TEMPLE ISRAEL JOINS SALUTE TO STATE OF ISRAEL

Our Congregation celebrates the 25th anniversary of the State of Israel at Worship this Friday evening at the early hour of 7:30 p.m. This hour accommodates young people who should not be denied the opportunity to see the documentary film, "A Wall in Jerusalem" which will be presented following services.

Narrated by Richard Burton, "A Wall in Jerusalem" is a powerful film with haunting and stirring images of the past, present, and future of the State of Israel. Composed almost entirely of newsreel footage, it presents a comprehensive record of the struggle of the State of Israel to achieve nationhood.

In "A Wall in Jerusalem" Jewish life in Palestine and the agonizing quest for nationhood are vividly depicted.

The period of history covered by "A Wall in Jerusalem" recounts Jewish involvement in the Middle East from before Theodor Herzl's Zionist proposal of 1896 until just after the June war of 1967. Glimpses of the oldest Zionist settlements, the building of Tel Aviv after World War I, a bit of Jewish vaudeville, the Palestinian sunlight on the deserted streets of the old city, all are a prelude to the account of an Arab uprising in Jerusalem. In one extraordinary vignette from the period after the First World War, Jews and Arabs dance together to celebrate the sale of some land to the Jews.

TEMPLE SALUTES

The film includes, of course, scenes of the East European ghettos as early as the turn of the century, Nazi Germany, World War II, and the post-war immigrant ships captured by the British virtually at the shores of Palestine. Yet, the emphasis from 1945 to the present is on the survivors, as they struggle first against the British, then the Arabs, and always seemingly against fate, to create the Jewish State.

"A Wall in Jerusalem" is the powerful story of the Jewish struggle for statehood, but its truth is one which transcends religion and nationality.

Join us for this magnificent presentation, and experience the reality of the birth and maturing of the State of Israel as our Congregation celebrates its 25th Anniversary.

We would, of course, be pleased if you bring any of your friends with you. All are welcome.

Rabbi Schwartz Will Address 34th Ministers' Institute, Congregation

Rabbi Schwartz

Pulpit guest during our Sabbath Evening Worship on Friday, April 6 will be Rabbi Frederick C. Schwartz.

Rabbi Schwartz serves Mount Zion Temple in St. Paul, Minnesota. He will have been here all day Friday as guest lecturer for our Congregation's 34th Annual Charles Rosenstock Memorial Institute on Judaism for Christian Clergymen.

Attending the Institute will be approximately 300 visiting clergymen from Omaha and surrounding communities. Rabbi Schwartz's topics for the clergy will be: "Aspects of Rabbinic Thought for Today" and "Contemporary Ideas in the Light of Jewish Theology."

Temple Sisterhood will serve luncheon for our guests in order to provide a full day of Jewish learning.

For thirty years the Ministers' Institute was a project of the Congregation of Temple Israel. It is now endowed by the family and friends of Charles Rosenstock in his memory. At the time of his death, June 30, 1967, Charles Rosenstock was a Trustee of Temple Israel and was a lifelong and active member of our Congregation. The goal of the Institute is increased knowledge of both Christianity and Judaism and an open exchange of ideas between Christians and Jews.

Rabbi Schwartz has graciously consented to preach at our Sabbath Evening services and thus give all of us an opportunity to hear a fine preacher and to be exposed to the thinking of a competent congregational rabbi and scholar.

His topic will be "The Minority and The Majority."

Rabbi Schwartz received both his Ordination and Doctor of Hebrew Letters from the Hebrew Union College. He served as a Chaplain in the United States Air Force, and was also director of the B'nai B'rith Hillel Foundation at the University of Florida. He also served as Associate Rabbi with Temple Rodef Shalom in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, where he founded the Council on Race and Religion.

He is a lecturer with St. John's University and St. Catherine's College in St. Paul, and is visiting Professor at Augsburg College and Carlton College. He is also President of the Minnesota Rabbinical Association.

Please invite your friends and neighbors to join us on April 6 as we welcome Rabbi Schwartz to our Congregation.
