Community Yom Ha'atzmaut Celebration Features Rabbi Josh Zweiback's Mah Tovv Group

Sunday, May 6, J.C.C.

12:30 – 3 p.m.

Temple Israel's own Rabbi Josh Zwieback is returning home for a new performance from his fabled Jewish rock'n roll band, Mah Tovv. Mah Tovu's music is influenced by the beat of classic rock'n roll.

The band was founded by Josh, when he was a rabbinic student, and Steve Brodsky, of Denver, Colorado, who has a rich background in contemporary, as well as cantorial, music.

Their performances are lively and upbeat and enjoyed by adults as well as young people.

This is a great opportunity for the family that prays together to "rock out" together as we give thanks for Israel's Independence Day.

Come hear your favorite Mah Tovv tunes and discover a slew of new songs the band has written over the past year.

Rabbi Zweiback is on the Rabbinic staff of Temple Beth Am, in Palo Alto, California. He is the son of Dr.
Eugene "Speedy" Zweiback and the late Hermene Zweiback.

Youth Activities Fund Endowed

The newly-created Ruth and Bernard Raskin Youth Activities Fund has been established to assist those in need with the costs of participation in youth group and religious school activities and programs.

The Board of Trustees is extremely grateful to Mrs. Raskin, who now resides in California, for remembering Temple Israel in this significant manner.

It is a Tree of Life to them who hold fast to it.

Shavuot

Sunday, May 27, 7:30 p.m.

Beth El Synagogue

If you have never attended a Shavuot service, this is the year to do it!

Temple Israel will join Beth El in their sanctuary for a special evening concert featuring Cantor Emil Berkovits, Hazzan G. Michael Horwitz and Cantor Jennifer Blum. This will be the farewell concert for Cantor Blum and Hazzan Horwitz, both of whom will be leaving Omaha this summer. After the concert, there will be a Shavuot service at 8:45 p.m.
followed by study sessions beginning at 9:30 p.m.

Shavuot celebrates the most important event in Jewish history, the giving of the Torah. To commemorate the holiday, it is traditional to spend the whole evening studying Torah.
Another interesting custom associated with Shavuot is that only dairy foods are eaten. In honor of that custom, we will be serving cheesecakes that evening! Please join us for this joyous holiday.

Book Review

Tamra Willett-Johnson

Turbulent Souls: a Catholic Son's Return to His Jewish Family by Stephen J. Dubner

Dubner, a writer for the New York Times Magazine, writes movingly of his family, his upbringing and his journey to find his religious roots.

His mother and father, both born and raised Jewish, met after they had become Catholic. Their passion for Catholicism is clear, as is their love for each other. They raised eight children, not saying a word about their own Jewish past.

Once on the trail of his parents' story, Dubner meets relatives, travels to his grandparents' Polish shtetl and comes to embrace Judaism, which causes a rift in the family.

An engrossing story that is very well told.

This book is now available at the Temple's library.
