Our High Holidays are always a time of strengthened family ties and friendships. We think of those we love and pray for the welfare of all those with whom our lives are intertwined.

We are deeply grateful to all of you who in so many lovely ways remembered us with your greetings at the Holiday season. For your cards, your magnificent Uniongram, and all the attentions which conveyed your thoughtfulness to us we thank each of you sincerely.

And need we add that we fervently reciprocate every good wish with the added prayer that together in the association of our congregation we shall find new ways spiritually to enrich our lives, to serve our community and to carry on the high traditions of Temple Israel.

With our friendship and our lasting gratitude, we are

Faithfully yours,
Rabbi and Mrs. Sidney H. Brooks

BROTHERHOOD CONVENTION

"Brotherhood Opportunities" will be the theme of the 19th biennial convention of the National Federation of Temple Brotherhoods and the Jewish Chautauqua Society November 8-11 in Baltimore.

Sixty lay and rabbinic leaders will address nine seminars on major problems of brotherhoods in serving its members, the temple, Reform Judaism and the community.

The convention will reevaluate brotherhood purposes and functions and chart a course of new directions to carry them out.

A special program of entertainment for the ladies has been arranged. A one-week post-convention group tour to Nassau has been planned.

TIDINGS FOR COLLEGE STUDENTS

Parents are asked to furnish the Temple Office with the name and college address of college students. Phone the office—556-6536—or drop a note. The Temple office needs the information to send the TEMPLE TIDINGS to YOUR college student.
