Temple Israel's delegates participated actively in the conclave's varied religious, cultural and social program which included a series of lectures.

Each participant in the conclave served on a committee.

FROM THE CANTOR'S STUDY

The Congregation is invited to join the Cantor and the choir in singing of the responses during Friday evening services. These responses have been traditional in Judaism and today are a unifying force in Reform Judaism throughout the world. The services become so much more meaningful when a congregation participates in the responses.

Cantor Manfred F. Kuttner gave a recital of vocal and violin music for residents of the Dr. Sher home for the Aged. Selections covered a variety of Jewish Folklore. Mrs. Esther DuBoff was accompanist.

THANKS—from Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Subrin (nee Joan Abrahams) for the Uniongrams they received congratulating them on their recent wedding.
