It was The most catastrophic day any human could ever live through, Sep 11-01, The day our country was struck to The ground. Our class was in The middle of our session, I recall when our next door teacher came in and spoke to my teacher, we clearly overheard when he asked her to tune into the world news, That something terrible was on T.V. We had all previously heard that ~~the~~ ~~been~~ falling of a tower had been caused by an Air plane that accidentally crashed into it. Minutes later when another tower had been thrown down
