SUMMER RELIGIOUS SERVICES

Beginning June 7, regular Sabbath Services will be held at 7:30 p.m. every Friday evening.

Beginning June 14 the services will be held in the air conditioned Temple Chapel every Friday evening at 7:30 p.m. These brief and intimate worship services have proven increasingly popular with the congregation over the years.

At each service Rabbi Brooks and Cantor Kuttner will officiate.

During the summer months either Rabbi Sidney H. Brooks or Cantor Manfred F. Kuttner will be in the city at all times to serve the spiritual needs of our congregants. Members requiring rabbinical services may call the office at any time during the summer. Rabbi Brooks and Cantor Kuttner are most eager to be of service whenever the need arises, and may be reached at all times through the Temple office. You need only let the office know you would appreciate their personal visit or counsel.

CALENDAR OF EVENTS

May 31—Friday, 8:15 p.m.....Hebrew School Graduation Service

June 1—Saturday, 8:45 a.m.....Religious School Choir Breakfast, Suite F, Town House

June 1 and 2—Saturday and Sunday...Final Sessions of Religious School

June 7—Friday, 7:30 p.m.....Sabbath Evening Service (note hour)

Temple Officers Reelected

Officers of Temple Israel were reelected and four new Board members were named at the annual Congregational meeting at the Temple May 22.

Millard H. Krasne was reelected to serve a second year as president.

Also reelected were Warner B. Frohman, vice president; David E. Beber, treasurer, and Lloyd Bank, secretary.

The four new members of the Board of Trustees named to replace members whose terms expire are: Dr. J. E. Bleicher, I. M. "Cappy" Liberman, Jerold A. Dann, Yale Trustin.

The congregation approved amendments and revisions in the Temple constitution, and heard annual reports by Rabbi Sidney H. Brooks and President Krasne.

NURSERY SCHOOL

Registrations are still open for Temple Israel Nursery School for the fall semester.

Registrations will be handled in the order received and Temple Israel members will have precedence over the registration of children of non-members.

Children between the ages of 3½ and 5 are eligible.

For further information call Temple office, 556-6536.

Thanks from . . .

Elisse Stern and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Stern, for the Uniongram received in honor of her Bas Mitzvah.

Carol Simons and her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Milton Simons, for the Uniongram received in honor of her Bas Mitzvah.

Tidings on Vacation Until Fall

The Temple Tidings temporarily discontinues publication with this issue, and will resume in advance of the High Holidays in the fall.

It has indeed been a pleasure to record in the Tidings the events of our active Congregation of Temple Israel.

To all our friends we send good wishes for a pleasant, happy summer. We suggest you phone the Temple office with news items to be published in the fall.

We hope you will attend the summer Sabbath Services to be held in the Chapel at the early hour of 7:30 p.m. with Rabbi Brooks and Cantor Kuttner officiating.

Until next fall . . .
