Scholar-in-Residence Dr. Reuven Firestone “Judaism, Christianity and Islam in Dialogue and Dissent” Friday, November 16 - Sunday, November 18

This month the Hermene Zweiback Center for Lifelong Jewish Learning is proud to host Dr. Reuven Firestone as our scholar-in-residence. He is an ordained Rabbi and also has a Ph.D. in Arabic and Islamic Studies. A professor at Hebrew Union College in Los Angeles and at the University of Southern California, his most recent book, The Children of Abraham: An Introduction to Judaism for Muslims is part of The American Jewish Committee's (AJC) major project in Muslim-Jewish relations. A companion volume by Khalid Duran entitled The Children of Abraham: An Introduction to Islam for Jews was published simultaneously.

The sponsorship by the AJC of these two books connotes the special moment in which Jews and Muslims in the United States find themselves. We are part of a tentative, cautious and hopeful relationship that is in its early stages. While we share a common Patriarch, our faith traditions have unfolded in different directions. Most of us, as Rabbi Eric Yoffie has pointed out, know little about one another's beliefs and religious practices. In addition, for American Jews, our appropriately unwavering fealty to the State of Israel and our resolve of “Never Again” in response to the horror of the Holocaust temper any stance we might have toward our faith partners. At the same time, across the United States there is a movement among Jews, Muslims and Christians to “keep foreign feuds and ancient rivalries outside the American equation, minimize conflict among each other in the United States, learn about each other, and make contributions to a national life that has so often been identified simply with Christianity¹.”

Our preparation for his visit has already begun with a special four part series entitled Know Thy Muslim Neighbor led by Rabbi Azriel and members of the Omaha Muslim community. We invite you to attend the final session on Wednesday, November 14, Noon at Temple Israel. We hope to see you during the Scholar-in-Residence weekend.

Sincerely,
Gary S. Marshall
Chair, Adult Education Committee

Thanksgiving Interfaith Service

Sunday, November 18, 7:30 p.m.
First Christian Church
6630 Dodge Street

The annual Thanksgiving Interfaith Service, a combined effort on the part of First Christian Church, Dundee Presbyterian Church, First United Methodist Church, St. Margaret Mary Church, Underwood Hills Presbyterian Church and Temple Israel, has been moved to the Sunday night before Thanksgiving.

Reverend Rene Jensen of First Christian Church said, "the theme for this year's service is Thanksgiving for the Small, Everyday Blessings." Reverend Jane Florence, the new pastor at First United Methodist Church, will give a holiday message at the service which will feature the combined choirs, including Temple's Kol Rina, of the participating congregations. Reverend Jensen mentioned that "Holy Ground," a contemporary version of which Barbra Streisand sang, and "All Good Gifts" from the musical "Godspell" will be among the selections the choirs will sing. In addition, members of the Shofar Choir will blow the shofar.

There will be room for overflow parking across the street from the church on the University of Nebraska at Omaha campus.

A cookie and punch reception, hosted by all the congregations, will follow the service. If you are interested in helping bake, please contact Sandy Passer, 330-4289.

Fifty-Year Members Take a Look Back

Florence and Fred Hauss were married in 1945. The native New Yorkers moved to Omaha from Boston right after their wedding. They joined Temple Israel in 1947. Fred, a vice president at Brandeis, was also the merchandise manager at the downtown landmark department store for about ten years. The couple later opened New York Deli and Cheese World at 105th and Pacific Street.

Florence said, "She always belonged to a Reform congregation. Temple Israel was a continuation of my beliefs and associations. I love the services and I do partake in the holidays." One of her favorite memories at Temple is her son David's Bar Mitzvah. But "it's the little things" that have meant the most to her and are the reason she has remained a member of the congregation for 60 years.

Temple Israel's Chanukah Social Justice Project

You Can Help Save A Family!

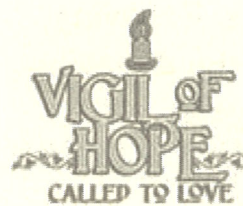

"Nothing But Nets" (visit nothingbutnets.net) is raising money to purchase bed nets that are treated with insecticide that kills mosquitoes. Malaria is killing more than one million kids a year mostly in African countries which lack the infrastructure and resources to fight mosquitoes which transmit the disease.

Temple Israel's Chanukah social justice project will be $10 (or more) donations for "Nothing But Nets." One $10 net is a "low-tech" way to save a life. The Union for Reform Judaism is a partner with "Nothing But Nets." Please bring your donation to the Chanukah Dinner or to the Temple office.

Welcome New Member!

Tamara Meyers

Omaha native and Temple Israel Religious School alumna, Tamara recently joined the family business – Nebraska Warehouse, after a stint as a special education teacher. She decided it was time to become a Temple member in her own right. She hopes to be involved in our Middle/High School so she can continue to work with young people.

Ruth and Bernard Raskin Fund Subsidizes Youth Activities

Bernard (Bernie) Raskin, the son of a socialist who fled pre-revolutionary Russia and the nephew of one of the state of Israel's founders, was born in Chicago. Ruth Raskin's father fled Russia to avoid being drafted into the Czar's army. Ruth was born in Council Bluffs. The two married in 1942.

They moved to Omaha in 1960 when Bernie joined his relatives Ted and Millard Seldin and Stanley Silverman in the Seldin realty business.

Bernie became a lawyer. "Matters of the head occupied him," said his daughter Betsy Raskin Gullickson. He attended study groups at the synagogue and was involved in the Anti-Defamation League. According to Gullickson, "Ruth turned a passion for beauty into a business." She opened a design store when she was 53 and ran it successfully until she retired at age 77.

Ruth and Bernie had two daughters: Gullickson, who lives near San Francisco, and Andrea M. Booth of South Dakota. In addition, the Raskins had three grandchildren, one a rabbi, and five great grandchildren. Bernie died in 1996 followed by Ruth ten years later.

A fund to help support youth activities including youth group, Religious School activities and Jewish summer camp experiences was established by the Raskins who were members of Temple Israel from 1960 to 1997. Gullickson said Rabbi Aryeh Azriel has remained close to the Raskin family.

Gullickson said, "Together, her parents sought to give back, believing that people need more than the bare necessities." The couple welcomed Soviet Jews by helping furnish apartments for the newcomers. "And they established funds fostering talents and giving grants to kids who would otherwise miss out on special activities" as diverse as a plane ticket to attend a youth group event, or perhaps, simply a prom dress.

Contributions to the Raskin Youth Fund or any other Temple fund are always welcome and provide support for numerous Temple activities. Please contact the Temple office if you wish to make a donation.

Temple Members Among Federation Honorees

Temple Israel member Mimi Silverman has been named by the Jewish Federation of Omaha as the recipient of this year's Lois Jeanne Schrager Memorial Young Leadership Award. Mimi was honored at "A Musical Cabaret" on October 25 at the Jewish Community Center.

George Quittner, another Temple member, was selected by the Jewish Press as one of two volunteers of the year and was honored with the other Federation volunteers at a reception on September 25.

Matin Chaim: The Gift of Life

When you become an organ donor, you join the thousands who have placed themselves in a position to bring healing, hope and life to others. Medical technology has given us the means to dignify, sanctify and sustain lives in ways that were impossible just a few years ago. You can bring that technology a response of joy, purpose and life.

Do other movements with Judaism agree with organ donation?

Yes. The value of "p'kuach nefesh" (the saving of life) underscores this belief within our entire community, regardless of denomination affiliation.

Men's Club

Get an Inside Look at Nebraska University Football

Sunday, November 11, 10 a.m.

If you just can't get enough on what's going on in the athletic department at the University of Nebraska at Lincoln, Omaha World-Herald sports staff writer, Mitch Sherman, will give "An Inside Look at the Current State of Nebraska Football" at the Men's Club program at Temple Israel.

Mitch, a member of Temple, has been with the World-Herald full-time since 1998 after interning at the Omaha Daily in 1996 and working as a correspondent during his last year of college in 1997. He covers football, baseball and the College World Series.

"Covering Tom Osborne's three national championship teams while I was in college and the subsequent tumultuous period that followed in football" including the coaching shakeup of 2003-04 were among the highlights of his career. He also counts Nebraska baseball's "rise to prominence and the recent successes of Alex Gordon and Joba Chamberlain at the major league level" exciting events in his writing career.

This talk is open to the community.

And The Temple Tapestry Continues To Grow...

"The Shabbat candle lighting theme was chosen for this tapestry block to exemplify this beautiful Jewish ritual. I remember my mother and my grandmother lighting Shabbat candles and I lit Shabbat candles with my own daughters and continue to light them with my grandchildren when we are together.

The poem, "First a Spark", by Sandy Eisenberg Sass, speaks to this theme. "Another generation's candlesticks receive the next generation's lights." The candlesticks on the block are an artist's rendition by my grandson of my grandmother's candlesticks which my mother used and even now continue to receive the next generations' lights."

HAPPY CHANUKAH!

Chanukah Service for the Home

These two blessings are recited each night:

Ba-ruch-a-tah A-doh-nai Eh-lo-hay-nu me-lech hah-oh-lahm ah-sheh kid shah-nu b'mitz-voh-tav v-tsee-vah-nu l-had 'leek nayr shel-Chan-nu-kah.

Blessed is the Lord our God, Ruler of the universe, Who hallows us with His Mitzvot, and commands us to kindle the Chanukah lights.

Ba-ruch-a-tah A-doh-nai Eh-lo-hay-nu me-lech hah-oh-lahm she-ah-sah ni seem lah-ah-vo-tay-nu bah-yah-meem ha-haym baz-man hah-zeh.

Blessed is the Lord our God, Ruler of the universe, Who performed wondrous deeds for our ancestors in days of old, at this season.

The following blessing is added on the first night of Chanukah only:

Ba-ruch a-tah A-doh-nai Eh-lo-hay-nu me-lech hah-oh-lahm she-heh-che-yahnu v'kee-y'mah-nu v'hi-gee-yah-nu lah-z'mahn hah-zeh.

Blessed is the Lord our God, Ruler of the universe, for giving us life, for sustaining us, and for enabling us to reach this season.

First Night Prayer - These Chanukah lights are in memory of the dedication and courage of the Maccabees. Believing that they should be free to worship God, they gave their lives for freedom. Now kindling these candles we rededicate ourselves to work for the equal rights of all people and for a world of democracy and freedom.

Second Night Prayer - Tonight, as we celebrate Chanukah together, we are conscious of our precious gift of family and friendship. So often we take one another for granted, forgetting to express our love and devotion. As we kindle these festive lights, let us rededicate ourselves to sharing our interests and time with one another. Like the Maccabees of old, let us always face the tribulations and the joys of life united by our family bonds. May our love for one another increase from strength to strength.

Third Night Prayer - On this third night of Chanukah, we rededicate ourselves to the study of our tradition. As the Maccabees courageously fought to preserve our faith, we too are bound to sustain our heritage by deepening our understanding of it. By increasing our knowledge of Judaism, we become more sensitive to its values. Study opens our minds and strengthens us against tyranny. Learning secures our freedom. As we kindle these candles, let us rededicate ourselves to the study of our tradition.

Fourth Night Prayer - Our ancestors have taught us that in hope a person's future is illuminated and made creative. Ours are times when many live in fear, loneliness and great despair. Like the Maccabees, we need to build our lives on hope that ultimately truth will triumph. Now, as we kindle these Chanukah lights, may our lives be strengthened by the hopes and dreams of Judaism.

Fifth Night Prayer - Our tradition tells us of the importance of light. Through the darkness of thousands of years in exile, our people clung to a beacon of hope of a Promised Land. And now across thousands of miles that beacon burns brightly on our horizon once again. Eretz Yisrael, the state of Israel, the homeland, the hope. Tonight's candles remind us that we are part of K'lal Yisrael, the Jewish people, and that there is not only brightness in our home, but as well in the homes of our people in Israel. May these lights make the beacons of our future burn ever so brightly.

Sixth Night Prayer - The candles of Chanukah remind us of our mission as Jews. Like the Maccabees, we seek to rededicate ourselves to the service of God. Today, one of our foremost tasks is to secure peace in our troubled world.

When we end disagreements through mutual understanding, when we seek to mend hurt feelings, we are beginning to do our part in making peace a living ideal. As we kindle our Chanukah candles, let us rededicate ourselves to the task of securing peace.

Seventh Night Prayer - The unity of all people is founded upon a total respect for the liberty and freedom of all. The Maccabees of old sought to protect themselves when their rights were violated. Our Chanukah lights serve as a reminder that humanity is secure only when we honor the precious liberty and property of each other. As we kindle these lights, let us rededicate ourselves to the cause of unity which alone can bring dignity to all people.

Eighth Night Prayer - Tonight we kindle all the candles of our Chanukah. Throughout the centuries the Chanukah has been a symbol of our faith. Like the Maccabees, we rededicate ourselves to the living of a more meaningful Jewish life. We pray that in the coming year we may fulfill the ideals of freedom, charity, family, study, hope, peace and unity, of which are symbolized by the candles of our Chanukah.

Make a New Tradition With Chanukah Gelt

The simple tradition of giving gelt (money) at Chanukah can become a wonderful learning opportunity. Teaching our youth about the value of money, what to do with it and how to change the world with it can become an integral part of your celebration.

Here is a new way to give gelt to a child:

- Give one coin or bill to enjoy.
- Give one coin or bill to give away.
- Give one coin or bill to invest in the future.

Will It Be Applesauce or Sour Cream?

How to Play Dreidel

Everyone in the game starts with 10 or 15 pennies (nuts, raisins, etc.). Each player puts one of these objects in the middle (called the pot). The dreidel is spun by one player at a time. Whether the player wins or loses depends on which face of the dreidel is up when it falls.

- Nun (נ) means nisht or "nothing." The player does nothing.
- Gimmel (ג) means gantz or "all." The player takes everything in the pot.
- Hay (ה) means kalb or "half." The player takes half of what is in the pot.
- Shin (ש) means shtetl or "put in." The player adds two objects to the pot.
- When only one object (or none) is left in the pot, every player adds one.
- When an odd number of objects are in the pot, the player rolling Hay takes half of the pot plus one.
- When one person has won everything, the game is over.

Teddy Bears, Shema, Tot Shabbat and Miss Bettie!

Bring your teddy bears to this month's Tot Shabbat on November 9 at p.m. in the Livingston Chapel.

Tot Shabbat is a young child-oriented worship service that brings a Shabbat experience to our youngest congregants and their families. This service is designed for newborns through second grade-aged children - of course, older siblings are invited, too! The monthly service held in the chapel includes songs, Bar'chu and Shema, Torah Hakafah, a story and the blessing for our children.

We have several new additions this year to Tot Shabbat. Not only will each service have a theme and activity, but we will be using musical instruments at each. Dinner and an art project follow. November's theme and art project is "Don't Forget to Say the Shema."

And, we are excited to announce that Miss Bettie (Adams), formerly a teacher with the Child Development Center at the J.C.C., will help guide us through the songs and prayers. Miss Bettie is currently a media specialist at Westside Middle School, and is the young child specialist at Temple Israel.

Everyone is invited to attend the service, but reservations are needed for the dinner. Contact the Temple Israel office at 556-6536 or mkube@templeisraelomaha.com. The cost is $5.00 per adult and children eat at no charge.

Middle/High School Klezmer Band to Play at Shabbat Service Friday, November 30, 7:30 p.m.

You can hear them practicing on Wednesday evenings in the sanctuary. Under the direction of Tuffy Epstein and Linda Marcoe, a Ralston Public Schools music teacher, nine students are learning new forms of music, how klezmer evolved, and how it is appreciated by today's musicians.

This promises to be a memorable Shabbat that the entire congregation will find meaningful and enjoyable.

Students to Compete in Community Bible Quiz Tuesday, December 11, 7 p.m.

Studying the books of Exodus and Ruth, 12 Temple high school students are preparing with Rabbi Eric Linder for the 22nd Annual Edward Zorinsky B'nai B'rith Bible Quiz. The contest will be at the Jewish Community Center and is open to all Omaha high school students in grades nine through 12.

What's Chanukah Without the Latkes?

Sunday, December 9, Noon-2 p.m.
Come learn how to prepare everyone's favorite holiday treat. Bring your appetite!

Are You Interested in Becoming a "Traffic Bee"?

The traffic situation during Religious School hours on Sundays and Wednesdays has become impossible. In an attempt to create a caring and safe environment, we are asking for volunteers to help direct traffic on Sundays at 9:45 a.m. (arrival time) and 11:45 a.m. (dismissal time), as well as Wednesdays at 5:45 p.m.

What is in it for YOU? YOU have an opportunity to socialize and meet new people, and do a mitzvah at the same time. As an extra added touch, there will be bagels and coffee on Sunday mornings, and a dinner on Wednesday evenings.

If interested, please contact the Religious School office at 556-6536 or school@templeisraelomaha.com.
