

CANTOR'S NOTES

Harold I. Firestone

Our Music committee is making very good progress in preparing for Martin Kalmanoff — our Jewish Composer-In-Residence — who will be at Temple Israel to conduct his Shabbat Evening Service, Joy of Prayer on Friday evening, December 2, with Orchestral Instruments and an expanded choir.

Then, on Sunday Afternoon, at 3 p.m., December 4, our annual Chanukah Concert will be presented, with a variety of music including our favorite Chanukah musical arrangements. Our Junior Choir will sing songs from Martin Kalmanoff's cantata, The Feast of Lights.

Our Temple Israel Junior Choir has started off this year with a fine group of children who are enthusiastic about learning shabbat and holiday songs.

The sixth grade has just undertaken their Pre-Bar/Bat Mitzvah study. As we changed the white Torah mantles to the colored ones, we learned about the various adornments such as the Mappah (binder), Yad (pointer), and Rimmonim (pomegranates), the ornaments fixed to the handles at the top of Torah scrolls.

The Collision Between Ethics and Technology

Friday, November 4, 1988

Worship 7:30 to 8:00 p.m.

Panel Discussion 8:00 to 9:00 p.m.

Oneg Shabbat 9:00 p.m.

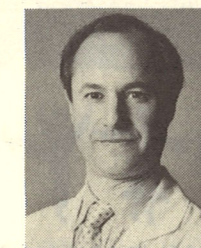

Advances in technology penetrate and dissolve the boundaries of death.

Medicine and science speed past society's understanding and definition of ethics and values.

What is the Jewish understanding of medical ethics?

Today, wondrous medical techniques force us to re-examine our beliefs. What help is available? Where do we seek counsel when we face troubling and bewildering choices? Our panel will discuss these and other contemporary questions of medicine and ethics.

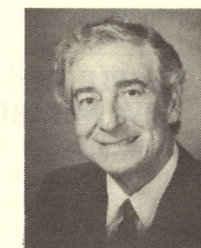

Sidney H. Brooks, Rabbi Emeritus of Temple Israel, will moderate.

Curt I. Civin, M.D., is Associate Professor of Pediatrics and Oncology at Johns Hopkins. A New York Times article recently cited his developing of a cancer antibody.

Toby R. Engel, M.D., is Professor of Medicine at U. of Nebraska College of Medicine. A cardiologist, he lectured on bioethics at Medical College of Pennsylvania.

Larry E. Roffman, M.D., Obstetrician-Gynecologist, is a past president of Clarkson Hospital and served on its Committee on Experimental Drugs and Devices.

TEMPLE WELCOMES ELIZABETH BEAMS AND CHURCH YOUTH

The Reverend Elizabeth B. Beams, Executive Director of the United Methodist Ministries, will bring approximately 100 teens to Temple Israel on October 28.

Their attendance at our Shabbat service is the concluding event in a day-long seminar sponsored by the United Methodist Church.

The Reverend Beams, who produces and hosts WOWT's "Point of View" and "Religion in the News," received the Omaha Jewish Federation's Humanitarian Award in 1988.

We extend a "Shalom" to the Reverend Beams and her students and welcome her to our bima.

"LEARNING SHABBAT"

Saturday, December 3

Livingston Chapel

Led by Rabbi Azriel

Did you ever go to a Shabbat service and wonder what it was all about? Come learn about the origins and the order of our Jewish worship service. Some of the prayers will be read slowly in Hebrew, so their meaning will become clear to you. Don't miss this great opportunity to refresh your knowledge of the Shabbat experience.

TEMPLE HONORS NEW MEMBERS!!

New members of Temple will be honored guests at a Shabbat dinner on Friday, November 11. Membership Chairman, Jerry Hoberman and Co-chairman, Mark Jacobson, urge all congregants to extend their hand in friendship by attending the 8:15 p.m. service and the special Oneg following. Come share an evening of worship and fellowship.

THIS IS A TEST!

What is Tikun Olam?

a) The closing song of Shabbat services

b) An Israeli leader

c) Mending of the world

The correct answer is "c," the mending of the world. It is a Jew's mission, just as it was of Abraham, to be a fixer and a model for future generations. As the Lord said in Genesis 18:19, "For I have singled Abraham out. That he may teach his children and his offspring to keep the way of the Lord by doing what is TZEDAKAH (just) and right."

There are many Jews. There are many ways of being Jewish. But being Jewish has to do with being a fixer. Because the children of Israel were once slaves and strangers in Egypt, we learned how it feels to be wronged and to be alone. We learned to show concern for those who are alone and those in need. WE KNOW THAT BY HELPING OTHERS — WE HELP OURSELVES.

The greatest gift we can give to others is the gift of ourselves. The Temple congregation is forming a most important committee. The Tikun Olam will help repair those less fortunate than we. Locally, nationally, and worldwide, there are people in desperate need of an outstretched arm. A small amount of your time could change the life of someone, provide comfort where there was none, or bring a smile to a child's face.

Won't you please call Debbie Brookstein at 330-3418 or Diane Zipay at 334-1360 and volunteer to serve on the Tikun Olam committee? Or volunteer for Tikun Olam projects?

Next time: What impact can we make? The Story of the Starfish.

CONSULTATION ON CONSCIENCE

Every two years, the Religious Action Center of Reform Judaism hosts its Consultation on Conscience, a national social action conference held in Washington, DC. The caucus rooms of the U. S. Senate and House of Representatives serve as meeting rooms for Consultation participants, who are briefed by nationally-reknowned elected officials and experts on the wide array of issues of concern to the Jewish community.

Some highlights of past conferences, include: Rev. Pat Robertson debating Rabbi Alexander Schindler on church/state relations; Leonard Fein on Religion and Politics; Mary Travers on Sanctuary for Central American Refugees; Dr. Carl Sagan on the Nuclear Arms Race; Mitch Snyder on Homelessness; and Sen. Bill Bradley on Health Care for the Elderly.

This year's conference, which will be held on April 9-11, 1989, will continue this superb tradition. The high-level briefings at the Consultation are designed for concerned members of the Jewish community who desire an exciting, in-depth analysis of the issues confronting our society today. Hundreds of rabbis, educators, social action chairmen, lay leaders and interested members will converge on Capitol Hill for this extraordinary event.

If you would like to be among those representing our Temple at this exceptional conference or require additional information, please call Debbie Brookstein, 330-3418, or Diane Zipay, 334-1360, co-chairpersons of the "Tikun Olam" Committee, or Rabbi Aryeh Azriel, 556-6536.

MEN'S CLUB BRUNCH SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 13

Robert Wolfson, Director ADL/CRC, will be the featured speaker at the Men's Club Brunch, Sunday, November 13 at 10:00 a.m. Be sure to save this date — more information will follow.

SAVE THE DATE!

"FOOD FOR THOUGHT"

The second session of the "Food for Thought" luncheon series will be held Tuesday, November 15, 11:30-1:00 at Temple Israel, in the Milder Center. We will provide the drinks — you bring a Brown Bag lunch.

SISTERHOOD GIFT SHOP

The first light of Chanukah is Saturday, December 3, so plan now to do your shopping early. A new and exciting selection of gifts, gift wrap and decorations for Chanukah (as well as other occasions) is now available.

According to chairmen Margie Kirshenbaum and Bev Gilinsky, the Gift Shop will be open from 10 a.m. to noon every Sunday (except November 27), and from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. weekdays, Monday, November 20 through Friday, December 2.

Please note: we will be closed Thursday, November 24 (Thanksgiving) and Sunday, November 27.

Volunteer help to staff the shop in two or three-hour shifts will be appreciated! If you (or you and a friend) are interested in lending a helping hand, please call Margie Kirshenbaum at 391-5639 or Natha Waldbaum, Ways and Means Vice-President, at 493-9108.

Give Us Something of Great Value . . . Yourself!

You may be of great service to our congregation if you can offer some time and energy to serve us as we try to serve you!

Would you be able to come during school hours? Teach a class? Hold their interest for an hour? A half hour? Are you a doctor, lawyer, accountant, housewife, with a story to tell? A banjo player, singer, professional with an area of expertise, business person with general knowledge, banker, stockbroker, horse trainer, veterinarian?

Do you have slides from a fabulous vacation? Are you knowledgeable in any area of Judaica? Do you have experiences, stories about Jews in other lands, about immigration, about World War II?

Perhaps you are not comfortable in front of a group of people, but you do have the gentle skill to help a child with his Hebrew reading practice. Or, are you interested in volunteering in the Library or helping with a field trip?

We are looking for people to give us just a little of their time. If you have a special talent or an unusual occupation, LET US KNOW!

Call Rabbi Aryeh Azriel or Ann Kibel Schwartz at Temple, 556-6536. We will be waiting for your call!

SISTERHOOD DONOR

Champagne and Classical Music will accompany the Donor Luncheon/Style Show to be held Tuesday, November 8 (Election Day). Kay Weinstein is chairman and Sheila Jacobson is co-chairman for the 12:30 p.m. event which will feature fashions by The Daisy.

Debi Josephson is models chairman, Gail Kohll is in charge of decorations, and Ellen Slosburg is arranging for wonderful door prizes.

If you have not yet returned your reservation and donor check, please do so promptly.

A Moment in Jewish History 50th Anniversary of Kristallnacht November 9, 1988

Kristallnacht (German. "Night of the Broken Glass") — Nazi anti-Jewish outrage committed on November 9-10, 1938. It was officially provoked by the assassination of Ernst Vom Rath, third secretary of the German embassy in Paris, by Herschel Grynszpan, the son of Polish-Jewish parents living in Germany until their deportation to the Polish-German frontier in October, 1938. Vom Rath was shot on November 7 and died in the afternoon of November 9.

Following the Germans' deliberately-engineered atmosphere of tension, widespread attacks on Jews, Jewish-owned property, and synagogues were made throughout Germany and Austria on the night of November 9-10. Many windows were broken and the "Aktion" therefore became known as Kristallnacht.

No complete tally exists of the destruction. . . According to provisional Nazi estimates, 815 shops were destroyed, and 29 warehouses and 171 dwellings were set on fire or otherwise destroyed; 191 synagogues were set on fire and a further 76 completely demolished. Thirty-six Jews were killed and 36 severely injured.

Though the German government attempted to present the "Aktion" as a spontaneous protest on the part of the "Aryan" population, it was, in fact, unleashed very early on the morning of November 10 at the order of the Nazi leaders. . . Kristallnacht marked a turning point in the treatment of German and Austrian Jewry: thereafter, there was no place for them in the German economy, and no independent Jewish life was possible, with the dissolution of cultural and communal bodies and the banning of the Jewish press.

OTYG

Tiffani Sherman

OTYG is planning another fun-filled year for all our paid members. (Hint — Dues are $12.) On Sept. 23, the youth group went to Remington Heights to lead a Shabbat service for the residents. It was such a success that we have been asked to lead services on Oct. 28 at Livingston Plaza. We would like everyone to participate.

On Oct. 29, Rabbi Azriel will conduct an Israeli seminar to prepare the youth group for the upcoming Winter Conclave. Afterwards, the group will attend morning services and eat lunch. Then, OTYG will pick pumpkins to decorate and give to Children's Hospital. Mark your calendar so you won't miss this fun day.

The members of the executive board elected chairmen of Winter Conclave planning committees. The theme is "Eretz Yisrael, A Celebration of Life; Its People, Heritage, and Ideas." If you would like to be on a committee, call a board member.

Remember — Winter is in Omaha, Dec. 23-28. Western Fall is Nov. 4-6 in Wichita.

If anyone has questions concerning the youth group please call Keri at 334-1014 or Marcia at 592-2625.

THE CARING COMMITTEE STAYS IN ACTION

"It was very special having a Shabbat service brought to us." "I couldn't attend Yom Kippur services and was happy to hear the Shofar sounded." "Shaking the Lulav and smelling the Erog took me back lots of years." "When will you be back?"

These were some of the comments made by residents of Remington Heights after the Shabbat Service, September 23. Rabbi Azriel met each of the residents and spoke informally with them before the Youth Group conducted the Shabbat service they had written.

Of special meaning for those attending the service was saying Kaddish, lighting the Shabbat candles, hearing Kiddush and sipping the wine.

We plan a return visit to Remington for a Chanukah and Shabbat service, December 3.

There will be a Shabbat service for residents at Livingston Plaza on October 28 at 4 p.m.

In addition, committee members are formulating plans to assist home-bound senior adults.

5th GRADE SHABBAT DINNER AND SERVICE

Fifth-graders and their families will enjoy a Shabbat dinner and service on Friday, November 18. Students will take an active role in the service which is designed with 5th graders in mind.

After the special family service, the 5th graders will stay until 11 p.m. for an "undernight." This informal learning experience is a most enjoyable way to build upon the classroom curriculum.

Dinner is at 6 p.m.; the special family service is 7 to 7:30 p.m.

The congregational Shabbat service will be held at the usual time, 8:15 p.m.

EDUCATIONAL PERSPECTIVES

Ann Kibel Schwartz
Director of Education

On the opening days of Hebrew School, our students discovered a treasure of Hebrew letters. The students were divided into teams and given clue cards that included English, Hebrew, and a few Yiddish words. To solve the clues, they needed to draw upon their knowledge of the layout of the Temple building and the special people, activities, and ritual objects within its walls. Our students are very clever! The teachers and teaching assistants had a hard time keeping up with the fast pace of the children as they solved each clue and completed the treasure hunt.

What was their goal, the object of their search? Beautiful pieces of Hebrew type made from wood, the kind used in old-style printing presses. They had been donated to the religious school by a member who owned a printing business. May I bless him for saving them all these years. Instead of discarding them, he remembered our Hebrew students. Because of his sense of the value for old and beautiful things, another bridge has been built from the past to the future.

We plan to use these letters in our newly refurbished HEBREW LEARNING CENTER. For years to come, young students will enjoy printing with these beautiful Hebrew letters as a reinforcement to their Hebrew reading practice. They will also be able to enjoy listening to Hebrew tapes in the new carrels built by another member. The new Computer and Hebrew software will be another attractive incentive to study. These were provided by the donations of many members in recent years.

The "new and improved" HEBREW LEARNING CENTER will be open for viewing at the Parents Open House on Sunday, November 6, 10 a.m. to noon. Come see our "Hebrew Treasure" for yourselves.

Meanwhile, we must remember we have a Treasure even greater than wood, computer chips or gold. This treasure is the Jewish heritage of Hebrew, Torah, and Caring that we pass on from one generation to the next.
