Jubilee Celebration Marks Temple's 75th Anniversary

All Groups Have Part in Program

Auspicious plans that include all Temple groups have been made for the opening of Temple Israel's seventy-fifth Jubilee celebration, with a full schedule of events planned for the week-end starting Friday, October 19.

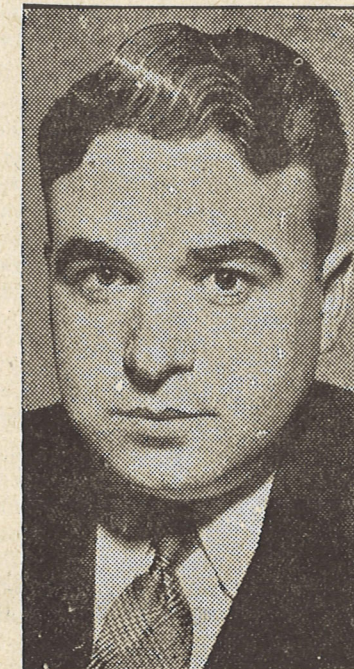

The return of Rabbi David Wice, who will be accompanied from Newark, N. J., by Mrs. Wice, to participate in the opening Friday night service, highlights the occasion. A reception following the service will be in charge of Mrs. Sam Robinson.

Sisterhood members will honor Mrs. Wice at a Saturday noon no-host luncheon at the Blackstone hotel. Rabbi and Mrs. Wice will be honor guests of Supper Club members Saturday evening at a Temple supper and the Wices will be guests of all three Temple boards at a Sunday brunch at the Blackstone hotel.

The Supper Club is looking ahead with eager expectation to Rabbi Wice's return, inasmuch as it was under his leadership that this group received its original impetus. Special plans for the evening are in charge of the Supper Club's newly elected chairman, Leo Nogg, and a committee headed by members of this group.

Mrs. Clarence L. Bergman, Sisterhood president, is in charge of plans for the Sisterhood luncheon Saturday noon, and elaborate plans for this group's participation in the seventy-fifth birthday observance are under way. They include a meeting Monday, November 5, when Mrs. Isidor Ziegler will give a reading of "Behold the Jew," assisted by Mrs. Harry DuBoff, who will provide a musical background for the review.

A Brotherhood stag affair is planned within the six weeks' observance, according to Alfred Mayer, and the Youth Group of the Temple, as well as the Religious School, will have special events to mark the celebration.

Extensive Plans Made for Event

Commemorating the observance of its seventy-fifth anniversary, the congregation of Temple Israel will mark the occasion with a Jubilee celebration, beginning Friday, October 19, to continue through Sunday, December 2.

As the oldest Jewish institution in Nebraska, the seventy-fifth observance of its founding provides the occasion for emphasis of its contribution to the Jewish community, not alone to Omaha but to the entire mid-western region.

During the celebration, the three remaining living rabbis who have been affiliated with the congregational life of Temple Israel will return to Omaha to participate in the observance. Tribute also will be paid those deceased rabbis who served the congregation so faithfully during its three-quarters of a century existence.

Included in returning rabbis will be Dr. Leo M. Franklin of Detroit, Mich., who left the pulpit here in 1904. Rabbi David Wice of Newark, N. J., who was rabbi from 1933 to 1941, will open the observance at the Friday night services, October 19, with a reception honoring Rabbi and Mrs. Wice to follow. Participating in the closing week-end's observance November 30 through December 2 will be Rabbi Franklin and Rabbi Arthur Lelyveld, now of New York, head of the Zionist Emergency Council, who succeeded Rabbi Wice in 1941 and served as Temple Israel's rabbi until 1944.

Throughout the six weeks' observance each of Temple Israel's congregational groups, the Sisterhood, Brotherhood, Supper Club, Youth Group and Religious School, will integrate their activities into the Jubilee celebration.

"The observance will be fitting testimony to the many years of out- (Continued on Page 3)

OBSERVES BAR MITZVAH

Marlin Somberg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Somberg, was the celebrant of his Bar Mitzvah at Friday evening services on October 12. The congregational extends its congratulations to Marlin and his family.

Religious School Enrollment Is Up

There were 138 pupils, including the confirmation class, on the rolls of the Religious School of Temple Israel when classes convened Sunday morning, October 7.

School officials, in order to start classes on time, have adopted a new policy, Miss Elizabeth Hart, superintendant announces. The school bell will be sounded at 9:45 promptly. Children tardy after 9:50 a. m. will report to the office. Parents are urged to co-operate with the school in the matter of prompt attendance.

A new member of the faculty is Miss Charlotte Morgenstern and Mrs. Norman Whitman has rejoined the teaching staff as dramatic instructor.

Extra curricular activities include, besides dramatics, a Junior Choir under the direction of Mr. Max Scheuermann and Miss Ida Gitlin, a book review and newspaper group with Mrs. David Chesneau as leader.

FINAL CALL MADE ON NAPKIN PROJECT

A request is made by Mrs. Sam Appleman in behalf of the Sisterhood of Temple Israel that all napkins outstanding on the napkin project, sponsored last year, be turned in promptly so that work can go ahead on the tablecloth into which they will be made.

The napkins should be turned in now, whether or not completed, according to Mrs. Appleman. Mrs. David Rosenstock is assisting with the in-gathering.

THANKS IS DUE TO E. I. RUBIN FOR SUKKO

The beautiful sukkah which graced the Temple sanctuary during the observance of the Sukkos festival was the work of E. I. Rubin, who generously volunteered his time and services. The congregation is grateful to Mr. Rubin for his efforts, which added greatly to the beauty and impressiveness of the service.

ABLE USHERS DID OUTSTANDING JOB

Grateful acknowledgment is made to Chairman Morton Ehrenreich and his fine group of ushers, who handled the seating of the congregation during the High Holiday services. Assisting were Fred Rosenstock, J. J. Friedman, Louis Lipp, and Paul Blotcky.

FIRST OF RETURNING MILITARY WELCOMED

It is with pleasure that the congregation of Temple Israel extends greetings to several of its members who have returned from active military service.

Among first of the returnees are Lloyd Banks, Herbert Berkowitz, Harold Cherniack, Lloyd Friedman, Leon Fellman, Edward Ellenbogen, Meyer Z. Goldner, Joseph S. Goldware, Sam Handler, Phil Laser, Dr. Maurice Pepper, Warner Frohman, Maurice B. Peiser, Joe Rothkop and Marvin Trel-ler.

It is to be hoped that the next few months will see the return of many additional of our servicemen and that "civvies" will quickly replace the uniforms of their military careers.
