VOL. XX	January 9, 1970	No. 10
IT SEEMS TO ME . . . A Personal Message from Rabbi Brooks Talk about "hidden talents"! It is always amazing to me in talking with our members how little most know about the really significant congregational accomplishments and advantages. Everybody is expert in pointing out our shortcomings, what we fail to do, where we have not assumed our responsibilities. True enough. The myriad of social concerns not confronted, the enormous educational vacuums, the limitless projects and programs we might undertake and have not are a constant legitimate accusation. But why do so few applaud the areas of significant success? Why are the achievements usually the "hidden talents"? I thought of this the other night when I accompanied our Temple Youth Group to a Church where our youth presented their panel called "We Speak for Judaism". (Continued on Page 2) SIDNEY H. BROOKS, M.H.L. Rabbi Manfred F. Kuttner, Cantor	Friday Evening, January 9 8: 15 p.m. SABBATH EVENING SERVICES RABBI SIDNEY H. BROOKS will officiate and conduct "IF YOU ASK ME . . ." Rabbi Brooks will comment on a number of important local issues in a setting to give you the opportunity to question and reply. Sabbath Coffee Hour	Saturday Morning, January 10 11:00 a.m. SABBATH MORNING SERVICES BAR MITZVAH of SCOTT SCHULMAN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Siegbert Schulman

IT SEEMS TO ME . . .

With their own moderator, four other youth group members spoke magnificently on Jewish Theology, Jewish Festivals, Jewish Organizational Life and The Meaning of Being a Jew. Then they answered questions directed from the audience.

Two things strike me as remarkable. First, the sureness with which our youngsters speak about Judaism, its teachings and practices. Secondly, the complete security with which they do so. I honestly doubt that there are many in our adult congregation who could do as well.

This is not a new program. It's been done for years. How many of our concretion know about it? Yet here is a sure contradiction of the much discussed "alienation" of youth. For years our young people have, through such programs as "We Speak for Judaism" educated themselves, developed the confidence to represent their faith without apology or compromise and begun to build their own solid relationships with their peer groups of other faiths.

Again, as they have for years, our Temple Youth Group will conduct an original creative worship service on January 16. They write their own prayers and responses structured around the form of the regular service. I've seen what they've done. It is beautiful. It is an expression of faith, hope and Jewish ethical intent that will move you as it does me. You ought to be a part of that service for your own inspiration and genuine spiritual enrichment.

Maybe there are other virtues and accomplishments in the structure of the congregation you don't know about. "Hidden talents" that ought to be congratulated and encouraged. I've told you some of them.

Maybe a synagogue that can do these things can't be all bad.
