GUEST PREACHER

MR. MAX FRANKEL, Advisor, Western Council, MoVFTY

WELCOME MoVFTY FALL CONCLAVETTE DELEGATES,
November 22-25, for which Temple Israel Youth Group is host, and for which the Conclavette theme is “Justice Is Truth in Action.”

Midwest Council Elects Officers

Millard Krasne, president of Temple Israel Congregation, was elected a vice president of the Midwest Regional Council of the Union of Hebrew Congregations at the close of its biennial convention in Omaha October 28. Temple Israel was host to the convention which attracted 130 delegates from Reform congregations in seven states.

Basil Kaufman of St. Joseph, Mo., was reelected president. Aside from Mr. Krasne, other vice presidents elected include Irvin Atlas of Kansas City, Morris Kahn of Des Moines, Jacob Kapman of Denver, Louis Hurwitz of Sioux Falls, Meyer Alter of Davenport, and David J. Albert of Sioux City.

Many Temple Israel members attended the sessions of lay and rabbinic leaders from 29 Reform Congregations. Rabbi Arthur J. Lelyveld of Cleveland, a former spiritual leader of Temple Israel, addressed the convention banquet. Many of the rabbis were invited by Rabbi Sidney H. Brooks to participate in Friday night and Saturday sabbath services.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE

Ten members of the Faculty of Temple Israel attended the Teacher Training Institute in Kansas City on Sunday, November 11.

The institute, held at Congregation B'nai Jehudah, was conducted by Sam Rosenkrantz of Temple Israel, St. Louis, Missouri.

"Bible Instruction" was the subject of the morning session.

Luncheon was served by the Sisterhood of B'nai Jehudah, following which Cantor Garber led a session on "Music in the Religious School Program."

Mr. Rosenkrantz conducted a second session in the afternoon on "Teaching Reform Judaism."

Members of Temple Israel Faculty who attended were: Mmes. Englander, Saltzman, Bleicher, Whitman, Lipman, Abrams, Makiesky, Miss Ida Gitlin, Mr. Mor-

Temple Youth Group To Observe Sabbath

A "Temple Youth Sabbath" will be observed at Temple Israel Friday evening, Nov. 23.

Temple Youth Group members will participate to mark the fall conclave of the Western Council of the Missouri Valley Federation of Temple Youth (MoVFTY).

Mr. Max Frankel, advisor of the Western Council, will be guest preacher at the evening services.

Delegates from Temple youth groups in Iowa, Kansas, Missouri, Colorado and Nebraska will begin arriving in Omaha November 22 for the Conclave which will continue until November 25. Temple Israel's Youth Group will be host to the meeting, with all sessions to be held at the Temple.

"Justice Is Truth in Action" is the Conclave's theme. Activities include religious services, cultural, committee meetings and the general meeting. The Conclave banquet will be held Saturday evening, November 24.

CHORAL SOCIETY

The Temple Israel Choral Society, which had its start last season, resumes rehearsals Monday, November 19, from 8 to 9 p.m.

Cantor Kuttner, who conducts the group, announces there are still openings in each section of the group and anyone is welcome to join for an hour of singing.

Rehearsals will be held in the Social Hall of the Temple.
