On Sep-11 early in the morning while I was at school. When Mr. Galvan my 2nd period teacher told what was happening in New York, all of the class ~~could~~ couldn't believe it. I was all nervous. Then the bell rang, I went to my 3rd period class. When I got there the teacher took us to the library. We were watching the news on C.N.N. And that's when I started to believe in that. When I got home my mom was watching the news. She was all nervous about my dad, because my dad was in New York. That was a terrible day.
