Dear Rabbi –

We're Friday-night regulars, but lately it's just been too cold!

While it's no substitute for the warmth of the sanctuary, why not turn to your computer? The UAHC Department of Adult Jewish Growth offers free weekly e-mails or "Torat Hayim" (www.uahcweb.org/torah/), liberal commentary and discussion material on the week's Torah portion.

"Family Shabbat Table Talk" (www.uahc.org/shabbat/), also from the UAHC, provides study materials to help make Shabbat dinner a more thoughtful event.

What do you think? Please let us know. And if you have other favorite Jewish web sites, let's hear from you.

Did you know that sitter service is available

- Every Friday evening at the 6 p.m. service
- Every Saturday morning when there is a bar or bat mitzvah
- Every Sunday morning during Religious School

(Reservations and a $2 donation are appreciated)

Healing

Mi Shebeirakh, the prayer for physical and emotional healing, is recited at the Friday evening Shabbat service. If you are ill and would like a mi shebeirakh recited on your behalf, please call the Temple office (556-6536) before noon, Fridays, so the congregation may offer its prayers for you.

If you know another person who needs the same, please ask the individual for permission to read his/her name before calling the office.

"Yellow Dress" and
"Remote Control"

Plays dealing with dating violence

Students of our Middle and High School department, along with Beth El and Beth Israel Synagogues, will learn about dating and domestic violence with these innovative educational theater programs: The Yellow Dress (grades 9-12) and Remote Control (grades 7-8).

Child Psychologist Dr. Patricia Newman, Chairman of this project, describes the theater productions' goal as "to grab their attention and emotions, then to give them a chance to learn about and discuss the dynamics underlying abusive relationships. Not 'just' physical violence, but verbal and emotional abuse as well. Additionally, we need to provide information for those who need it now and resources for those who will have questions at a later date." Dating violence is clearly a significant problem for today's dating adolescent.

This program is produced and directed by Deana's Fund, a non-profit organization based in Woburn, MA that is dedicated to preventing dating and domestic violence.

The production will be held at the JCC on Wednesday, February 21, followed by a panel of mental health professionals exploring the issue of healthy dating relationships. It is our hope that this program will send a clear message to all our students that any type of violence will not be tolerated and that authority figures are willing to listen and intervene if needed.

These programs are sponsored by the following: Temple Israel, Beth El Synagogue, Beth Israel Synagogue, Pennie Z. Davis Family Life Education Fund, Domestic Violence
Coordinating Council of Greater Omaha, Herbert Goldsten Trust, Jewish Family Service, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Kaslow, Milton
S. and Corinne N. Livingston Foundation,
Nebraska Health and Human Services Child Abuse Prevention Fund Board, National Council of Jewish Women, Murray H. and Sharee C. Newman Supporting Foundation, Harriet Singer, Westside District 66 Schools and the YWCA.
