AS I SEE IT

I want to remind you that every youngster and family celebrating a Bar/Bat Mitzvah at Temple Israel must make a moral commitment to continue in the Religious School, at least through 10th grade Confirmation. And I want to tell you why.

First — we believe that no 13-year-old is able to make a personal, intellectual commitment to remain Jewish. But 10th grade high school students are old enough. Rabbi Brooks and I can't discuss the big questions with 13-year-olds — such as, "Is there a God?" "Why is there suffering in the world?", "Is there life after death?" But we can delve deeply into those questions with sophomores. Stopping at Bar/Bat Mitzvah leaves a child with only childish Jewish knowledge. If it happened to you, you know what I mean.

Second — during the first two years of high school, youngsters set life-time patterns of friendships. Therefore, it's exactly the time when they need Jewish contacts the most. Being in our Wednesday night school with other Jewish teens, socially, as well as in the class, is the best insurance we can offer about their Jewishness, even their Jewish marriage and family-raising as adults.

Third — when kids are Confirmed, the rabbis become their friends. My relationship to a Bar/Bat Mitzvah student is that of adult to child. My relationship to a confirmand is that of adult to almost-adult. We spend quality time together in a classroom week after week. Kids who go through Confirmation find that they come back to their rabbis and cantor for counsel or recommendation in later years and are comfortable doing it. But my relationship with kids who break their commitment is, sadly, almost always strained. They feel guilty, and my smile never seems quite genuine to them.

Fourth — It's simply Reform Jewish policy, upheld by almost every Reform congregation, that Bar/Bat Mitzvah must include a pledge to continue on through 10th grade Confirmation.

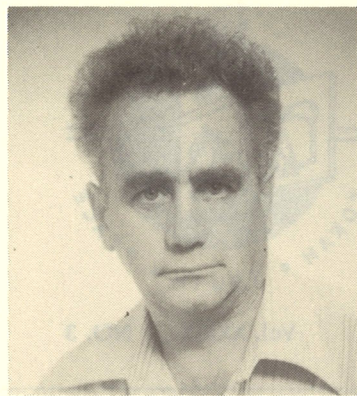

So, how do we enforce it? We have no policeman to drag kids back to Religious School. The commitment is obviously a moral one. And many good, normal kids try to talk their parents out of it. But if they understand that this Temple commitment is also non-negotiable family policy (like family and household responsibilities), things generally go more easily.

I am so convinced that this commitment is ultimately beneficial that we are adding new steps to the process. The child as well as the parent will be asked to make a firm commitment when a Bar/Bat Mitzvah date is requested (one year in advance). In addition, no youngster will be able to start Bar/Bat Mitzvah preparation class (7 months in advance) without both students and parents reaffirming the commitment again.

May we go from strength to strength.

Aryeh Azriel

Rabbi Azriel's College Visits Begin Soon. See Page 2 for schedule.

IS ISRAEL STILL A ZIONIST STATE?

Dr. Yosef Gorny of the Department of Jewish History at Tel Aviv University, Israel will be the guest speaker at the Shabbat Evening Service on Friday, October 7 at 8:15.

Dr. Gorny has published more than 40 articles in Hebrew and English on the history of the Zionist movement, the Jewish Yishuv and Jewish intellectual thought in Israel and the U.S.A.

Professor Gorny will be in Omaha to participate in the Symposium on Jewish History which is being sponsored by Creighton University and the Jewish Cultural Arts Council of the Jewish Federation.

PHILIP KLUTZNICK TO ADDRESS SYMPOSIUM

Former Omahan Philip Klutznick will address the Symposium on Jewish History, "Eretz Israel, Israel and the Jewish Diaspora — Mutual Relations Throughout the Ages" at 7:30 p.m., October 9, at the JCC.

The symposium is open to the public at no charge. It has been arranged by Dr. Menachem Mor, holder of Creighton University's Philip M. and Ethel Klutznick Chair in Jewish Civilization.

The program will begin at 9 a.m. on October 9 and 10. In addition to Mr. Klutznick, speakers of special interest to Omaha Jews will be Rabbi Jonathan Goldstein, son of former Beth El rabbi, David Goldstein and Rabbi Jonathan Rosenbaum, former associate professor of Judaic Studies at UNO, and director of the Federation Bureau of Education.

COLLEGE VISITATION SCHEDULE

Rabbi Azriel and the College and Youth Committee Chairman Spencer Brookstein have established a tentative schedule for this year's college visits. Please be sure to call or mail to the Temple, the address and phone number of your college age children so they can be invited to join Rabbi Azriel in his visit for breakfast or dinner.

GRATITUDE FROM RABBI AND MRS. BROOKS

Our Rosh Hashanah was doubly wonderful this year. First, we were home and could share our prayers and celebrations with Rabbi Azriel, Cantor Firestone, and with all of you.

And, then, so many of you remembered us with the giant Uniongram, flowers, cards, calls and so many other manners of conveying good wishes.

Jane and I thank every one of you, and in our hearts are reflected everything and more you have wished for us: a year of serenity, of peace of mind and soul, good health and the joy of living.

Some say that Bad News Travels Fast . . .

. . . but your Rabbis, Cantor and Synagogue can't count on it. Several times in the last few months, we've missed out on important information concerning illness, hospitalization, or the death of a member or near relation because informed friends of the family assumed we knew already. Obviously, we can only be of help when we are made aware of a need. We would rather be told a dozen times about the same need than not to hear it once.

Please inform the synagogue office if you become aware of a problem or situation involving any of our member families, and do not assume that we already know. Everyone must do his or her part to help us help.

POLICE CHIEF ROBERT WADMAN TO SPEAK AT MEN'S CLUB

Robert C. Wadman, Chief of the Omaha Police Department, will be the featured speaker at the opening Men's Club Brunch, Sunday, October 9 at 10:00 a.m.

Chief Wadman has wide experience in law enforcement and is well-known both locally and nationally. His topic for October 9 will be "Security versus Liberty."

Lox and bagels will be served. There is no charge for Men's Club members; $2.00 for guests. Please join us.

JEWISH CHAUTAUQUA SOCIETY ENDOWS LECTURESHIP AT CREIGHTON

Rabbi Myer S. Kripke, Rabbi Emeritus of Beth El Synagogue, will teach "Introduction to the Old Testament," during the fall semester at Creighton University. The class one of 167 being underwritten this semester by the Jewish Chautauqua Society across the U.S. and Canada.

Rabbi Kripke is entering his fourteenth year as JCS Resident Lecturer at Creighton.

To date, more than two million students have attended JCS — sponsored seminars and lectures. JCS also produces educational video programs and sponsors interfaith institutes. It has donated more than 100,000 volumes of Judaica to college and secondary school libraries.

Founded in 1893, JCS is the educational arm of the National Federation of Temple Brotherhoods.

NEW CEMETERY EXIT

It is now possible to exit to 44th Street from the Temple Israel Cemetery. This gate is open only at the time of a funeral and will provide a smoother traffic flow.

When attending a funeral, please enter at the 42nd Street entrance and drive into the Cemetery as far as possible to allow other cars to park behind.

When leaving, use the new exit to 44th Street.

OUR SYMPATHY

The Congregation records with sorrow the deaths of:

Sam Ban, husband of Jeanette Ban, father of Arnold and Justin Ban and Doris Cohn, brother of Jack Ban, Sophie Sullivan and Rose Becker;

Morris Schrier, husband of Dorothy Schrier, father of Stanley Schrier;

Shirley Wohlner Meyerson, mother of Howard Wohlner and Phyllis Gordon, step-mother of Leo Meyerson, Lorraine Silverman and Bob Silverman;

Aaron Levitt, brother of Sarah Winter; and extends sympathy to their bereaved families.

Sisterhood's fabulous and unique dinner

CARING COMMITTEE

On Rosh Hashanah, your Caring Committee was happy to bring a bit of love into the lives of Temple members or their families who are residents in nursing homes or retirement apartments.

Carnations were delivered to sixty Temple family members at the Rose Blumkin Home, Montclair, St. Joseph Villa, Hill Haven Nursing, Livingston Plaza, O.E.A. Manor, Park Tower, Immanuel Fontenelle, Crown Pointe and Remington Heights.

The following note expresses the appreciation we received from our friends:

"We thank the Caring Committee for the flower and good wishes for the New Year. You brightened his room . . ."

Judy Farber was Chairman for this project.

In addition, we were able to arrange home hospitality during the holidays and want to share a sample with you: "It is always nice to be invited for such a meal, but when it is meant as a true gesture of kindness as from you, it takes on special meaning when one is away from home for the High Holidays."

DISTRICT 20 SISTERHOOD CONVENTION MEETS IN KANSAS CITY

The following Sisterhood Delegates will attend the District 20, NFTS Biennial Convention in Kansas City on October 14-16, 1988: Elyce Azriel, Dora Goldstrom, Marcie Gallner, Natha Waldbaum, Phyllis Roffman, Jane Brooks, Marilyn Warren, Jane Sawyer and Sheila Jacobson.

The convention will meet at the Kansas City Marriott Hotel and will be hosted by the Sisterhood of Congregation B'nai Jehudah of Kansas City.

Special speakers will include the Reverend John Buchanan and Doris Brickner representing People for the American Way, and Al Vorspan, Vice-president, Union of American Hebrew Congregations.

OUTREACH BREAKFAST Sunday, October 23rd 10:00 a.m.-noon

"Intermarriage: When Love Meets Tradition." For our first Sunday morning get-together, your Outreach Committee offers a movie — but no popcorn. Instead, we'll serve up our traditional bagel breakfast, plus some thoughtful discussions. So, be there!

More than 100 people enjoyed the Outreach Shabbat dinner, which attracted visitors from as far away as Columbus — Joe and Linda Bordy. Thanks to all who cooked, served and lent a hand: Debbie Brookstein, Sandy Passer, Noni Selner, Sheila Jacobson, Marilyn Fishel, Berta Meyers, Roberta and Dan Wisnosky.

Be sure to call in your reservation for our October meeting by Friday, October 21st, so we can provide enough babysitters. Call 556-6536. We cannot accommodate infants.

"FOOD FOR THOUGHT"

The first session of the "Food for Thought" luncheon series will be held Tuesday, October 18, 11:30-1:00 at La Strada '72. Rabbi Azriel will lead a discussion of current issues and events. We will order from the menu and pay separately. Please phone the Temple office, 556-6536, by noon on Friday, October 14 to make your reservation.

SISTERHOOD CONTINUES TO OFFER HONORARY MEMBERSHIPS

Sisterhood has had a long-standing tradition of honoring members who have celebrated their 80th birthdays and who have been members for 20 consecutive years.

Do you qualify?

Please call Dora Goldstrom, Sisterhood president, at 496-2233.

If you have paid your dues already, you will be reimbursed.

SHARE YOUR HAPPY OCCASIONS — SPONSOR AN ONEG SHABBAT

Please share your special occasions with the Temple family by sponsoring an Oneg Shabbat in honor of a forthcoming marriage, a baby naming, a Bar/Bat Mitzvah, an anniversary blessing, or any happy event. You will add warmth and festivity to the Shabbat Oneg by doing so.

Please call Dora Goldstrom at 496-2233 for details.

Berta Meyers, Marilyn Fishel, Sandy Passer and Debbie Brookstein serve Lenée Hoberman at the recent Outreach Shabbat dinner.

CANTOR'S NOTES

Harold I. Firestone

As our High Holy Days and Sukkot festival period comes to a close, we advance into the fall season of events. Just a few words to acknowledge the mitzvot and good works of the folks who helped to bring us successfully through this important period.

I would like to thank our choir: Lois Carlsen, Marylinn Gregory, John Hansen, and Tom Harvey and thank Tom for his efforts in directing our fine professional quartet this year. And, I extend our appreciation to Joyce Mynster for her most able music accompaniment during our services.

And, a special thanks goes to Mark Spizman who, once again, blew the shofar with such resounding vigor and feeling. You have been an outstanding link in our tradition of young people blowing the shofar, Mark!

Another mitzvah that must be noted is the contribution of carrels for our Learning Center by Larry Koom. The equipment he built for us will help provide incentives for our children in learning Hebrew and other facets of Judaic study. Thank you for your thoughtfulness and interest in our Jewish youth.

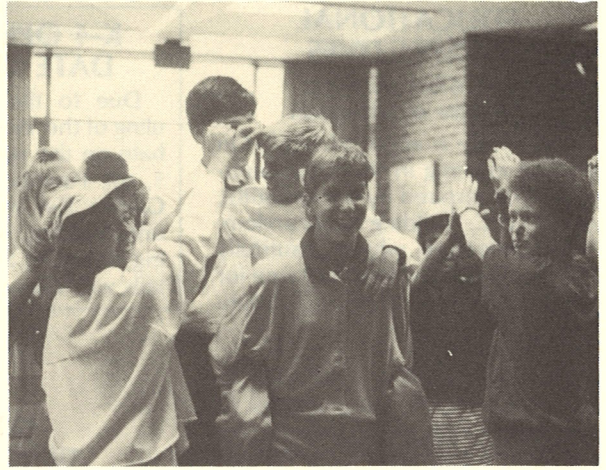

I look forward to Temple members starting our new adult choir. Response in recruiting members has been good — but the success of this venture depends on YOU! So, if you enjoy singing — for fun — come and sing with us on each Thursday evening at 7:30 P.M. at Temple. Call 556-6536, for a schedule of rehearsals. We would love to have you sing at our services and concerts during the year!

Please be reminded that Temple Israel will have a Jewish composer-in-residence during the week-end of December 2-4. Martin Kalmanoff will be here in Omaha to present his celebrated Joy of Prayer Shabbat Service and direct the Chanukah Concert.

Our Music Committee with chairman, Bob Newman, is preparing this special week-end for our Temple members and community.

Sixth Graders above are: Nikki Cohen, Jennifer Farber, Elizabeth Kaplan, Rachael Krieger, Courtney Nogg, Alex Yale, Shana Novak, Joey Hornstein, David Sherman, Daniel Rosen, Jennifer Hoberman, Debbie Givner, Jessica Sophir, and Andy Weitz.

Jaclyn Roitstein "hammers" the mezzuzah, portrayed by David Kulakofsky, to the "doorpost", Lisa Coren. The "house" is enacted by Traci Mogil and B.J. Cipperley. Other Sixth graders are partially visible in the background.

Students get a personal look at the Torah with Rabbi Azriel.

Heather Horwitz, Charley Landow and Jennifer Patton put the puzzle together as other religious school students watch from the friendship circle.

OPENING "DAZE"

Religious School opening was a big success. Each student in grades 1-4 received a piece of a big puzzle. When it was reassembled at the end of the day, they discovered its special message: Baruchim Ha Ba-im — Welcome! Sounds of the shofar, Jewish music, and lots of smiles filled the opening assemblies. Students in grades 5-7 got a close-up view of the Torah. They closed their first day with a dramatic "family album," using costumes and creative imaginations to portray Jewish life cycle events.

EDUCATIONAL PERSPECTIVES

Ann Kibel Schwartz
Director of Education

This article is about PLACES. On my first evening in Israel this summer, I was inspired by the beautiful, new H.U.C. building in Jerusalem. The architecture, which beautifully blends the old and new, became for me a metaphor for Reform Judaism.

The next morning, I returned to the same PLACE to begin a week of encounters with the H.U.C. faculty and fellow educators from Reform congregations all over the United States. Our purpose was to learn and grow as Jews and as teachers. We studied ancient texts and current issues. The central topic of our lectures, discussions, and field trips concerned the Place we were in, ISRAEL.

Our first textual reference was the book of the Torah, Genesis. The story of the Garden of Eden is a wonderful allegory. Adam and Eve represent mankind. Do you know what was God's first question to man and to woman? He asked them WHERE ARE YOU? They had eaten from the forbidden tree and were hiding. Could God really not know their physical location? He was asking about their spiritual location. They were hiding because they were spiritually naked. When found out, they each blamed someone else. They were hiding from responsibility for their own actions.

How often do we try to deny our responsibilities and hide from ourselves? Each of us should ask: WHERE ARE WE?

Israel is often called the holy land, but real holiness must be found in a spiritual, rather than a physical PLACE. Wherever we are, in ERETZ YISRAEL or Omaha, Nebraska, we can create spirituality within ourselves. How? Whenever we study Torah, perform Mitzvot, practice Halakha and strive to make the world a better place to live, then we are in a holy PLACE.

Shalom.

K-4 OPEN HOUSE DATE CHANGED

Due to the recent rescheduling of the Vice Presidential Debate on the evening of October 5, the Parents Open House for Grades K-4 will be postponed until Sunday, November 6, during Religious School hours. Details will follow.

OTYG

Tiffani Sherman

The youth High Holy Day services were very well attended. Thanks to all who participated in the Temple Israel youth family services.

The members of the executive board elected two new co-chaplains on September 8th to fill the space vacated by Lisa Hurwitz. The new co-chaplains are Trudi Selner and Tiffani Sherman. Good luck!

On September 18, applications for fall conclave, November 4-6 in Wichita, Kansas, were issued. If you are a paid member of OTYG and did not receive an application, call Keri at 334-1014.

Organizational meetings are being planned for the preparation of winter conclave, which will be held in Omaha December 23-28, 1988. We need all your help to plan this important event. If you would like to be a chairman of a committee, or serve on one, please contact a board member. Thanks!!

WANTED: ASSISTANT TEMPLE YOUTH GROUP ADVISOR

Temple Israel is searching for an individual or couple looking for a meaningful and rewarding experience working with our Temple Youth Program. As an assistant Youth Group Advisor you will be working closely with Marcia Greene, the OTYG Advisor. For more information, call Rabbi Azriel, 556-6536 or Spencer Brookstein, 330-3418.

WE WELCOME OUR NEW LIBRARY SPECIALIST

We are very fortunate to have a library specialist for our Sunday School. Marsha Greenhill, a professional librarian with special experience as a story teller, will be conducting book talks with our students several times each month. She is reorganizing Temple Israel's library with a special focus on children's books. Students will be encouraged to check out books and explore the world of Jewish literature.

Marsha has a Master's Degree in Library Science from the University of Maryland. She serves as the children's librarian at the Willa Cather Branch of the Omaha Public Library. She also has experience as a Religious School teacher.

Marsha and her family joined Temple Israel when they moved to Omaha from Bridgeport, West Virginia. Her husband, Bill, is Chief of Social Work at the Veteran's Administration. Her son Dan is a high school senior at Millard North and is very active in O.T.Y.G. Daughter Julie is a seventh grader in our Religious School.
