SISTERHOOD ACTIVITIES

MUSICAL PROGRAM PLANNED FOR JANUARY 8 LUNCHEON MEETING

On Tuesday, January 8, the sound of music will resound through the halls of Temple Israel for the Sisterhood's one o'clock luncheon.

For Temple Israel's "music man," Cantor Manfred Kuttner, will star in a vocal and instrumental musical program at the Temple. He will sing and play music representing early Jewish times to modern Jewish songs of today.

Temple Sisterhood members and their guests will be provided with a rare treat at the luncheon meeting. For besides his vocal talent, Cantor Kuttner will also present selections of music on the violin and viola.

Cantor Kuttner has been a Cantor since 1941. Before coming to Omaha, besides his regular cantorial duties, he was active in varied musical activities for 15 years in Johnstown, Pa. He served as conductor of the Johnstown Symphony Orchestra, and as a faculty member of the Allegheny Music Festival.

Program co-chairmen for the meeting are Mrs. Jack Levin and Mrs. Martin Lehr. Luncheon chairman is Mrs. Ernest Priesman. Cantor Kuttner's accompanist will be Mrs. Harry DuBoff.

Reservations may be made by calling the Temple office, or by calling Mrs. Ida Hess, 551-7581.

Temple Israel Sisterhood announced appointment of new officers at the open board meeting in December.

Mrs. Norman Lincoln is the new vice president in charge of the Department of Advanced Judaism.

Mrs. Robert Rosenberg will serve as the Luncheon Chairman. Mrs. Sidney Taren has been appointed Table Decorations Chairman.

Sisterhood Chanukah Party at Dr. Sher Home

Temple Israel Sisterhood entertained residents of the Dr. Philip Sher Home at a Chanukah Party at 2 p.m. December 23.

The program was by Cantor Manfred F. Kuttner and Miss Ida Gitlin, accompanied by Mrs. Norman Whitman.

Refreshments were served following the program.

Co-chairmen were Mrs. Herbert Weil and Mrs. Millard H. Krasne.

Sisterhood Tour

The trip to Hawaii sponsored by the Temple Sisterhood also will be open to friends and relatives of Temple Israel members as well as Temple members.

If interested and desiring more information, please call Mrs. I. M. Liberman, 556-1269, or Mrs. David E. Beber, 551-2301.

Hat's Off to:

Betsy Raskin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Raskin, who has twice won the Omaha World-Herald's Opportunity for Writers—last year as a Westside High School freshman, and this year as a sophomore.

Betsy will receive a cash award for her story entitled "Rain."

Thanks . . .

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Levin wish to thank their friends for the Uniongrams sent to their son, David, on the occasion of his Bar Mitzvah.

Welcome to New Members:

Mr. and Mrs. Jonas Weil

ENGAGEMENTS

Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Trost have announced the engagement of their daughter, Leanne Dorothy, to Richard Allan Small of Detroit, Michigan. Mr. Small is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Henry Small of Detroit, and will be graduated in January from the University of Michigan. Miss Trost is a student at the University of Michigan.

They plan a June wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Abe Schoenberger of Ludington, Michigan, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Lana Beth, to Henry Nathan Pollack, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Pollack.

They will be married in Ludington, Michigan, on January 29. The couple will live in Cambridge, Massachusetts, where Mr. Pollack has been awarded a post-doctorate fellowship at Harvard University.
