

9/11 essay

Well, when the 9/11 attack came to my ears I felt a little scared. They first told me in the history class. It was like about 8:00 a'clock in the morning. Our teacher did seem really scared, when she told us she turn on the tv. to see the news in CNN. We stood all period looking at the news. When we got out of that period, we went to third period were we found out that another plane had crashed on the pentagon. In that period we stood looking at the news too. This news really put me on alert.
