Shabbat Shuva

Reconsecration Service

Friday, October 6
8 p.m.

The Shabbat between Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur, known as the "Sabbath of Return," marks the renewal of the covenant with God.

On Shabbat Shuva, Temple Israel offers the family an opportunity to introspectively examine and evaluate its priorities and directions. The renewal of family life emerges from the traditions and creative liturgy of this most sacred Shabbat.

Tashlich – October 7

Join us this year for Temple Israel's Tashlich ("you will cast") service.
Participants symbolically cast sins, represented by bread crumbs, into a running stream.

There is a long precedent in Judaism for using symbolic physical gestures as a token of ridding oneself of sins. The Torah describes a ritual of symbolically transferring our sins onto a goat which was then sent off into the wilderness (hence, the term "scapegoat").
Centuries after this practice was discontinued, Tashlich became popular.

October 7, after Saturday morning Shabbat services, we will go together to the newly improved Elmwood Grotto to hold a short service and "cast our sins into the depths of the sea."

Renewal/Healing Service

Yom Kippur is a perfect time to reflect on the areas of our lives which are in need of healing and renewal.
We will join together at 4:15 p.m. for this special meditative service before the Yizkor memorial service to contemplate our challenges and to gather strength and peace and a fresh perspective.

Accompanied by harp and flute music, this service brings enlightening readings on healing and renewal to the Yom Kippur day. If illness or loss has touched your life this year, we particularly encourage you to come soak up the strength this service offers.

Yizkor Service

Our Yizkor Service immediately follows the Renewal/Healing Service.

We would appreciate it if those persons who know they will be leaving before Neilah (our concluding service) will sit in the rear of the sanctuary.
Your willingness to sit in areas of easy exit will minimize disturbances to the congregants who remain.

The sanctuary fills quickly, so come early, as we dance, sing, and begin "In the beginning..." once again.

After the service, enjoy the continued "Fraylach" sounds of the Fabrangens Fiddlers in our Social Hall.

CONSECRATION Friday, October 20 7 p.m. Worship

Kindergarteners and older students who have never been consecrated will participate in the special Simchat Torah service that formally recognizes their families' commitment to Jewish education.

Each child receives a miniature Torah and flag from the congregation and is called to the bimah, with his/her parents, for a blessing by Rabbi Azriel. Continuing a tradition at Temple Israel, parents will design and create a unique Torah mantle for their child. Later, children and parents join the congregation in the joyous boisterous Hakafot (processions) around the sanctuary.

The Sukkot and Simchat Torah worship will be enhanced again this year by the magnificent Sukkah built and given by the late Ajon Farber and adorned beautifully by Bakers Florists.

TIYPO

TIYPO (Temple Israel's Young Progressive Organization) is gearing up for its second year! Temple members in their 20s and 30s are invited to attend services, celebrate holidays, do social service activities, and, most importantly, have fun with their Jewish peers. Members are both single and married, parents or not parents.

The past 12 months was a great inaugural year for TIYPO. Our various activities included hosting Havdalah services, learning Jewish folk dancing and a pre-Passover eat-all-the-leavening-you-can-before-it's-too-late family pizza party. Throughout the year, participants met other Temple members and created new friendships with the shared devotion to Judaism.

This year, TIYPO is moving in a new direction. Rather than have a few activities over 12 months, TIYPO will have more, less programmed, events throughout the year.

With this in mind, TIYPO will celebrate Shabbat together once a month. We will sit together in the sanctuary on the second Friday of each month.

The next activity planned for TIYPO is a potluck dinner and service with the congregation on October 13 to celebrate Sukkot. All are invited! See article on page 5.

Anyone who would like more information about TIYPO may call Linda and Kevin Saltzman at 964-9013.

Middle/High School Footnotes

Elyce Azriel, Director

Middle School Tikkun Olam Days

Our Middle School students will continue the mitzvot that they have already begun in the preparations for their Bar and Bat Mitzvah with our two scheduled "Tikkun Olam Days."

Students and faculty members will spend October 18 trying to make the world a better place. The school's Tikkun Olam Day is aiming to fulfill the Jewish mandate to repair the world by participating in the ongoing process of performing acts of social justice. Helping us with our "acts of loving kindness" will be Paul Koch from the Sienna Francis House, who will moderate a dialogue with our students on "HOW DO YOU FIX THE WORLD?" Students will also participate in an off-site tikkun olam activity for the House.

This is a unique opportunity for our students to put into practice Jewish values and traditions which they have studied and acquired.

Bible Quiz

Each year, B'nai Brith sponsors a local Bible contest for all students in the Omaha congregational high schools. The purpose of the quiz is to encourage Jewish youth to become more familiar with their heritage - the Bible.

Prior to the Wednesday evening contest December 13, participants are asked to attend five study sessions with Rabbi Azriel. These sessions will help the students familiarize themselves with the assigned books, chapters from Leviticus and Numbers, and Megilat Esther.

Awards are four cash prizes that can be applied toward college or Jewish camp tuition. But the ultimate reward is to intensely study Torah!

If the study of Torah intrigues you, give it a shot - you'll learn a lot! Call Elyce Azriel, at the Temple office, 556-6536, for dates of the study sessions and to reserve your spot for the study of Torah.

Grade 7 to 12

Wednesday, October 25

7-8:30 p.m.

Library

Prior to our November 1 workshop with Dr. Mark Singer (see article this page) we will meet to discuss Lost Boys: Why Our Sons Turn Violent and How We Can Save Them.

The author, James Garbarino, Ph.D., addresses a wide range of issues about the temperament of children as they develop.

He outlines the steps parents, teachers and public officials can take to keep all children safer. He gives hope and many solutions for turning our kids away from violence, before it is too late.

Marian Wright Edelman, President of the Children's Defense Fund, says, "James Garbarino sounds the alarm about the spread of youth violence, a warning we must heed and respond to on behalf of our sons and daughters, our nephews and nieces, our students and neighbors. Focusing on the hurt and social alienation that are at the heart of youth violence, he offers not only insight and compassion, but also steps that will lead to prevention and intervention."

Facilitators for the evening are Rabbi Debbie Stiel, Lee Needelman and Sally Kaplan, L.C.S.W.

To purchase the book or reserve a "chair," please call Lori Bennett at 556-6536 (after hours, ext. 30).

A Parents-Only Workshop

Especially geared for parents of children in Grades 5 to 12

Wednesday, November 1

6:45-8:30 p.m.

Temple Israel

Speaker is Mark Singer, Ph.D.

We have all heard that too much exposure to violence can have a detrimental effect on our children. Come hear an expert share with you the psychological effects of children's exposure to violence.

Dr. Singer is a professor of Social Work and Director of the Mandel Leadership Fellows Program at the Mandel School of Applied Social Sciences at Case Western University.

He has extensive clinical and administrative background in youth services, including directing two adolescent psychiatric units.

Dr. Singer has published books and numerous articles on violence and victimization among children.

He will share what is happening to our children as their exposure to TV, movies, video games and the internet are expanding. He will offer ways we adults can take proactive steps to help our children.

This program is not appropriate for children.

Dr. Singer's appearance is graciously funded by The Lazier L. Singer Memorial Fund, in association with Jewish Family Service, Beth El and Beth Israel.

Fourth graders will meet once a month at the Blumkin Home for their regular class, 10:15 - 11:45 a.m. The difference in time will allow parents to transport other siblings to Temple Israel. Future dates to put on your calendar are: November 12, December 10, February 25, March 25 and May 6.

Parents not attending the worship assembly are asked to pick up their child(ren) in the Sanctuary at noon.

Saturday Morning Bagels and Bible Study:

The Book of Ecclesiastes

Join us on Saturdays from 9:30-10:15 a.m. in the Milder Center for bagels and a chance to delve into different books of the Bible.

Over the course of this year, we will study the books that are connected to upcoming holidays. Between holidays we will study some of the Minor Prophets.

This year we will read Amos, Micah, Jonah, Ecclesiastes, Maccabees (extra-Biblical), Song of Songs and more.

Rabbis Azriel and Stiel, along with guest scholars, will lead these in-depth text studies.

Come join our regular group of 20 to 30 fun-loving, motivated adult students.

This month (because of the holidays we will meet only October 7 and 28) we will study the book of Ecclesiastes which is traditionally read during Sukkot. Ecclesiastes is one of three books in our Bible that are part of the genre known as "wisdom literature." The book has a lot to teach; please come and explore it with us.

Men's Forum Scheduled for November 12, 2000

In 1999, a Women's Symposium was offered to the women of Omaha's Jewish Community. This symposium, sponsored by Jewish Family Service, was greeted with great enthusiasm and was an outstanding success. With this in mind, JFS and several community volunteers decided to offer a parallel experience for Jewish men. The first Men's Forum will be held at the Marriott Hotel on Sunday, November 12 from 9:30 a.m. - 2:30 p.m.

The Forum will include a keynote presentation by noted speaker Michael Diamond, Ph.D. He will present: "Good Enough Fathering."

Dr. Diamond is a clinical psychologist who specializes in masculine gender identity issues.

There will also be smaller group discussions led by community leaders. These include: "How to be a Politically Involved Jew" by Harlan Noddle and David Kotok; "Family Business Dynamics" by Jeff and Joe Kirshenbaum and Todd and Fred Simon; "Significant Emotional Moments in Jewish Men's Relationships" by Steve Skulsky; and "Making a Difference Through Volunteerism and Philanthropy" by Jay Noddle and Jerry Hoberman. A panel discussion pertaining to these issues, led by Omaha rabbis, will close the day.

The Forum is generously supported by the Pennie Z. Davis Family Life Education Fund and the Herbert Goldsten Trust.

Reservations can be made by sending a check for $18.00 to Jewish Family Service at 333 South 132nd Street, Omaha 68154 or call 330-2024.
