Sept. 11, 2001

The horrible day. Sept 11, 2001.
When this tragic day happened I was in my 2nd period in 8th grade. My history teacher told me we were under attack and that this could end up to be World War III. I got scared because if we were under attack and they bombed the school I hadn't told my mom and dad how much I loved them. I didn't find out that they crashed the twin towers till 4th period when my teacher turned on the TV. All of the U.S got together. The U.S had never been so close. Some of my friends were crying others were just scared just like me.
